Newton Obtains Quota Of $197,498 In Greater Boston Chest Drive

Chairman William Fawcett Thanks Newton For Its Co-Operation

With the close of the Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign Wednesday night, Newton joined about 40 other cities and towns in responding to the call for social defense of the community by reaching its Community Chest quota of $197,498.

The victory dinner at the Hotel Statler, "Dutch-treat" as usual, was a stirring victory as the total goal of $4,883,000 was oversubscribed by more than $23,000.

It was more than a victory in dollars and cents. It was one of the most significant campaigns of its kind ever held in Greater Boston, giving proof that its people are alert to the need for guarding the health and welfare of its citizens as well as for building armaments.

The successful campaign to which over 300,000 people contributed generously means that the 200 Community Fund hospitals, health and social service agencies will be enabled to continue their services of protection and care to the 2,000,000 men, women and children of Greater Boston for the next 12 months.

The success of the Newton Chest Campaign means that the 14 Chest agencies will continue to give their excellent service to the people of Newton.

William V. M. Fawcett, chairman of the Newton Campaign, thanked all residents of Newton for their generosity and whole-hearted co-operation. "Due to circumstances arising from our new arrangements with the Greater Boston Campaign and (Continued on page 10)

Newtonville Boy Becomes Bishop

Rev. Oliver Loring, rector of Grace Church, New Bedford, was elected Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Maine on Wednesday night at Portland. He received a majority on the first ballot of the votes cast by both the clerical and lay delegates. He will succeed the late Rt. Rev. Benjamin Brewster.

Bishop-Elect Loring was born in Newtonville 37 years ago, the son of Rev. and Mrs. Richard T. Loring. His father was for many years rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Newtonville. Oliver Loring graduated from Harvard in 1926 and from the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge in 1930. The following year he was ordained by Bishop Sherill and was appointed a curate at Grace Church, New Bedford. Two years later he was made rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Dorchester, and in 1936 he became rector of Grace Church. In 1935 he married Mrs. Elizabeth Brewster Gifford, widow of a former rector of Grace Church. They have two children. His brother, Rev. Richard T. Loring, is rector of an Episcopal Church in Baltimore.

New Firemen Start As 5 Fires Cause $20,000 Damage

The two-platoon system in the Newton Fire Department went into effect on Sunday and the new firemen assisted in the busiest 12 hours the Newton fire department has had in years, starting at 10:16 Sunday night. At that time a telephone alarm was received for a fire in the drug store of Giles Mosher at 624 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre. This fire, which was observed by a passer-by, spread with great rapidity, and Box 717 was pulled at 10:22. The drug store was thoroughly gutted, and the flames spread into the tailor shop of Jacob Brisson at 626 Commonwealth ave. Brisson is the owner of the building. The loss was estimated at $8000. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defective chimney at the rear of the Mosher store. While working at this fire, Hoseman Willard White of Engine 9 fell and sprained a knee. He was taken to Newton Hospital to have it treated, and then taken to his home on Lewis st.

At 10:30 Sunday night a telephone call was received at fire alarm headquarters of a fire in the cellar of the two-family house at 146 Cabot st., Newton. Two families occupying the house had to make hasty exits: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheehan and their three small children from the first floor apartment, and Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lafford and their two children from the second-floor apartment. The fire is supposed to have started in a rubbish barrel. It worked up to the first floor.

At 5:15 Monday morning a fire was discovered in the home of John Finelli at 45 Ashmont ave., Newtonville. It started in the chimney back of the living-room fireplace, and was extinguished before much damage resulted.

Elevated To Have New Cars to Newton

The report of the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway, made public last Friday, revealed the fact that on the route from Watertown, through Newton and Brighton to Boston, twenty new type cars will be placed in operation this month. The new cars are known as the "Presidents' Conference Committee Type," and with such a pious title they should be good. They are described as being light, streamlined, comfortable, fast, smooth and practically noiseless. They will replace the 30-year-old, heavy type cars now in use on this line. These 30-year-old cars were transferred to the Newton-Brighton line several years ago, replacing a newer type car which had been in use from Watertown and Newton to Boston. There was much criticism at that time by patrons of the Newton route of the Elevated, so the assigning of the latest type cars to that division will be compensation for the former injustice.

The report of the trustees stated that the Newton-Brighton line was selected as the route for the new type cars, because it is the most heavily travelled line with single cars entering the subway. Newton patrons of the Elevated will not contradict this statement. It is stated that the new cars will provide sufficient accommodations to care for all normal traffic on the line.

Aldermen Listen To Protests Against Enlarging Gas Stations

Colby Says Station on Avenue Reduces Values

Hearings were held before the Board of Aldermen on Monday night on petitions of the Colonial Beacon Oil Company asking for permits to increase the quantity of gasoline storage at several of its stations in this city. William Keane appeared for the petitioners and explained that the company desires to deliver gasoline in full truck loads at one delivery. There was no opposition to the petition for a permit to install an additional tank of 2000 gallons capacity at 1171 Washington st., West Newton.

Ex-Alderman Clarence Colby appeared as attorney for Mr. and Mrs. John Daley to oppose the petition for two additional underground tanks at 1298 Commonwealth ave., Waban. He said his clients own a large residence and 63,000 square feet of land along Commonwealth ave. opposite this station, and have owned this property since 1924. He said this station is operated under a non-conforming use in a Class A, single residence zone, as it was at this locus before the zoning ordinance was established in 1922. He said it is the worst example of a gas station location along the avenue; being situated on the worst curve on this highway; a dangerous curve that the city should straighten and which will have to be straightened some day. He said this station has retarded the development of the surrounding area, which is near some of the best residential sections of the city, and that its value should not be built up by granting increased storage facilities there, as some day the city will have to do something about the station.

On the petition for an additional 2000 gallons tank at 1742 Commonwealth ave., West Newton, Alderman Hughes asked if this is not the locus for which a similar petition was recently awarded. Alderman Fahy said that the company petitioned for increased storage at this locus about 1½ years ago, and was refused. Alderman Hughes referred to a condition specified when the company was granted a permit for a lubricatorium at this locus a few years ago, the condition stipulating that automobiles leaving this station not use a driveway on Washington st. Mr. Keane replied that signs have been placed at the station requesting such. (Continued on page 10)

Tells Newton Forum Economic System Must Be Free

Connolly Speaks On What Business Wants of Government

Speaking before an interested audience, Mr. Edward F. Connolly told the Newton Community Forum last Sunday that the people of the United States will have to choose between its present and some other form of economic system within the next four years. "If government must assume responsibilities, our present system is doomed," the speaker said. Mr. Connolly, Special Attorney for the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, talking on the subject "What Business Wants of Government," declared that under the restrictions placed on it today private enterprise cannot operate as it should. "If we are to retain our present economic system and remain free, the people must be encouraged to invest their money towards new production," he continued. "The trend of government towards the centralization of all activities of life must stop if we are to get back to normal. To a certain degree we have followed the same road which other nations beyond our borders have followed to the bitter end. If enterprise cannot operate without restrictions, we are going to get another system, namely totalitarianism."

Lashing out against the men who try to restrict business, he said that one of the chief faults of our present government is that "too many people with good hearts but little experience have gotten into positions of authority. If ever a people finds itself in shackles because of one word, that word will be 'liberal.'"

"Many people get a return for their labors far out of proportion to their worth," Mr. Connolly said. (Continued on Page 10)

Aldermen Oppose Party Primaries

The Board of Aldermen on Monday night unanimously voted to oppose the bill filed in the Legislature by Thomas Morahan of Tremont st., Newton, to have preferential voting in Newton abolished and party primaries restored. Mr. Morahan has been a candidate the past few years for Alderman and also for Senator. Alderman Rawson said the bill, if passed, would entail the expense of an additional election. The Aldermen also voted to have a member of the Legislative Committee of the Board attend the hearing at the State House and oppose the bill. Because the date for filing bills for this year's session of the Legislature has passed, the Board voted to refer to next year's Board of Aldermen the resolution presented by Alderman Hughes which favors the changing of the first meeting of the Aldermen in "off years" from January 1 to January 2.

Father Farrell Memorial Mass

The annual memorial mass in tribute to the late Rev. William J. Farrell will be held under the auspices of the veterans organizations of Newton at St. Bernard's Church, West Newton, on Wednesday morning, Feb. 12th, at 8 o'clock. Members of Newton Post, A. L.; Daley Post, V. F. W., and Chaplain William J. Farrell Post, D. A. V., will participate. Chaplain Farrell, formerly a curate at St. Bernard's Church, served in France during the World War with the 104th Infantry and the 103rd Field Artillery. He was decorated for bravery in action.

Examination For Annapolis Feb. 21

Congressman Thomas H. Eliot has announced that on Feb. 21 a preliminary examination will be held for all candidates for an appointment to Annapolis from the 9th Congressional District.

In accordance with legislation passed recently by Congress, and approved by the President in connection with the defense program of naval expansion, the number of appointments at Annapolis has been increased by one for each Congressman and Senator. The new appointee, who must be nominated before April 10, is scheduled to enter the Naval Academy this summer, with the regular entering class of 1941.

Congressman Eliot asked that all eligible men residing in the 9th District, who wish to be considered as candidates for this appointment, notify him at once in writing at his Washington office, in order that each may receive an official announcement of the time and place of the preliminary examination.

Newtonville Woman Burned To Death

Mrs. Jennie E. Hull, 76, of 17 Otis st., Newtonville, was burned to death on Monday morning in a fire which swept her home. She was alone in the house, her husband, George A. Hull, a conductor on the New Haven Railroad, having gone to New York on his run on the "Merchants' Limited." A newsboy observed smoke issuing from the Hull house at 6:40 and notified Dr. William O'Halloran who resides in the adjoining house. He phoned an alarm at 6:41 and an alarm from Box 26 was pulled at 6:45. Chief Randlett ordered a second alarm at 6:47.

The fire spread rapidly and the rear of the house was a mass of flames when the firemen arrived. When they succeeded in entering the kitchen they found Mrs. Hull on the floor, burned to death. She was taken to Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. Police notified Mrs. Hull's daughter, Mrs. Reynold Grammer of Russell Court, Newtonville, and Mr. Grammer hastened to the scene. A telephone message was sent to Mr. Hull in New York and he returned by airplane. Police were told that a considerable sum of money might be in the house and a police guard was kept at the place all day.

The fire started in the kitchen pantry, and the cause is unknown. The house was badly gutted and the damage is estimated at $10,000. Shortly after the fire at the Hull house started, Box 14 was pulled at 6:53 for a fire in an automobile on Washington st., near Jewett st. This alarm brought apparatus from Watertown and Watertown into Newton. The fire was in a car owned by James Fend of 294 Washington st., and the damage was slight.

Mrs. Hull was born in Danielson, Conn., and had resided in Newtonville for 20 years. Her funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grammer. Rev. Charles O. Farrar of St. Paul's Episcopal Church officiated, and burial was at Chappaquiddick Island. Mrs. Hull is survived by her husband, her daughter and two grandchildren.

Bullough's Pond To Be Cleared For Skating

With the annual winter carnival of the Newton Figure Skating Club scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at Crystal Lake, Newton Centre, and with weather forecasts predicting no interference from the elements, the Recreation Department has cleared the ice from the snow of the storm of two weeks ago sufficiently to enable the conduct of an interesting program.

The usual skating facilities at Crystal Lake when there is no snow include an area which extends nearly one hundred yards out from the bathing beach and then directly across the lake to a point opposite Lake ave. Yesterday morning nearly half of this area had been cleared from snow and a considerably greater space will be available by tomorrow. The regular maintenance crew of the Recreation Department with light tractor equipment and plows, supplemented by a number of additional workers, are giving welfare or NYA assistance, have been used on the work. Where at first the ice surface was none too good for skating, the midday thaws of the past few days together with the cold nights are expected to provide nearly perfect conditions by tomorrow.

There has been skating at Ware's Cove for the past ten or twelve days as it was found possible to use heavy equipment on the stronger ice. A 580-lb. truck plow loaded with 4000 pounds of sand accomplished the greater part of the task of clearing the ice of snow in short order.

The Recreation Department explains the situation at Bulloughs Pond, Newtonville, one of the most popular of the skating areas in Newton, where the snow remains practically untouched, by the fact that conditions there are considerably different than at other points. An attempt was made on Monday morning after the storm but light equipment was unable to cope with the task and the work had to be abandoned as the funds to employ a large enough force, to tackle the job by hand, was not available. It was impossible to use the heavy equipment at Bulloughs Pond because of the great possibility of the ice failing to hold up, in which case the equipment would be immersed in six or more feet of water. At Ware's Cove and on parts of Crystal Lake the depth is but two feet, from which it would be a simple matter to recover the equipment in case it fell through.

In addition the weight of the snow upon the ice is sufficient to push the ice down into the water below with the result that water finds its way on top of the ice, making a layer of slush between the snow and the ice. (Continued on page 10)

Newton Wins 1st Place In Class In Highway 1940 Safety Record

Report of Traffic Bureau Shows Drop In Accidents and Deaths

Newton won the honor of first place in highway safety rating for 1940 in cities in Massachusetts between 50,000 and 100,000 population, according to figures released this week by the Massachusetts Safety Council. Other cities in this class in their order of rating were—Brookline, Lawrence, Holyoke, Medford, Quincy, Malden and Brookline. Commencement is made of the vigorous campaign waged by Newton police against speeding. Mention should have been made that this campaign was started after a speed limit of 30 miles had been established by Chief Hughes.

The report of the Traffic Bureau of the Newton Police Department for the year 1940 shows that 399 automobile accidents occurred in the city last year, as compared with 430 in 1939, and 8 fatalities as compared with 11 in 1939. The total number of persons reported as having been injured in motor vehicle accidents in Newton in 1940 was 606; in 1939 it was 661. Of those injured (or killed) have been injured) 243 were operators of vehicles, 246 passengers, 95 pedestrians, and 22 bicyclists. There were 226 cases of damage to automobiles or other property, as compared with 167 in 1939.

In describing fatal accidents, the report shows that of the 8 victims 2 were drivers of cars involved, and 6 were pedestrians. One driver drove his car 45 to 50 miles around a curve and it tipped over on a snowbank. The other driver killed operated his car at a 60-mile speed across the intersection of Centre st. and Commonwealth ave., hit another car and then crashed into a traffic signal. Of the pedestrians one was a 4-year-old child who walked behind a backing ice truck, and another was a 2½-year-old child who ran suddenly into the side and under a passing truck. Two of the victims were old men hit on the Worcester turnpike. One was 76-years old. The driver of the car which hit him reported that he did not see the aged man until the car hit him. The judge who presided at the inquest on this man's death considered the evidence sufficient to order a complaint against the driver, but the latter was found not guilty in the Newton court. The other aged victim was 72 years old. Witnesses of this fatality, including a policeman, absolved the woman who drove the car from blame. There was no court trial.

Another victim who was fatally injured while walking across the Worcester turnpike was 50 years of age. Evidence presented at the inquest caused the judge who heard it to order a complaint against the driver. At the trial in the Newton court witnesses testified that the car was travelling at a high rate of speed and the victim was hurled 15 feet into the air. The driver had reported he was operating at a speed of 25 miles. He was found not guilty. Another victim was a 15-year-old boy hit while crossing Freeman st., Auburndale. A second boy, who was walking with the boy killed, had both legs fractured. A witness, who reported to the police that the car involved was traveling at a very rapid rate of speed, changed his testimony at the trial in the Newton court. The driver was found not guilty.

Of the 399 accidents 29 occurred in January; Feb. 56; March, 47; April, 28; May, 29; June, 31; July, 24; Aug., 20; Sept., 28; Oct., 36; Nov., 32; Dec., 39. Between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. 244 accidents occurred; between 6 p. m. and 1 a. m., 123; between 1 a. m. and 8 a. m., 32. The number of accidents on main streets was—Beacon, 19; Worcester pike, 42; Centre, 41; Commonwealth ave., 36; Walnut, 17; Washington, 38; Watertown, 25.

As a result of complaints by Newton police, licenses of 59 motorists were suspended. The police issued 1023 tags for improper or illegal parking, and issued 2626 courtesy cards. The police during the year also issued 2536 three-way tags. For traffic violations 1334 Newton residents were warned, and 200 summoned into court; 6441 non-residents were warned, and 767 summoned into court. Offences against automobile laws included—speeding, 1323; failing to slow down at intersections, 32; leaving scene of accident without revealing identity, 10; operating after license suspended, 13; operating under influence of liquor, 48; operating without a license, 58; operating without proper lights, 14; parking without lights, 4; refusing to stop when signalled by a policeman, 32; parking car within 10 feet of a hydrant, 1; operating without inspection certificate, 60; parking without right wheels to curb, 14; parking within 5 feet of a driveway, 2; parking within 25 feet of street intersection, 6; parking on crosswalk, 3; parking in restricted area, 13; other parking violations, 30; parking overtime, 21; giving false names, 3; passing car on right side, 2; not stopping at through way, 201; not obeying signals on traffic lights, 125; operating wrong way one one-way streets, 5; turning around in restricted places, 6; larceny of automobile, 6; using automobile without authority, 24.

Trade School Will Get $34,000

The Newton Trade School and its affiliates, the Vocational Department, and the light manufacturing course, is to receive equipment valued at $34,000 from the Federal Government as its share of $80,000,000 appropriated by Congress for the purchase of equipment in connection with the National Defense Program. Of this amount $4,000,000 is for purchase of equipment for courses now in operation, and $4,000,000 for new courses. Massachusetts was allotted $160,000 and Newton is to get a good share of this sum. The $34,000 can be used to replace present equipment, or to purchase new equipment. It must be used before July 1 of this year.

The equipment ordered for the Newton Trade School includes lathes, screw machines, presses, welders, grinders, tools and electrical apparatus. Other equipment needed includes that for sheet metal work and automobile repairing. If this can be obtained additional courses in these two activities will be started.

Director Forbes states that of 39 men who took training courses in the Newton school, in connection with the National Defense Program, 32 (Continued on Page 10)

A JUSTIFIABLE EXPENDITURE

There has been considerable comment the past ten days over the failure of the city to clear the skating area at Bullough's pond from the snow of two weeks ago. Our readers and others interested will be glad to know that the Recreation Department will have as large an area as possible available for week-end skating after starting work there this morning. As explained in our news columns conditions at Bullough's Pond differ from those at Crystal Lake and Ware's Cove sufficiently to make the question one of additional expense. We are informed that to have employed the necessary number of workers would have meant an expenditure of one thousand dollars more than the regular payroll. In the present instance city officials apparently believed that the cost of removing the snow immediately after the storm was not justified.

We differ from this viewpoint in the belief that the several hundreds of persons, many of them members of families who support the tax burdens of the community, are deserving of this service from more than one point of view.

Skating is one of the most healthful winter activities for young and old, rich or poor. In the outdoor air people can congregate with little fear of spreading colds and other winter ills of the winter season. Also from the standpoint of health it is far more desirable for children to skate for several hours than to play in the snow for a short while and become soaked through.

From the standpoint of providing recreation facilities many of the persons who utilize the skating area are called upon annually to contribute to the needs of less fortunate persons through various social welfare agencies. They are glad to do so, generously and without restraint to the limit of their financial ability. Yet it is only human that they and their own families should receive the benefits of municipal services which they help to support in taxes.

From the standpoint of municipal finances, while in the present instance the increased payroll for one department might mean an additional one thousand dollars the aggregate expenditure to the city would be but a portion, inasmuch, as those employed on the work would be drawn from the rolls of those receiving public aid in welfare, NYA, WPA or the like, thereby reducing the expenditures by the city for these purposes.

We believe that it would only be fair to add that were the question to come a little later in the month of February we would agree that the remaining length of the skating season being considerably shorter it is quite probable that the expense would not be warranted. In the present instance, however, ten days and more of excellent skating weather has gone by with many being unable to take advantage of it. In the future it might well be taken care of through a department budget item separate from general maintenance, or as in the case of removal of snow from the street, the passage of an out-of-budget item. Mayor Goddard has informed us that in another emergency he would recommend such an expenditure upon the request of the department.

THE COMMUNITY FUND GOES OVER

It is welcome news that the Greater Boston Community Fund has gone over the top by more than $23,000. And it is even more gratifying to know that Newton Community Chest agencies, fourteen in number, are assured of their quota of $197,000 and that the invaluable work they have been carrying on through the years will continue for the year ahead on the basis of their carefully supervised budgets without being forced to reduce their services because of a shortage of necessary funds. The volunteer workers, individual subscribers and all connected with the Community Fund Campaign deserve the thanks and congratulations of all citizens of Greater Boston for their united co-operation in defending the community against the discouragement and misfortune that many persons would face were it not for the social and welfare agencies to which they can turn in time of need.

THE RELOCATION OF ROUTE 128

In its annual report to the State Legislature the Division of Metropolitan Planning again urges the adoption of a six-year highway construction program containing nineteen specific proposals. Many of these recommendations are of interest to Newton motorists inasmuch as they would relieve traffic conditions around Greater Boston which many encounter in their daily travels. First among the projects included in the program is the relocation of Route 128 from the Worcester turnpike just beyond the Newton-Wellesley line, through a part of Wellesley by the Charles River, crossing over into Newton near Washington street, thence through Weston and Waltham and along the previously planned circumferential route to the recently constructed section of the Newburyport turnpike at Lynnfield.

The relocation of Route 128 is most desirable as the present route carries considerable through traffic past five schools, two business sections, several churches and into many situations which make for dangerous and hazardous conditions. The legislative committee on Highways and Motor Vehicles will hold a hearing on the entire program next Tuesday. We urge all Newton citizens to acquaint their representatives on Beacon Hill with their wishes in favor of the construction of that section of Route 128 through Newton as an initial part of any highway program that may be adopted in the coming year.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

Today marks the beginning of a week of observance of the 31st anniversary of the incorporation of the Boy Scouts of America. This organization believes that the greatest need of our times is the strengthening and invigorating of democracy and has chosen that as the theme for the 1941 celebration. During the years of the movement in America more than nine million boys and men have registered in its membership rolls and today more than a million and a half are active participants in its program. Never in the history of the country have we needed the character-building and the citizenship-training influences that this organization provides than we do today. Scouting instills in our boys reverence for God, admiration for country, love for home, and respect for their fellows. Its idealism is practical, its spirit is service. Through the youth of the country our civilization will march forward "to keep our nation strong in valor and confident in freedom so that the government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Powers' Paragraphs

One of Newton's oldest business establishments, the "Vendome Bakery," is located temporarily this week at 348 Centre st., while its regular locus at 358 Centre st. is being altered. Few business enterprises in this city have been established in the same location as long as this well-known bakery. It was started 55 years ago in the postoffice building at Newton by George Crane, and in 1888 he moved the bakery to 354 Centre st., in Sumner's Block. The actual baking was done in a small building located in the yard at the rear of the shop. Mr. Crane was a large genial man with a big red mustache.

In 1892 Mr. Crane sold the bakery to Beverly Brothers, who in 1900 moved it to 358 Centre st., another store in Sumner's Block. This change was made when the Boston & Albany tracks were depressed, necessitating the removal of part of the bakery shop at the rear. In 1904 the business was purchased by Crouse & Stoddard. Mr. Stoddard was a quiet person, but his partner, Mr. Crouse, was a huge individual who had a hectic career during the few years he was in Newton. He sold his share of the business in 1908 to Mr. Stoddard and the latter's brother, and in 1912 they sold the business to William McCormack. The latter ran the bakery until 1926 when he sold it to Max Molin.

In 1929 the bakery was purchased by Louis Dauten, and he ran it until last year, when he sold it to his son, Frederick Dauten. The latter is now renovating and modernizing the bakery. The "Vendome Bakery" for more than a half century has maintained a high reputation and the present proprietor is keeping up its reputation. One relic of the "horse and buggy days" in which this old bakery was established is the hitching rings for horses which still remain on the curbstone in front of Sumner's Block. It is safe to say that few who pass by notice these hitching rings, but they bring back memories to older residents of Newton. For the benefit of the younger generation it might be well to explain that when a horse was "parked" in front of a store, the driver tied the reins onto the hitching ring, thus preventing his steed from strolling (or running) away.

Recently someone asked Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, "Should women be conscripted as well as men?" Mrs. Roosevelt replied, "I personally believe that if we are going to ask young men universally to give a year of service to their country, it would do no harm to require the same thing of young women in their own communities, but I think at the present time it would be very unwise to conscript women in the way in which men have been conscripted."

Most people will agree with Mrs. Roosevelt that it would be very unwise to conscript women in the way that men have been conscripted. In fact, most people will probably agree that women should not be conscripted at all, and should have no enrollment in the regular army or naval service unless as trained nurses. The creation of the rank of "hostess" in the army has not met with much approval and already there have been repercussions. During the last war many young women who performed clerical and typist work for the navy were given petty officers ratings and later received not only bonuses, but some of them have been drawing disability compensation for alleged infirmities which they claimed they received in the service. We heard of one whose infirmity was allegedly caused by drafts in the office building in which she worked—and this building is one of the best constructed in the city. We admit they had as much claim to such compensation

Letters To The Editor

TAXPAYERS APPROVE BONDS

February 4, 1941.
To the Editor of the Newton Graphic: The Newton Taxpayers' Association has received a number of inquiries concerning the recent decision of the Board of Aldermen to issue $50,000 in bonds for extension of water mains. Because more citizens of Newton may be interested in the matter, the Directors of the Newton Taxpayers' Association have instructed me to send this letter.

The question involved was whether the expense of the required work should be met out of the current surplus in the Water Department which substantially exceeds the $50,000 necessary or whether the amount should be bonded over a period of years, thus adding the expense of interest.

The Newton Taxpayers' Association is concerned primarily with the problems of owners of real estate. The cost of operating the Water Department, including the issuance of water bonds, should be borne by the users of water. The Water Department is a public utility, but, unlike the Edison Company and the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, who pay substantial taxes to the city, the Water Department, being owned by the city, is tax exempt. It therefore seems reasonable that in lieu of taxes, the city should expect to have the use of any surplus in the Water Department for application in fixing the tax rate on real estate. Incidentally because of the very high credit standing of the City of Newton and because of prevailing low interest rates, the $50,000 required for this project can be funded over fifteen years for a total interest charge of approximately $3600.

The Directors of the Newton Taxpayers' Association approve the action of the Board of Aldermen in their decision to issue bonds for this expenditure for extension of water mains.

Very truly yours,
CHARLES E. BAILEY,
Executive Secretary.

Last Sunday night some vicious dog broke through the glass windows at the henery of Stephen Moore on Hunnewell Hill and killed all the hens there, 17 in number. They were a fancy breed and worth at least $2 each. Such vicious animals should be exterminated. A dog at Newton Corner is known to have bitten two children, still its owner allows him liberty to roam about.

The treatment of horses this past week on the Cambridge railroad between Mount Auburn and Newton has been a clear case of cruelty to animals, and for which the managers of the road should receive their just deserts. If the drivers are given only two horses at the Mount Auburn stables to pull the cars over the icy hills, they must do as they are bidden. On a single trip from Newton to Mount Auburn passengers were asked twice to get out, so the horses could pull the car up hills. On one hill this was after one of the two small horses had fallen down. On the other it was after a man had stood beside the driver continuously beating the willing animals. On the preceding trip the car could not proceed up the hill between Watertown and Newton, where a tow horse should have been stationed.

Ice at Bullough's Pond is 13 inches thick and Howard Brothers have already commenced to harvest it.

At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday evening the Water Board reported that the $15,000 appropriated to obtain additional water supply is being expended and artesian wells have been sunk near the pumping station. The company doing the work has guaranteed to furnish 250,000 gallons a day from these wells. Unless this will result after a test of 31 days, no charges will be made to the city for the work done. The wells are now being developed and the tests will soon be made.

Newton Graphic, Jan. 30, 1891
The telephone service in Newton following the heavy snowstorm of Sunday was derived from two trunk lines. Ten trunk lines were disabled and many wires were knocked down in the city. No communication could be established with Boston on Monday. A large force of men went out on Monday morning and many of the lines were in operation before night.

On Tuesday night four liquor raids were made at Nonantum. A half gallon of rum was seized at a place on Watertown st., but the raids at the other places were not successful.

A wire connected with the incandescent circuit fell onto the railroad tracks at the Walnut st. crossing in Newtonville on Thursday evening and was cut in halves by a passing train. The result was bad for housekeepers and stores on the south side of the tracks. The lights in the depot and the Newton Club went out. In some places gas jets were used in the emergency.

Charlie Scott of Pigeon Hill, Auburndale, received a fracture of his left leg on Monday when he slipped under the runner of a heavy pump on which he was taking a ride. This should be a lesson to the many boys who like to "hook" rides on passing sleighs and puns.

One of the horses of the Newton Water Department fell dead from an attack of blind staggers on Beacon st., Newton Centre, last Tuesday morning.

A legislative committee gave a hearing on Tuesday on the petition of the Newton Street Railway to increase its capital stock and extend its routes. Mr. Lane, attorney for the company, said it does not propose to enter Cambridge, or to go nearer Boston than Oak square, Brighton. The company wishes to go to Waltham, Watertown, Wellesley and possibly Natick. Counsel for the West End Street railway objected to the present bill, saying it would give the petitioner the right to go anywhere in the Commonwealth. He said the West End company would not object if the Newton Company confines its extensions to the territory mentioned by Mr. Lane, and a new bill will be drafted. The bill provides for $300,000 increased capital.

Ex-President Taft came up from New Haven on Thursday and is domiciled at the Woodland Park Hotel, Auburndale, where elaborate preparations had been made for his reception. The distinguished guest was tendered a banquet at the hotel on his arrival, and in the evening went over to Waltham where he delivered an address at the annual banquet of the Knights of Columbus at "Nutting's on the Charles."

The hearing this week at City Hall on the matter of vehicles standing in Nonantum square, Newton, brought out some interesting facts regarding the operation of the ordinance which was passed to give the police authority to handle traffic in this peculiarly shaped business center of the city. The present complaints come largely from those who want to park their automobiles in the square while they are getting their meals, or otherwise trading in nearby stores. It would not seriously inconvenience traffic if the time limit will be increased from 15 to 20 minutes.

Annual Ladies Night At Central Club Monday

The annual Ladies' Night of Central Club, the men's organization at Central Congregational Church, is to be held on Monday evening, February 10th, in the church auditorium. A catered dinner is to be served promptly at six-thirty after which the members and their ladies will be entertained with character portrayals presented by Miss Nan Lagerstedt, one of New England's leading artists. This brilliant dramatic reader has appeared before audiences in most of the larger cities of the east and in the south and is recognized as an outstanding entertainer in her profession.

Special guests of the club include Hon. Paul M. Goddard, Mayor of Newton, and Mrs. Goddard, Mr. Charles B. Floyd, president of the Board of Aldermen, and Mrs. Floyd, and Judge Donald E. Mayberry of the Newton District Court and Mrs. Mayberry.

Dancing will follow the entertainment with music furnished by Sid Reinherz's famous and popular orchestra. Ladies' Night is the all-important event of the season for Central Club and the program committee reports an unusually large number of reservations this year. Members who have not already done so are urged to act promptly and send their reservations to the church office immediately.

Eliot Bill Would Protect Draftees

Hundreds of government employees in Greater Boston who are subject to the draft would be protected by a bill introduced in the House last week by Congressman Thomas H. Eliot of Cambridge. Under this bill, H. R. 2803, these employees would be eligible for civil service status even though they are away at camp when their positions are covered under Civil Service by Presidential order.

"Within the new few months, thousands of positions will be covered under civil service," Eliot said. "The incumbents of those positions will be eligible for a civil service status if they have served with merit for six months immediately prior to the Presidential order. But what if before that order is issued, the incumbent is drafted?"

"It would not be fair to have him lose his chance for a civil service status just because he was drafted, or volunteered before being called, or was called to duty with the National Guard. If he served meritoriously for six months in his government position, before starting his military service, he should have an equal chance with other employees who were not drafted. That is what my bill provides."

Eliot declared that the Civil Service Commission might try to construe the present Ranspact Act to include men called to military duty, but that officials of the commission agreed that new legislation was highly desirable.

Rotary Club

What was to be a last minute filling in when Charlie Meeker was on the five-year line today turned out to be a most stimulating talk by Professor Wallace C. Strathern of the New England Coke Company on "Standing Still or Going Ahead." The speaker was introduced by Harry Starr, district governor, who is also in the fuel business and had made the eleventh hour contact.

Professor Strathern pointed out that everyone is a salesman, and that life itself is a selling job. Keen competition is the stimulus to selling, and the salesman is no better than the training he uses. Business character and caliber is most important in selling; successful selling is so simple that it is not obvious to the average person, such little things as the value of a friendly smile.

There are three essential factors in selling: 1. Technical knowledge of your product; 2. Hard work; 3. Your sales personality.

It is well to follow the old Latin slogan "Quod pro quo," which broadly translated means "Give something before you get something" and make the other fellow feel important; everyone craves appreciation, it is human nature. Always try to treat the customer the way he wants to be treated and do not measure people by your yard stick but by theirs. Keep plugging and shoot straight.

Kiwanis Club

Mr. William H. Sullivan of Newtonville, who is District Manager for H. P. Hood & Son, was installed as a new member of the Newton Kiwanis Club at their meeting last Tuesday held at the Newtonville Women's Club. Installation ceremonies were conducted by George White, Chairman of the Membership Committee.

President Green announced that the program next Tuesday will be an inter-club meeting, and the speaker will be Miss Frances Eddy, who is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Brewer Eddy. Mrs. Eddy will speak on her experiences in Europe. She has travelled widely, was in social service work in Lisbon, and was in France during the period of German occupation.

The speaker last Tuesday was Howard Pierce Davis, Foreign Director of one of the large Boston newspapers, who took for his subject "Affairs in Europe." He said that in Europe today there were two entirely separate propositions: one was an imperialistic war between two great industrial rivals—England and Germany—stating that this was a contest of many years' standing, and one which might continue for many years in the future. In the last World War Germany fought to gain her objective, which was more costly line, so that she could develop international trade. When Hitler came into power, his first objective was to destroy the Versailles Treaty system, and also the Geneva, or League of Nations' system. Mr. Davis said that the Munich Pact killed the League of Nations. Hitler's next problem was to obtain more living space for his people and that he wanted to destroy Britain because she prevented Germany from attaining her goal.

In Mr. Davis' opinion, unless Great Britain could destroy Germany, or Germany could destroy Great Britain, there was the possibility of a war every twenty years between the two nations. He felt that if some peaceful settlement could be worked out leaving a strong Germany and a strong England that possibly a permanent peace could result.

The second proposition seen by Mr. Davis is the counter revolution against Democracy. This is caused by the masses of people following a leader they believe can improve their economic situation. Basically it has been caused by the failure of Christianity, and the failure of democratic governments to solve the economic problems of the people. According to Mr. Davis, France did not fail because her armies lost battles but France failed because the people had lost faith in democracy.

Looking to the future, Mr. Davis said there were three possibilities. Germany might win; he doesn't think she will. Britain may win, but he doubts if England can successfully invade and conquer the European Nations. The third would be a stalemate, which Mr. Davis believes will be the probable outcome of the present conflict.

Says Boarding House Worse Than Filling Station

The annual petition of Frank Vincenzo of Adams st., Newton for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at 1105 Washington st., West Newton, came before the Board of Aldermen at a hearing on Monday night. Mr. Vincenzo appeared to favor the petition, and in his brief talk told the Aldermen that he paid taxes on this and other properties in the city, that he should be given the permit, as the property is in a business zone, and that if he is not given it, he will have a boarding house on the lot, and this will be worse than a filling station.

Joseph Davis of Cross st., and T. F. McCarthy of 113 Washington st., appeared to protest against the petition. Letters of protest from two Cross st. residents were also read.

Local Boys Learn Defense Trades

The National Youth Administration for Massachusetts, through the office of John L. Donovan, Jr., State Youth Administrator, announces that three local boys are studying defense trades at Quoddy Regional Project, the National Youth Administration center in Maine. Much emphasis is being placed on these trades in Quoddy this period as a consequence of the tie-up with the national defense program. Aviation mechanics, machine shop, radio, drafting and aerial mapping — trades for which there is now great demand — are being given special attention. Units in welding, forging and foundry are being established, while less vital units have been abandoned.

William Timmons, 258 California st., and Robert Goldman, 46 Milo st., have returned to complete their training and work experience on the Aviation Unit on which they started last July. John J. Mahoney, 49 Jackson rd., was the only new candidate chosen from this district and he is taking sheet metal as his work experience.

The Aviation Unit of Quoddy has the approval of the Civil Aeronautics Authority and was the first NYA Resident Center in the country whose Aviation Unit has received such recognition. Quoddy has the distinction of paying its workers to become certified mechanics while any other CAA approved school in the country receives a high fee for such training and experience. When the boys have completed their work-experience course they will be eligible to take the CAA tests for both Aircraft and Engine Mechanics' license. The test will be given at Quoddy under the supervision of a CAA inspector.

Three Drawn For Service As Jurors

Maid Uses Rolling Pin; Fined $50

Pleaditt Miller, 38, a colored domestic who had been employed at the home of Charles Bazirgan at 144 Up-land rd., Waban, was fined $50 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court last Saturday for assaulting the daughter of her employer, Hermine Bazirgan, 18, with a rolling pin. She was also given a suspended jail sentence of 30 days. Bazirgan testified that when he went into his dining room on the morning of January 29, he found that breakfast was not ready, so he ordered the Miller woman to "pick up and go." He said the domestic became enraged, went into the kitchen and grabbed a meat grinder, but his wife took it away from her. The angry domestic then grabbed a rolling pin and brandished it at him. His daughter stepped in to protect him, and was hit on the head with the rolling pin.

Miss Bazirgan testified that the blow from the rolling pin knocked her senseless and she fell to the floor. She was taken to Newton Hospital to be treated for a cut on her forehead. The defendant testified that Bazirgan called her an uncomplimentary name when he found that breakfast was not ready, that he hit her, and that she then got the rolling pin to defend herself.

On Saturday morning, January 18, the Microphone Club of Newton High School took to the air waves over station WEEL and the Columbia Broadcasting System from 10 to 10:30 o'clock. The program consisted of a round table discussion of the club members, after a talk had been delivered by Mr. Horace Kidger of the faculty. The question being considered was "Should there be added to the formal high school course, one year of compulsory service to the government, such service to take the form of military training, conservation work, farming, or some other public employment for boys; and for the girls, instruction in homemaking and home duties in addition to agricultural work?" Participants in the program were: Richard Bolin, Victor Belotti, Robert Murphy, Barbara Hirst and Janice Capon. Music was furnished by the Newton High School Choral Ensemble. The Microphone Club will present another broadcast over a coast-to-coast hookup on February 28. Tentative plans are being drawn up for a third program later in the year.

At the request of former principal, Paul E. Elicker, Alice Birmingham wrote an article about the Social Room for the January issue of the "Student Life" magazine. The article told how the students took over an unused room, painted murals for the walls, bought all furnishings, and financed it. This periodical is sent to secondary schools in the United States and contains activities and events in different schools.

The Social Room is now being kept open in the morning from 8:10 to 8:25. Names were presented of the hosts and hostesses as follows: Monday, Rebecca Connolly and Robert Cutler; Tuesday, Josephine Carney and Donald Holmes; Wednesday, Lorraine Manchester and George Sheridan; Thursday, Eleanor Perry and Henry Davis; Friday, Julia De Puccio and Warren Young.

Bradford Bachrach Becomes Head of New England Area

Bradford K. Bachrach, vice-president of the photographic firm which bears his name, is now in charge of Bachrach in New England.

The third generation in his family to enter the firm which was established in 1868, Mr. Bachrach comes to New England after three years in New York. His particular interest is in photographic techniques. Like his father, who has an international reputation as a judge of feminine pulchritude, he already has a reputation as a photographer of women.

Mr. Bachrach has been associated with photography since his high school days, working in the Bachrach Studios during summer vacations until his graduation from Harvard College in 1933. During the year immediately following, he served as an apprentice under Fayer in London, a leading English photographer.

He will take over his new responsibilities at once. Kenneth M. MacKenzie, whose place he is taking, has gone to Washington to manage the Capitol area, including Baltimore.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, Feb. 9, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Golden Text is: "If we live in the Spirit, let us walk in the Spirit" (Galatians 5:25). Other Bible citations include: "And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace" (Numbers 6:22-26).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When we realize that Life is Spirit, never in nor of matter, this understanding will expand into self-completeness, finding all in God, good, and needing no other consciousness" (p. 264).

Hockey Six Wins To Hold Second

By defeating Stoneham high, 1 to 0, in a Greater Boston Interscholastic hockey league game at the Boston Garden last Saturday, the Newton high school team held on to second place. Tying Melrose the previous week had given the orange and black a one-point margin over Rindge Tech which has been on Newton's heels throughout the season. Last Saturday Rindge succumbed to a 2 to 0 upset at the hands of the sixth-place Medford outfit, putting Newton ahead of the Cambridge engineers by two points. Melrose continued its pace-setting proclivities by swamping poor little Belmont by a 12 to 1 count. Incidentally, Belmont had gotten off to a lead by scoring its lone tally less than five minutes after the game had opened but two Melrose counters put them in front, never to be headed as three more shots found the strings in the second period, and a deluge of seven goals smothered a disheartened Belmont crew. In the fourth game Cambridge Latin edged Arlington 3 to 2.

Newton squeaked by Stoneham in the third period after two scoreless sessions. Play brought the game was excitingly close, with Newton making more raids while the Stoneham scrimmages lasted longer. A pass-out from behind the Stoneham cage by Stan Collinson to Phil Fessenden as he skated in on the opposing goalie was quickly converted for the needed tally at 4:17 in the final period. Bill McKenna scored Newton's bacon by several saves two of which were of the spectacular variety. By his play against Stoneham and throughout the year McKenna is marked as the best goalie in the circuit and should receive well-deserved all-scholastic honors. Newton is tied with Melrose in the matter of having the fewest goals scored against them with 17 each.

Our Lady High Five Swamps Mission

Our Lady High basketball team continued its pace-setting in the Catholic High School basketball circuit by swamping Mission High of Roxbury on Wednesday at the local team's gym, 45 to 17. Captain Marino and Dick Kinchla outscored the visitors together, each accounting for five floor baskets and two free tries for 12 points. L. Codrone and Keegan, with 6 points each also topped the best individual efforts of any opponent, Waldron with five points.

Basketball Five Wins From Medford

In a non-league game on Tuesday at the Newton High gym the local basketball team returned to the winning path by defeating Medford High 44 to 29. Coach Beverly Wilson, with an eye to next year's possibilities, started a team comprised of junior classmen with Arlincher at center, Lowry and Paulino as forwards, and Devlin and Healey as guards. Medford started off fast against the Newton five to build up a 12 to 2 lead whereupon the Newton regulars entered the fray with Norcross at centre, Doherty and Beatty, forwards and Capt. Teschner and Coyer as guards.

The regulars battled to even terms before the period ended and with superior team play in the second and third quarters built up a commanding lead which the juniors held during the latter part of the final period. Norcross led the team scoring with 11 points followed by Teschner with 9, Doherty and Lowry each accounted for six points and Coyer and Devlin tallied four. The Newton seconds also won their game 37 to 32.

In a Suburban league game, at Arlington last week, Friday, Arlington edged Newton by a 33 to 28 score. Although the defeat, the fifth for the orange and black, did not lower Newton's fourth place in the league standing, it enabled Arlington, in fifth place, to draw up to almost even terms with the locals.

George Norcross at centre and Dick Lowry at forward led the Newton team with 8 and 6 points, respectively. Rhythmic of Arlincher at centre was the individual high scorer for the game with ten points, followed by his teammates, Coter at forward with eight and J. Burke at guard with seven.

The league standing:

Rindge Tech	9	0	19	56	17

Newton Tracksters In State Meet

The annual State High School meet will be held Saturday afternoon at the Boston Garden track, the earliest in the season in the history of the Mass. School Association. Due to the fact that the B. A. A. meet in the evening marks the close of the current indoor season at the Garden no later Saturday afternoon is available for the schoolboys.

As in previous meets this year Melrose's Arlincher Rindge will battle for the Class A honors with the Arlincher favorites by virtue of their previous triumphs. Newton may score in a few events with Huntington in the dash, Hale or Walsh in the broad jump, Walsh in the shotput, Captain Mover in the high jump, and Rindge in the 600.

A week from tomorrow Coach Don Enoch's team will close its season at the annual Andover Interscholastic meet although it is possible that a few of the athletes will make the trip to the Bowdoin Interscholastics three weeks later.

Newton Ski Team Winning Meets

Staging its first annual interscholastic ski meet on the popular Commonwealth Country Club slopes on Wednesday the Newton High team captured first honors with 10 points. Arlington and Wellesley tied for second with five points each. Melrose with 4 points and Stoneham with 1 point and Huntington School also participated. The Newton six-man team won the 12-gate slalom race with Thayer, Kline, R. Reidy, Capt. Williams, Townsend and P. Reidy. The orange and black also won the 10-lap relay with Phillips, Wood, Gregg, Marcus, Rand, Cushman, Jones, Clark, Hosley and Priestly.

The Newton High School ski team successfully participated in an interscholastic ski meet featuring the best entries of seventeen greater Boston schools at Mount Hood, Melrose, last Saturday. Captain Norman Williams won the ski jump with a leap of sixty-five feet, defeating a field of fifty-five jumpers. The tricky down-hill course provided plenty of spills for the one hundred and eighty contestants. The Newton combination of Norman Williams, Roger Reidy, John Townsend and Philip Thayer finished in second place, only one second behind the winner. Eighty-five skiers faced the starter in the two and three-quarter mile cross-country race, in which Norman Williams was third, and Dick Boulter, fourth. The team composed of Norman Williams, Roger Reidy, Parker Reidy, Dick Boulter, Durbin Priestly, Ted Rand, Gus Kline, Charles Gregg, Walter Phillips, William Hosley, John Townsend, Cort Mathers, David Clark and Philip Thayer has won three dual meets this season against Wellesley, Arlington and Huntington School. The ski team has not been defeated in a dual meet since 1936.

Warren Jr. High

At the advice of the Newton Safety Council, parents are again urged to caution their children about the dangers of riding bicycles on the icy highways and in snow storms.

At the Junior II and III assembly on Friday, January thirty-first the WPA orchestra offered a delightfully interesting program of music dance forms under the direction of Mr. Murray Hochberg.

The program opened with an example of an 18th century dance form, a Ronda, which was followed by a la French form called Bourree. Tschakowsky's "Sleeping Beauty" was offered as an example of the early waltz form which originated in Austria and is distinguished by a much faster tempo than our present day waltz music. Next came a mazurka from the Ballet Suite from Copella, a dance form which originated in Poland. This form reveals more than one note on the first beat and the accent on the third beat. Again the opera Copella furnished illustration of the Csardas, a form of Hungarian dance rhythm characterized by rapid changes of tempo and ending with a frenzy of excitement. The Polonaise, distinguished by three even beats, is thought to have originated with the Polish nobility. The polka form was well demonstrated by Johann Strauss' Pappacoda Polka. The modern tango was preceded by a dance form, the Maxixe, a Spanish form illustrated by the Parian Maxixe, popular about 1910 for balls and tea-dances. The final number, Old English Gigue, was a source of

Firemen Ask For Pension Changes

The Newton Firemen's Welfare Association has asked Mayor Goddard and the Board of Aldermen to support legislation being asked for by the Association. This legislation seeks to have Lieut. Lawrence Russell and Hoseman Frank Turner, who were retired from the Fire Department during the time that the 7½% salary reduction was in effect, receive the same pension as is given to those members of the department who were retired before and after the reduction went into operation. The letter sent by the Association to the Mayor and Aldermen is as follows:

Gentlemen:
Lieut. Lawrence Russell and Fireman Frank Turner of the Newton Fire Department were retired during the time the 7½% salary reduction was in effect and therefore this salary reduction affected their pension.

Members of the Fire Department before this reduction and since the restoration of the reduction are retired on full pension and in fairness, these men should not be penalized just because they were retired at that particular period.

We have filed in the General Court an amendment to the Chapter 138 of the Special Acts of 1917 under which the retirements of our Fire Department are governed. We pray that you approve of these amendments so that these men may receive the same pension as the other retired men in our Department.

In 1939, Chapter 32, Section 83 was amended by Chapter 264 which enabled the members of the Police Department who were retired in the period of the salary reduction, to receive the regular pension.

Protest Against Added Oil Storage At Lower Falls

Thirty residents of the newly developed section of Lower Falls in the vicinity of Concord and St. Mary sts., came to City Hall on Monday night to protest against the petition of the John Dolan Coal Company for a permit to increase the storage of fuel oil at its yard off Concord st. from 40,000 gallons to 70,000 gallons, and to install one additional pump. The added 30,000 gallons would be stored in two underground tanks.

Howard Lewis of 73 St. Mary st., representing the Lower Falls Improvement Association, opposed the petition. He said there are 65 homes within a radius of 500 yards of the fuel yard, and most of these have been built within the past four years. He argued that additional fuel storage at the yard would adversely affect property values and cause an increased traffic hazard on Concord st. He said the Dolan Company now has enough storage facilities for its needs, and the increased storage might be used as a petroleum relay station. He also said that the increased storage of oil would retard further development of the district.

Clyde Cassidy of 78 St. Mary st. said the increased storage of oil would be detrimental to the neighborhood. Paul H. Drake of 25 Atherton place, a realtor, said the granting of the permit for the added tanks would increase sales resistance for home sites in the neighborhood. He said there are about 50 house lot sites still available in the district. City Clerk Grant read a letter of protest from Mrs. Florence Jones of Grayson lane. It opposed the petition and complained that oil had been delivered to the Dolan yard during the middle of the night. President Floyd asked all present who opposed the petition to arise, and thirty persons stood up.

George deCoen of Wellesley, manager of the Dolan Coal Company, told of the many improvements made at the yard since he became manager 3½ years ago. He said the company distributes about 30,000 gallons of fuel oil each day, supplies the City of Newton, and the added storage would end any trucking of oil at night. He said his company had given orders to the oil company which supplies it, not to deliver oil after 7 p. m., but a storm one night caused a truck to come to the yard at 3 a. m. Mr. deCoen said the tanks would not be unsightly, as they will be underground, and the increased storage facilities would be for the best interests of all concerned.

this country will find itself if Britain is overwhelmed by Germany this year. There are many in the U. S. A. who honestly believe that the Nazi air might will overcome England during the coming year, and they are apprehensive as to what resistance the U. S. A. in its present condition of unpreparedness can then give Germany.

Mr. Lippmann is strongly in favor of the prompt enactment of the Lend-Lease Bill, and in giving to President Roosevelt all the powers he desires. He believes that the bill, when passed, will give the President great influence in British military matters, and that if Britain falls, arrangements which the President can make under the powers vested in him by Bill 1776 will give him a powerful hold on the British navy, British air forces, British bases, and British merchant marine. Lippmann argues that the bill would prevent a repetition of a British defeat affecting the U. S. A., as the French defeat affected Britain.

Mr. Lippmann is a master of logic. But, he is undoubtedly doing some wishful thinking. Assuming that Germany may overcome Britain, that Churchill survives and that the British government keeps its word, continues the fight from its foreign possessions, and places its navy at the disposal of the U. S. A., Bill 1776 might bring the results planned. But, if Churchill were overthrown and the then British leaders yielded to Nazi might, as did the French leaders, then what? Is the President, or are his advisers making any plans in case this occurs? Or is it "defeatism" to think of such a predicament?

Recent Events

The Newton Federation of Women's Clubs

The Newton Federation of Women's Clubs was the guest of the Waban Woman's Club on Monday afternoon, February 3, at the Neighborhood Club House.

The president of the federation, Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, responded graciously to the speech of welcome made the federation in behalf of her club, by its president, Mrs. Harcourt W. Davis, and conducted a short business meeting, after which she turned the program over to her third vice-president, Mrs. Ernest Hale, who is a past president of the hostess club. She in turn introduced the speaker, Professor Frederick W. Packard, director of the department of Public Speaking at Harvard, whose topic was "America Speaks—and How?"

The speaker particularly emphasized the importance of a pleasing voice and to illustrate his point, he played a record on which Ramsay MacDonald read a poem and the audience enjoyed not only the words but the rich, mellow voice of the reader. Another pleasing record was one made by an elderly woman, not a professional speaker at all, but one whose voice was good to hear.

In contrast to these he used some made by members of a well known woman's college, and one recognized the high pitched voices so often heard among the younger group.

The Social Committee of the club had arranged for dessert and coffee for the guests before the meeting started, and at this time there was an opportunity for sociability.

Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club

The Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club observed its 22nd anniversary Monday, February 3, with a turkey supper. The tables were prettily decorated with sweet peas and dainty favors made by the Art Committee. Supper under the direction of Mrs. Robert B. McLaughlin was served by members of the local troop of Girl Scouts. Enjoyable music during the supper hour was rendered by a trio composed of Miss Mary Ruggles and Miss Eida Pucciarrilli, violinists, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Kovitz, pianist, all students of the Newton Music School.

Mr. Hans Graf gave an interesting demonstration with the musical saw, followed by several tap dancing numbers by Leonard and Genevieve Tocci with Miss Ann DeMichele at the piano.

The president of the Club, Mrs. Harold T. Sprague, was in charge of the business meeting. A history of the Club's 22 years—"Bits from Memory Lane"—written by Mrs. Sprague, was read by the secretary, Mrs. Donald F. Flinchbaugh.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Miss Virginia Drew of the Boston Globe gave an interesting talk on Handwriting and interpreted several distinctive and contrasting types of writing submitted by club members.

Zonta Club

The Newton Zonta Club met last Monday evening with Mrs. Dora Fyfe, 8 White Oak rd., Waban. The guest speaker, Mrs. Herbert Wasgatt, gave a short talk on the scientific analysis of handwriting, and its use under various circumstances. Then using various specimens of hand writing she explained how different characteristics were shown in it. She also described what to look for in handwriting to discover certain traits of the writer. This occasioned much amusement as the members and guests discovered some of these in their own specimens.

The Auburndale Review Club

Mrs. Arthur G. Robinson at the Missionary Home, 144 Hancock st., was hostess for the Review Club when they met on Tuesday morning, February 4, Mrs. James G. Patterson, presiding.

Reports were given of federation activities by Mrs. Walter Amesbury, and the legislative chairman, Mrs. William Tenney, urged a good attendance at the coming School of Politics at Newton Centre.

The secretary, Mrs. Paul H. Tardivel, read a recommendation from the Executive Board that a Bridge Party be held, and after favorable discussion, it was voted, all arrangements being left to the board. The president, Mrs. Patterson, offered her home at 338 Central st. for the occasion.

The program of the morning was a change from the regular course of study and two one-act plays were read.

The first "The Land of Heart's Desire" was a story of peasant life in Ireland with the strong vein of superstition in elves and fairies dominating it.

Mrs. Basil Babcock took the part of Marie, a young bride; Mrs. Lawrence Allen, her young husband, Shawn; Mrs. Paul Tardivel and Mrs. Grace H. Fiske were his parents, Maureen and Bridget; the priest was Miss Elizabeth Eaton, and the fairy whose influence over the bride broke up the home, was Mrs. Walter Amesbury.

The second play was a Chinese tragedy "The Romance of the Willow Pattern" with Mrs. John I. Heilbeck in the resplendent robes fitting the part of the mandarin. Mrs. Franklin Leland in a gaily colored kimono, made a charming daughter, Koong-See, while Mrs. Walter Davis also in Chinese costume, made a picturesque lover, Chang. Seven episodes were briefly pictured, the end of each being indicated by the waving of an incense burner by Mrs. Robinson.

The dramatic killing of his daughter and her lover by the mandarin, and their change to that of a pair of white doves, recalled the familiar (Continued on Page 9)

Newtonville Woman's Club

Through the courtesy of the Newtonville Woman's Club, the Newtonville Woman's Club had as its guest speaker on Tuesday, February 4th, Mr. Howard Pierce Davis, well-known news commentator and lecturer. Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, a former Club President and Chairman of the Women's Advisory Committee of the Bank, graciously presented the speaker.

Mr. Davis, a one-time foreign editor of the Boston Transcript, has a background rich in study and experience, and having recently returned from Europe, was able to present with authority a clear picture of the complex situation both at home and abroad. He traced the history of the decline of democracy in other countries and gave much food for thought when he asked "Is democracy in danger of survival in our country?"

He gave much time to a discussion of the Lend-Lease Bill now before Congress. He strongly urged that each person make a study of the bill and think for herself and not be swayed by various types of propaganda and said that the following questions were the real test of the bill:

1. Will the bill accomplish anything that isn't being done now?
2. Will it leave us with power to refrain from becoming involved in active participation in war?
3. Will it lead us to a victory from which we cannot recover?
4. Can the powers be recalled?
5. When will the bill be passed?

Following a spirited question period, tea was served in the Social Hall under the direction of the Hospitality Committee, Mrs. Carl B. Horton, Chairman, Mrs. George L. Curtis and Mrs. Leroy W. Leland.

mitted. "These inequities have little relation to the cause of our economic ills, however," he went on. "The question of how to find jobs is the one which will answer the problem of the form of government we shall have in the future." In further defense of the capitalistic system he conceded that it has its faults but asserted that these faults "do not lie in the system. They are the faults of people."

Music before the meeting was provided by the Junior and Senior orchestras of the All-Newton Music School.

Professor Kirtley Mather, presiding over the meeting, announced that Elmer Davis, well known radio commentator, will address the Forum on February sixteenth, speaking on the topic "Prospects of a Lasting Peace."

to the gripe epidemic," he said, "many difficulties had to be overcome and I am proud to say that our Campaign organization this year was more loyal, more hard-working and more enthusiastic than ever before. I am also proud to note that the people of Newton have endorsed our uniting with the Greater Boston Fund Campaign by doing their full share this year in oversubscribing our quota. In the name of the thousands served by the Newton and the Greater Boston agencies, I extend the sincere thanks of the Newton Chest."

A large delegation of Newton Campaign workers attended the final meeting of the Campaign at which enthusiasm grew to fever pitch as town after town and district after district reported "over the top."

Robert H. Montgomery, chairman of the Metropolitan division, in which Newton was included in the Greater Boston Campaign organization, expressed his appreciation to Newton campaign workers and the people of Newton for their enthusiastic co-operation and great generosity in the 1941 Campaign.

Clearing Ice

Thus it is necessary to remove the snow from the ice altogether and at Bulloughs Pond where the banks are rather steep all of the snow must be shoveled back by hand. Accordingly with no extra funds available for snow removal through the employment of enough additional workers for clearing Bullough's Pond, work upon that surface had to be postponed.

With Ware's Cove and a fairly sizable portion of Crystal Lake available for skaters, the Recreation Department was expected to again turn its attention to Bullough's Pond this morning in order to provide as much of an area as possible for week-end skating.

Made Treasurer of Newton Cemetery

The annual meeting of the Newton Cemetery Corporation was held on Wednesday, Feb. 5. William H. Rice of Newton Centre was elected president of the corporation; William F. Chase of West Newton, vice-president; Charles B. Floyd of Auburndale, Maynard Hutchinson of West Newton, Seward Jones of Newton Highlands, Philip S. Jamieson of Newton and Clifford Walker of Waban, trustees.

Eliot F. Rogers of Page rd., Newtonville, was elected treasurer, and superintendent of the cemetery to succeed H. Wilson Ross who has held these offices for 40 years. Mr. Rogers has been assistant to Mr. Ross for nearly 9 years. He was born in West Newton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Rogers. His father was formerly City Engineer of Newton. Mr. Rogers attended Mass. State College and Harvard School of Landscape Architecture.

WILSON—PICKHARDT

Miss Elise Pickhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Emil Pickhardt of 281 Otis st., West Newton, was married to Sloan Wilson, son of Mrs. Albert Frederick Wilson of New York, and the late Mr. Wilson, on Tuesday evening, February 4, at a candlelight ceremony performed at the home of her parents by Rev. Boynton Merrill of the Second Church, West Newton. The home was decorated with cytotium ferns and white snapdragons. John Sinclair Noyes, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding music.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin and a family veil of tulle and old lace. Her bouquet was of bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. George L. Ware, Jr. who wore dusty blue silk crepe and carried rose-colored snapdragons. Geoffrey Wilson of New York was the best man.

tomers not to use this driveway. Alderman Hughes asked if the driveway had been blocked, but did not receive an affirmative answer. The station is located in a residence zone under a non-conforming use.

No opposition appeared against the petition for a permit for an additional tank of 1500 gallons capacity at the station at 90 Winchester st., Newton Highlands. The fifth petition asks for a permit to install an additional tank of 2000 gallons capacity at 764-774 Beacon st., Newton Centre, and to erect an additional two-car lubricatorium there. Mr. Keane explained that this addition to the present lubricatorium is to provide facilities for washing automobiles, and for other purposes. A letter of protest against this petition was received from Mrs. Ida Bornstein, owner of the business block 49-63 Union st.

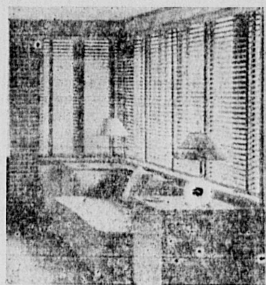

The application of Joseph L. Monahan of Crescent st., West Newton for two 1st class and one 2nd class taxi licenses at 404½ Centre st., was granted. He is taking over the business of Edward Collins. On recommendation of the Licenses Committee the petition of John Donnelly & Sons for a billboard permit on the roof of the building at 293-309 Watertown st., Nonantum, was refused. Alderman Fahey said the billboard would distract the attention of motorists and create a traffic hazard. It would also be near the Church of St. Jean Evangeliste.

The Aldermen voted to accept bequests of $2000 and $1000 under the will of Mrs. Ada Pitman Harding; the $2000 to purchase books for the children's library as a memorial to her son, Willard Harding; the $1000 as a memorial to her grandchildren, Carl and Elena Ellison, to provide improvements for some playground in Nonantum. An offer from Joseph Godino of $400 for a lot of land owned by the city on Allen ave., Waban, was rejected because it was inadequate. So was an offer from Anna Mills of $200 for 5860 square feet of land at 1238 Beacon st. The Board appropriated $50,000 for snow and ice removal. The recent storm took about $40,000 of the $50,000 appropriated at the preceding meeting.

The Board voted "no action necessary" on a petition from West Newton hill residents asking that the site of the former Barnard School on Shaw st. be maintained as a play area for children. Alderman Jamieson explained that as long as this area is unoccupied, children will be permitted to play on it. It was voted to authorize a "Stop" sign at the intersection of Newtonville ave. and Lewis st. The Aldermen voted unanimously to confirm the appointment of Dr. Harold D. Chope as a member of the Board of Health.

Applications for variance on zoning of house lots were received from William McGrath for land on Converse ave., Newton; from the City Holding Company on lots at College rd. and Hammond st., Chestnut Hill, and from the Newton Realty Company on a lot at Roosevelt and Theodore rds., Newton Centre.

Now You Won't Have to Build a New Garage

Here are Four New Additions to the BUICK SPECIAL Line that Compact Motorcar Bigness into Handy Size

Buick SPECIAL 4-door Sedan, model 47, $1021. White sidewall tires extra.*

THINK back over what's been happening in automobiles and see if this isn't right:

In search for impressive size, cars have been getting longer and longer.

Bumper has retreated from bumper until there's hardly room left in the family garage for the lawn mower and the good wife's gardening basket.

Does that mean you'll have to build a new garage to enjoy a big car's glories? Not now!

For there are four new Buicks on the market—additions to our 1941 SPECIAL series—that let you indulge your big-car tastes in spite of 1929-car-size garages.

They are big cars in ability—with a 115-horsepower Buick FIREBALL engine that can be stepped up to 125 "horse" by the addition of Compound Carburetion at slight extra cost.

They are big cars in their room—with plenty of leg-, elbow- and head-room in their spacious interiors.

They are cars big in beauty, with all their trim Buick style and finish—they are big in value born of typical Buick quality and workmanship.

But—they fit your garage! They handle like baby carriages. They park on small change. They stretch every gallon of gasoline over still greater mileage.

And all that because we have packed this Buick goodness and ability onto a 118-inch wheelbase chassis and trimmed down its bumper-to-bumper length.

So if you've been itching for a big car—but wondering where you'd find room for it—better hop right over to see these beauties now.

Look at the new, lower prices their compactness makes possible, and see if you don't call these beauties the season's biggest news!

Cullen Gets Favorable Decision From Supreme Court In Police Case

Full Bench Says His Office Was Illegally Abolished

The full bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court on Tuesday announced a decision in favor of Bart Cullen who was discharged as a member of the Newton police department on July 1, 1939, because the position of sergeant-mechanic, which he had held, had been abolished by vote of the Newton Board of Aldermen. According to the court decision Cullen will have to be reinstated, or at least given a hearing on the abolishing of the position. The decision stated that although the Aldermen acted in good faith when they voted to abolish the position in May, 1939, their action was invalid because no hearing had been held, as required by civil service rules.

Cullen had been a member of the police department for about 25 years, serving as driver of the patrol wagon, and patrolman-mechanic from 1929 until 1939. Some of the Aldermen contended that the position was unnecessary, and that a civilian mechanic who had been assisting Cullen could do the work. Cullen contended that his civil service rating entitled him to be continued in the department as sergeant, even though the job of sergeant-mechanic was abolished. He petitioned for writs of mandamus against Mayor Childs and Chief of Police Hughes to bring about his reinstatement. Alexander Lincoln was appointed master to hear evidence in the case, and after lengthy hearings, to which most members of the Board of Aldermen were summoned as witnesses, Lincoln reported favorably on the action of the Aldermen in abolishing the position. The Superior Court accepted the Lincoln report and Cullen's attorney appealed to the Supreme Court. Judge Donahue of the Supreme Court dismissed Cullen's appeal, and now the full bench of that court decides in favor of Cullen.

Elmer Davis, Forum Speaker On Sunday

Elmer Davis, distinguished news commentator and author whose radio audience numbers in the millions, will analyze latest developments in the troubled war situation in his lecture at Newton High School Auditorium on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. His talk will be under the auspices of the Newton Community Forum.

In a relatively brief time, he took to the microphones at the beginning of the present war, Mr. Davis has won nation-wide repute as a news analyst. His scholarly background and his broad, liberal viewpoint, enhanced by a skeptical mind, enable him to plow through propaganda and rumor in an effort to find the real truth in a report.

Perhaps his most outstanding virtue is his ability to remain calm and unemotional in the face of any crisis. While teletypes clicked with war news, rumors and propaganda, he set about with scholarly precision to analyze the facts and then said what he believed to be true without any verbal gymnastics.

During his colorful career, Mr. Davis taught school in his home state, Indiana; won a Rhodes scholarship to Queens College, Oxford; became a reporter, and ten years later an editorial writer for the New York Times, and wrote scores of fiction and factual essays for national magazines.

His relentless probing for the truth makes him a speaker worthy of wide attention.

The All-City Junior High School Glee Club of two hundred voices will give a short concert preceding Mr. Davis' lecture.

Dog Barks Alarm Then Suffocates

John E. Crowley of 534 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre, was awakened at 5:35 Wednesday morning by the barking of his dog, and found that a fire was in progress in the house. He phoned fire alarm headquarters at 5:38 and an alarm from Box 714 was pulled a few minutes later. The fire, supposed to have been caused by an overheated furnace, spread up to the first floor and caused damage estimated at $3000. The dog which aroused Crowley was suffocated by smoke in the kitchen of the house.

Restrict Use of Playgrounds For Fiestas, Field Day

A conference was held at City Hall on Tuesday night between members of the Recreation Commission and representatives of organizations which have been using Newton playgrounds for fiestas and field days. The latter included members of Italian societies at Nonantum and Thompsonville, Italian Veterans of the World War, and Newton Post, American Legion. The following restrictions were decided on. The use of any playground for a fiesta will be limited to 3 nights, fireworks must be over at 11 p. m., and all activities at midnight. No loud bombs will be permitted in the fireworks.

No concessions shall be rented to anyone not a resident of Newton except for a merry-go-round, or a Ferris Wheel. Sound trucks and amplifiers must be modified so that noise from them will not disturb persons residing near the playground where a fiesta or field day is being held.

Thayer is chairman of the School assisted by Mrs. David N. Ripley in charge of ushers and Mrs. Howard E. Wilson, Chairman of Tickets.

The morning session, starting at 10:45, will be devoted to a round-table conference on "Education for Defence." The speakers will be Mrs. A. Graham Baldwin, Mrs. Arthur E. Whittemore, Mrs. Alan R. Morse and Mrs. Philip Woodward. During the luncheon Mrs. Larue Brown, president of the State League, will conduct a question box period. At 2:15 Mrs. Rantoul will present a report of the Massachusetts Parole Commission, after which Mr. Eggleston will speak on "Labor and Defence."

Alleged Burglar Had Bone For Dogs

Inspectors Crowley, Bannon and Lyons of the Newton police arrested Bert Gibson, 42, of Seneca st., Boston on Wednesday afternoon after a citizen had phoned police headquarters that a man was acting suspiciously near the home of Dr. Joseph Cohen of Rosalie rd., Oak Hill, where a burglary was committed recently. The police apprehended Gibson on Parker st. When captured, Gibson (who is colored) gave the name of John White, but Lieut. Crowley recognized him as the man who was captured in a garage owned by James Lannon at 22 Burnham rd., West Newton on March 15, 1939, after he had hidden himself in the rumble seat compartment of a coupe, and nearly suffocated. For the burglary at the Lannon home, Gibson was sentenced to serve 6 months in prison.

When Gibson was captured on Wednesday several skeleton keys, a long-bladed knife and a rubber bone were found in his possession. The bone is thought to have been used by Gibson to pacify watch dogs in homes he entered. Gibson was charged with having committed a burglary at the home of James Cimaglia, 934 Commonwealth ave., last September after he was identified by a neighbor as the man seen near the house on that date. He was arraigned in the Newton court yesterday and held in $5000 bail for a hearing on February 27.

Newton Men Speak At Hearings On State Highways

Newton was represented at hearings in the State House on Tuesday relative to extensions of State highways by Aldermen George Rawson and Rupert Thompson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. The hearings were held before the Committee on Highways & Motor Vehicles and concerned the extension of the Charles River Parkway road from Watertown through Nonantum to Waltham, and the continuation of Route 128 from its present terminus at Route 9 (the Worcester pike) in Wellesley, through Wellesley, Newton and Weston.

Mr. Rawson stated that while the Newton Board of Aldermen favors the continuation of the river parkway, it does not want this highway, which would be heavily travelled, to run over that part of California st. in the thickly populated Nonantum section. Otis D. Fellows of Newton Centre, engineer of the State Planning Board, agreed with Mr. Rawson that the proposed extension should not follow California st., and stated that at a hearing on this matter held two years ago, it was then agreed that the parkway should be constructed contiguous to the Charles River as originally planned.

Mr. Thompson favored the construction the coming year of the long planned extension of Route 128 which would end the congestion which has been caused for years by having this route pass through the business sections of Newton Highlands, and over crowded Walnut st. at Newtonville, and thence through a thickly populated section of Waltham. He said the Newton Planning Board and the Newton Chamber of Commerce favor. Other sections of Route 128 have been completed in recent years, but the failure to construct the section from the Worcester turnpike north only causes a continuance of the bad diversion of traffic through the Newtons and Waltham.

Refused License, Appeal to A.B.C.

Arrested For Drunken Driving

A Wellesley girl riding with Robinson was slightly injured. Robinson was charged in the Newton court yesterday with drunkenness, driving while under the influence of liquor, and driving without a license.

Plan Smith Memorial On Former Ice House Site at Crystal Lake

Attractive Park Would Honor Memory of Author of National Hymn 'America'

At the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on next Monday night, February 17, there will be a public hearing on the petition for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at 1365 Centre st., Newton Centre, the corner of Norwood ave. Four similar petitions were rejected by Boards of Aldermen in recent years, after the Aldermen had agreed with objectors that the locus is unsuited for a gasoline station because of its traffic hazards. It is located on a grade with a blind approach to motor vehicles approaching from the South, and many objected because they asserted a filling station at this site would be a traffic hazard to many pedestrians who use the sidewalk in front of the locus. Among these objectors is Bishop Richard Cushing, pastor of nearby Sacred Heart Church, who is concerned over the safety of the children who attend the school of that parish.

About a year ago some of the Aldermen who had previously been outspoken in their opposition to a filling station at this locus, changed their attitude after a conference had been held at which a tentative promise was made by the Metropolitan Ice Company, owners of the land in question, and the land where the old ice houses formerly stood adjoining Crystal Lake, that the property owners would agree to have the ice company land changed to a residence zone provided that a permit for the filling station would be granted.

During the past year Alderman Donald McKay conceived a plan which would have the land owned by the ice company adjoining Crystal Lake and abutting Centre st. and Norwood ave. converted into a park as a memorial to Samuel Francis Smith, author of the national hymn "America." Dr. Smith was a resident of Newton Centre for 50 years and pastor of the First Baptist Church there for 12 years. He baptized his parishioners in Crystal Lake, then called "Baptist Pond." Alderman McKay's plan has the endorsement of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, Newton Centre Improvement Association, Newton Veterans' Council, and by many civic, social and patriotic organizations. It is proposed that the city buy the land at a reasonable price and it is probable that private contributions may be received to assist in the purchase.

The proposed park would be about 100,000 square feet in area, with a shore frontage of 600 feet. Its general appearance is shown in the accompanying illustration and the layout of the park is shown in the diagram printed in this issue. It is planned to gradually develop the

Newton Industry Goes to Watertown

A rapidly growing industry which has been located in Newton for the past 4 years will move about May 1 to Water st., Watertown, where a new building is to be erected. The Ark-Les Switch Corporation has been occupying the two upper floors of the factory building at 459 Watertown st., Newtonville, formerly occupied by the Silver Lake Cordage Company. It manufactures switches for automobiles and employs from 200 to 300 persons, about 75 per cent of whom are girls.

The factory building on Watertown st. is occupied in part by the Ark-Les company, and the remainder of the building has been occupied for the past two years by the Ucinite Company, an affiliate of the United-Carr Fastener Company of Cambridge, of which ex-Mayor Sinclair Weeks is president. The Ucinite Company is going to occupy the entire building. The Ark-Les Switch Corp. will erect a two-story brick building on Water st. with 25,000 square feet of floor space. Located on the former site of the Newton & Watertown Gas Light Company, its proximity to the Watertown terminal of the Boston Elevated Railway.

THE PROPOSED SMITH MEMORIAL

The renewal of attempts to obtain a gas station permit near the site of the old ice house at Newton Centre again calls attention to the proposal that the land be purchased and developed as a memorial park in honor of the late Samuel Francis Smith, author of "America" and a Newton resident for over fifty years. We believe that such a memorial is the most desirable solution to a problem that has been foremost in the minds of many Newton Centre residents for several years, and we trust that complete and careful consideration will be given to practical plans for carrying it out to a successful conclusion.

WARNING TO PARENTS AND SKATERS

The Recreation Department has called attention to a situation that in time might become serious and hazardous to skaters who are not completely aware of the facts. Parents are also urged to realize their responsibilities and the desirability for co-operation in an effort to avoid tragedy and misfortune. We refer to skating conditions at Crystal Lake where during the mid-day thaw the ice frequently becomes unfit for skating. Playground officials order all skaters from the ice only to find that many children return to that part of the lake that normally is not under supervision. The Recreation Department does have control of the entire lake but unless weather conditions are such that the entire lake surface is available, marks off only that portion of the area which can be properly handled. The growing practice of persons of all ages in continuing to skate on other parts of the lake should be immediately discouraged. It is obvious that though the ice might be safe today or tomorrow, that milder weather may make it dangerous another day. To the end that there may be no unfortunate tragedy, all are asked to co-operate with the Recreation Department and follow instructions which can be accepted as having been given for due and sufficient cause.

Kiwanis Club

President Raymond Green, who presided at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club held Tuesday at the Newtonville Woman's Club, has appointed Dr. Herman Norton as a representative from the club to serve on the Newton Committee for War Disaster and Preparedness.

President Brewster of the Waltham Club was a guest of the local club last Tuesday.

A special musical program consisting of instrumental numbers by two girls from the Newton High School was arranged by Hayden Morgan, Chairman of the Music Committee.

It was announced that the speaker for the meeting next week would be Mr. Carl Birmingham, a member of the faculty of the Newton High School. Mr. Birmingham's subject will be "Job Placement." He has charge of this work for the schools of Newton at the present time.

The speaker was Miss Frances Eddy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Brewster Eddy. Miss Eddy is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke, and a resident of Newton. She was working as a nurse in France when the Germans invaded that territory, and she described very graphically many of her thrilling experiences.

She told of crowded refugee trains, people with one suitcase leaving their homes for they knew not where. She described how these trains were often bombed by airplanes, how it was common sight after one of these bombings to see little children standing beside the bodies of their dead parents, children who might never again know a happy home life.

Miss Eddy described how her unit remained in Paris during its evacuation. She described the fight for food and gasoline taking place in the streets of Paris, and the desperate effort of people to get out before the Germans came. Miss Eddy and her unit remained in Paris until after the first Germans had arrived. She told how her unit fed for a time over 1000 refugees. When the Germans started entering her section of France they went by the street where Miss Eddy was staying and for eight days, twenty-four hours a day, a steady line of Germans and tanks, and machine gun equipment traveled over that road.

In conclusion, Miss Eddy said that France failed because she was totally unprepared, and because the people did not trust the government. She described how the Germans had drilled for years before the war had started, and the German army could march for forty miles in a single day and still fight at the end of the day. She said that it was a shame that the United States was so unprepared at the present time, still divided in opinion and certainly not ready to fight. She said that if England is defeated, the United States and Canada alone would face a defiant and hostile world, and she did not believe we could possibly survive such a situation. She believed that we should wake up and send help to England immediately. Three months from now might be too late. Miss Eddy said that whoever won the war, the world as we have known it in the past would never exist.

Powers' Paragraphs

We have been requested to make some comment on the condition of Newton sidewalks following the heavy snow fall of a few weeks ago. Most of the sidewalks were plowed but they were not shoveled, and because of the danger of falling on them, pedestrians had to walk on the streets and face the peril of automobile traffic. The persons who asked us to mention the condition of the sidewalks also asked that we comment on the action of the Board of Aldermen several years ago in revoking the ordinance which compelled abutters to shovel snow from improved sidewalks. During the past few years we have several times criticized this act of the Aldermen. Inasmuch as I rarely walk (which is nothing to brag about), and the large number of Newton citizens who regularly walk, meekly accepted the abolition of the ordinance affecting the compulsory shovelling of snow from sidewalks, it would seem unreasonable on my part to keep yapping about this subject.

I can't, however, refrain from mentioning one thing in connection with it, because it amuses me. The alderman who was largely responsible for the revoking of the ordinance, was instrumental, shortly before he concluded his services as an Alderman in having the city print and distribute to residents of Newton—a plea that they show their civic pride and consideration for pedestrians by voluntarily removing the snow from sidewalks abutting their properties. Early this winter an old resident of Newton called my attention to the fact that in his immediate neighborhood the only sidewalk not cleared of snow was a street used by a large number of pedestrians, was that abutting the property of an Alderman.

Recently a State official who was formerly a well known radio commentator, specializing in politics, appeared at a Legislative hearing and advocated the use of State police to enforce the purpose of apprehending pickpockets whom he said frequent these gambling places in considerable numbers. According to him the "dips" have a union and are well organized. We don't blame the race track owners for wanting to protect their patrons from the criminal activities of pickpockets. The shifty-fingered gentry display consummate gall in stealing from those, optimistic men and women who are lured by pari-mutuel, money that otherwise would be to the profits of the race track owners.

Frequently in recent years plans have been devised to relieve traffic congestion in Boston. It has been contended, and rightly, that Boston has been losing much business because of the difficulty in operating automobiles on the streets of the business districts in Boston, and lack of parking space there. It has also been contended that the ignoring of parking restrictions in Boston by drivers of motor vehicles has contributed largely to traffic congestion there, and the scarcity of parking in downtown Boston.

Mayor Tobin is now advocating a plan for highway improvements in Boston at a cost of over $19,000,000. A drive against illegal and improper parking has also been in progress through the proposed highways to facilitate traffic in Boston were built conditions in the retail and other business districts there would not be much relieved unless parking laws and regulations were enforced. And the minority which is protesting against illegal parking includes a number of persons holding political offices. These individuals plead with the public to elect them to office, blurt about their devotion to law and order, abuse special privileges, and then after getting elected to office, demand such privileges.

A few weeks ago after the writer criticized Wendell Wilkie in this column, I was criticized by Mr. Wilkie's ardent admirers. I realize that what I wrote now will not be pleasing to those who believe that Wendell is a God-send (or self-constituted) leader to save this country and preserve the Republican party. I dislike to write anything that is disagreeable to my readers, but, I can't refrain from mentioning one thing.

In Washington a couple of days ago Mr. Wilkie was being questioned by Senator Clark relative to the inconsistency of his present attitude on the "Lease-Lend Bill" as contrasted with the speeches he made while a candidate for President. Mr. Wilkie, according to press reports, replied: "They were campaign speeches." The writer for one, does not believe that any candidate for political office, certainly not for the exalted office of President, should make a campaign speech in which he was not quite sincere in what he professed to believe in, or disbelieve in.

Several months ago this column contained a paragraph which stated that President James Conant of Harvard evidently favored this country becoming engaged in the war in Europe. At the hearing before the Senate committee in Washington on Tuesday, according to press dispatches, President Conant asserted that he favors the sending of the young men of the U. S. A. to invade Europe if it is necessary to do so to defeat the axis powers, and he also said that some sort of military victory on the continent of Europe would be necessary to achieve the defeat of the axis powers.

Our previous criticism of the belligerent Harvard head, we commented that he had not served in the hell of war at the front during the World War, he had not volunteered to go overseas as a combatant in this war, and that it is very easy to be brave when it is others that would have to fight and get killed.

During the World War Mr. Conant served in the Sanitary Corps of the army as a Lieutenant, and later as a major in the Chemical Warfare Division. On the evening after he made his fighting speech at Washington, President Conant addressed an audience at Yale University as a speaker at a symposium on National Defence. He called attention to the probability of a shortage in highly trained men in chemistry, physics and engineering, and to an effort which was made last summer to have men who work in these professions be given deferment in the draft. He said he would not debate the wisdom of such deferment, but he commented that this country is in grave danger of underestimating the importance of the trained man in actual problems of national defence.

There was a popular ditty in England during the World War. As we remember it, the words went something like this—

"Call out the Army and the Navy,
Call out the rank and file,
Call out the valiant Territorials,
Who'll fight for England with a smile,
Call out the last of the Old Brigade
To keep this country free,
Call out my mother, my sister, and my brother,
But for God's sake don't take Me."

In connection with President Conant's advocacy of sending young men of the U. S. A. to fight in Europe if it will be necessary to do so to defeat the axis powers, it is interesting to note that in recent weeks some British leaders have been stating that Britain must send an army to invade Europe. The British army, according to reports, numbers about 3,000,000 men. The German army numbers, according to reports 8,000,000 men. The Italian army numbers several millions of men. It would be unreasonable, even fatuous to expect the British army to invade Europe and face armies greatly outnumbering it. How many of the parents and other relatives of the young men of this country who have been, or will be drafted for one year's military training, agree with President Conant that the youth of America should be shipped to Europe, as cannon, tank and warplane fodder, to assure, if necessary, the defeat of Germany?

President Conant, like most of those who are advocating that this country enter the European war (if necessary to achieve defeat for the axis) is not, in our belief, planning to among those who will be "glowed under" in Europe in the cause of democracy, but he is quite willing to have other folks' sons be sacrificed. We saw the vast charnel at Verdun with the bones of many thousands of Frenchmen and Germans scattered on the slopes there. We saw the hideous evidence of other battlefields in France. We stood within a few feet of General Pershing at Trier, Germany, early in 1919 when he urged soldiers of the American Army of Occupation to resist the jibes of their alleged "allies" that the A. E. F. was not a factor in the winning of that World War. We are absolutely opposed to the U. S. A. again being sucked into this recrudescence of the age old European racial hatred and economic strife, even though propagandists assert that this country cannot survive unless it becomes a participant. We believe that the U. S. A. should shun this continent-wide bloodbath (if necessary) and that every man should fight in that defence—even those trained in chemistry and physics.

A Tribute to Dr. Eusden On His Fifteenth Anniversary As Pastor of Eliot Church

Fifteen years ago today Dr. Ray Anderson Eusden of Eliot Church arrived in Newton in a blizzard like the one of last February 14th.

He came here from Lawrence, Kansas, his first pastorate.

A graduate of Yale Divinity School, cum laude, Dr. Eusden took his master's degree at Chicago University, where a fellowship was offered him. Then followed two years in France with the U. S. Marine Corps. After a year's study at King's College, London, he was Professor of Philosophy at Kingfisher for a year. In 1931, Dr. Eusden received the degree of Doctor of Divinity upon him.

During his ministry at Eliot Church the church has constantly grown and expanded in numbers and in strength—both materially and spiritually.

His uncompromisingly honest approach, and his keen insight, together with his brilliant scholarship has won a large following of those who find help from his preaching in keeping their footing in the turmoil of a tragic world.

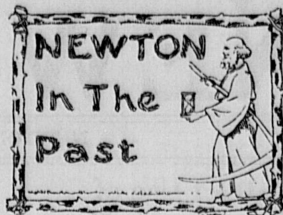

To the community at large, he has endeared himself by the vigor of his personality, and his ready friendliness, his intense interest in people.

To Dr. Eusden on this anniversary go the congratulations and good wishes of the community for many rich years ahead.

Eliot Church is indeed fortunate in his able leadership and in his inspiring preaching.

We understand that Mr. Henry E. Cobb is arranging a party of Newton citizens for a grand tour to Mexico, to occupy one parlor car. It will be a delightful trip and the sight of the exotics in all their verdure must be good for eyes streaming with cold.

We are glad to see the police circulating about town ordering citizens to clear snow and ice off their sidewalks. One or two $50,000 suits would wake up our city government.

Ice harvesting is active at Crystal Lake. George W. Ellis has cut and hauled all that he will need for the coming season. He has employed about 30 men in the harvesting.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday H. H. Tilton petitioned for a permit to erect 8 small buildings on Needham st., Upper Falls in which to manufacture fireworks.

A leading citizen of a New Hampshire town has offered the Singer Sewing Machine Company of Elizabeth, New Jersey 100 acres of meadow land as an inducement to that company to locate a plant there. The company will employ 2500 hands. Some Upper Falls residents are agitating that efforts be made to induce the company to locate here. The Upper Falls has water power, freight facilities, and being near to Boston would get lower rates from New York and the West than would places in other parts of New England.

Newton city officials have caused a limit to be put on the number of persons allowed to gather in Eliot Hall, Newton, and have ordered that no audience shall number over 500. This building was built by J. N. Bacon at an expense of many thousands of dollars, and he knew well it was an outlay of money that would never bring a paying return, but it was done so that citizens of Newton might have a comfortable and handsome hall capable of seating such audiences as were to gather in this city. It was a public-spirited act, and many thousands of Newton people have enjoyed entertainments at the hall. There have been no accidents there, and it seems strange that the City Government will order the use of this hall discontinued, which they virtually do by limiting the attendance there to 500.

Donations for the Pomroy Home during the month of January included—milk, barrel of vegetables, clothing, can of fruit, boxes of gem wheat, oranges, 39 undergarments.

The new and elegant residence of Mr. Henry E. Cobb, of the Boston banking house of Brewster, Cobb & Estabrook, just completed on Bellevue st., Newton, was the scene of a notable gathering of Newton people last evening upon the occasion of the coming-out party of his daughter, Miss Lucy Cobb. Invitations to the number of 700 were sent out. The interior of the mansion was very tastefully decorated and some very elegant costumes were worn by the ladies. Mrs. Cobb and Miss Cobb, assisted by Mrs. Wilcox of Chicago received in the music room. Cheney's orchestra was stationed in a recess, concealed by tropical plants and foliage. An elegant collation was served.

The horse of Harry McIntosh of Upper Falls which fractured a leg a few weeks since, had to be killed on Wednesday as the repairing of the leg was found impossible.

Charles Palmer of Upper Falls was kicked by a horse and his leg fractured while returning from Boston Monday afternoon. The accident happened near Chestnut Hill reservoir, and the ride home was accomplished, although the leg was very painful. Dr. Thompson treated the leg and ordered Mr. Palmer sent to the hospital.

At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday night there was considerable discussion over the matter of advertising for bids for the construction of a drill hall on the high school grounds for the military battalion. Councilman Rolfe said he did not feel very happy over the matter. Last fall city appropriations were cut down to cover only bare necessities. We have a new almshouse to build, an engine, ladder truck and horses to buy for the Fire Department, and many other things. He did not think it necessary to build a drill shed. It is time to call a halt in school expenses. If we keep on we shall teach dancing, instrumental music and maintain colleges at public expense. A halt must be called, and we may as well stop now. He moved against concurrence with the Aldermen on the order for the building of the drill shed.

Councilman Dutch said he is not opposed to the drill shed, but he has an idea if the brass buttons are taken off the uniforms, the boys will not want to drill. He favored a gymnasium instead of a drill shed. Councilman Forknall favored the drill shed. He says military drill is established, and we should either provide a proper place for the boys to drill, or do away with the military training. Councilman Grace said a two-story building should be put up, so that boys who don't want to drill, can be taught the use of tools. Councilman Rolfe said that not more than 50 per cent of children go from grammar school in Newton to the high school, because their parents can't afford to send them, and their parents are taxed to pay for the high school. They should not have a tax for a drill shed added to that.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, Feb. 4, 1916

The usual quiet of Newton was rudely disturbed for a few minutes last Saturday morning. John Zevitas a native of classic Greece, who conducts a fruit business, had left his horse and wagon behind French's block on Centre st., while he was eating breakfast. To protect the fruit from the cold winter air, John had placed a supply of hay in the wagon, and also a lighted lantern. In some way the hay became ignited and in less than a minute the wagon was a mass of flames. The horses naturally started to depart from such warm surroundings but, being hit by the flames, could not carry out his intention.

In the house of Engine 1, a few yards away, the firemen on duty were busily engaged in their morning tasks. Hoseman Tom Enegess was working at the rear of the firehouse when he noticed a glow. He did not pay much attention to it at first, as he thought it was caused by the rays of the rising sun, but course it would be somewhat unusual for the rising sun to shine in a West window at 7:50 on a January morning, but this slight detail did not occur to Tom. As the blaze increased the glare of the flames caused Enegess to realize that the illumination was from a fire and not from the sun, so he made a rush to the front of the station to start the fire truck to the scene of the burning. A warning to the other firemen.

While the firemen were hustling to the engine, Zevitas' steed, thoroughly heated up, had beat it out the alley which runs by the side of the fire station, and with a speed that would do credit to a Grand Circuit trotter, dashed through Nonantum square, and headed toward Watertown with the wagon trailing behind like a meteor. This occurred so quickly that when the firemen were ready to leave the house, there was no fire in sight. Cecil Leacy was driving his express-wagon along Galen st. when he heard the commotion behind him, and looking behind saw the conflagration rapidly approaching. With a courage worthy of a Carnegie medal, young Leacy risked death from incineration, made a flying leap from his own team and landed in the blazing fruit wagon. Not having an asbestos suit on, his stay was of short duration, and with his clothing badly scorched, Leacy made a hasty exit from the Zevitas' comet.

When a canine is frightened, he drops his tail between his legs as he puts distance between himself and danger. Unfortunately for Mr. Zevitas' steed, horses do not resemble dogs in this particular, and as the equine raced down Galen st., his tail being extended, came in contact with the flames and was severely singed. Maddened by the pain, the horse broke the record between Newton and Watertown, and racing over the bridge with his fiery equine, created consternation in the neighborhood. Luckily, an approaching car diverted his course up Pleasant st. and into a blind alley. Someone notified the Watertown fire department, and as the engine house is close by, Watertown firemen were soon at the scene, and extinguished the blaze before the horse was seriously burned.

GIVE THOSE SENTIMENTS A

Voice!

How sad to contemplate the time
When lovers, far apart,
Would pine and languish
each for each,
Because they couldn't put in speech
What bound 'em heart to heart!

Then thank your lucky stars because
The lady of your choice
Is waiting somewhere on the line
To welcome, as a valentine,
The magic of your voice!

Newton Woman To Aid In England

Miss Charlotte Raymond, who has been associated with the Family Service Bureau of Newton for the last eight years as Nutritionist, has been given a year's leave of absence. Miss Raymond will leave for some where in England with the Harvard Medical Unit which has been organized to carry on a research study of communicable diseases under wartime conditions in England. She goes with the unit as dietitian. It will be her duty to plan and supervise the food service for patients and personnel of the hospital to be established, and to help in any nutritional research that may be undertaken. This offers a great challenge as the dietary must be planned within the limitations of food available in England.

Miss Raymond has also served the out-patient department of the Newton Hospital, the District Nursing Association and has conducted the well baby clinics.

Streamlined Pressure

Cooker Boon to Women

A succulent chicken stew in half an hour, a tender, brown Swiss steak in 20 minutes. These are not the extravagant day dreams of a bride, they are the actual accomplishments of a streamlined pressure cooker saucepan that is now on the market.

For the woman whose fingers must fly to get dinner within a half an hour after work, this cooker is a dream come true. No longer must she cling to steaks, chops and other cook-in-a-jiffy meats for her meals.

Its forerunner, the large canner pressure cooker, was a bit unwieldy for daily handling, but marvelous for preserving. But this small compact successor can step right into your kitchen and perform almost any job of surface cookery, big or little.

Little moisture is needed to create the steam, so none of the precious flavor or minerals is discarded as cooking water. So short are the cooking times required that vegetables retain much of their garden-fresh sweetness and goodness.

Whole potatoes take but 9 to 11 minutes to cook, the time for whole beets is but 16 to 18 minutes. And succulent green vegetables such as broccoli, green beans, asparagus tips, quartered cabbage, peas and spinach, take but 1 to 2½ minutes after the heat indicator points to "cook." In fact, with the packaged frozen vegetables, cooking is a matter of split-second timing. Many of them take a half a minute, none longer than a minute and a half if they are thawed when placed in the kettle.

Young Bridge Beginner

Must Know How to Deal

So Johnny wants to learn to play contract bridge? That's fine. Then there can be family games with Mother, Father, Mary and Johnny.

"All right, Johnny, you deal. Don't lick the cards. Can't you pull a card off the pack without licking it? And don't bang each card down separately. Look there, you've turned up a face card! Now you'll have to start all over. You can't just stick it back in the pack."

"Of course, you shuffle them again. Look at you, spilling the cards in every direction. Butterfingers! What are you waiting for? Go ahead and deal. You haven't got a card for yourself? Then you must have made a mistake. Everybody count his cards."

"For goodness' sake! How long is it going to take to sort them? The rest of us finished ages ago. There you go, dropping the cards again. Can't you put the spades together and the hearts together and the clubs together?"

"Well, we can't wait indefinitely. There is no use in trying to teach you how to play contract until you have learned to shuffle and deal and sort your cards. Just sit there at the table and practice. When you have shown some improvement it will be time enough to take up the fine points of the game."

Blondes Are Worst Speakers

Blondes are more careless in their speech than brunettes. Women make fewer grammatical mistakes than men. Bad English is spoken more commonly in the East than in the West. The author of these statements is Edwin Maxwell, veteran stage actor and director and foremost Hollywood dialogue director. Maxwell made these observations after interviewing more than 1,000 players for a recent picture, during which chore he made copious notes, rounding out material for a forthcoming book. "Blondes—blonde women, especially—are more slovenly in their speech than brunettes because they are conscious of their eye appeal and therefore expect a listener, particularly a male listener, to overlook their bad grammar because of the ameliorating effect their appearance has on the listener," he says.

Slot-Machine Entertainment

Another new development in slot-machine entertainment made its appearance recently in Hollywood and it bids fair to engulf the nation before long. It is called the "Talking Jute Box." The device looks like the nickel-in-the-slot music box—and it will play most anything requested—by asking an operator at some distant point. The machines are connected with leased wires from a central station, with girl operators ready to serve your every request. Drop a coin in a slot and from the central office, a sweet soft voice asks, "number please," just like the telephone operator. The customer then mentions the song or orchestra number he wishes and presto—just like that—the operator selects the record, puts it on a turntable, plugs the music into the proper outlet, and lo, and behold, the music "comes out right here."

Where Big Cities Locate

Of 20 cities in the United States of over 200,000 population, only two are not located on navigable water. The place where ship meets car, observes Harry Wernse, an authority on industrial development, is where men build their big cities, accumulate their greatest wealth and carry on the commerce of the world. Every good harbor in every civilized and populous country is a nerve center of business.

Plan of Proposed Samuel Francis Smith Memorial Park

Newton Stores Will Close February 22

The Newton Chamber of Commerce announces that all stores in Newton which usually close on a holiday will close all day on Saturday, Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday.

These stores will not close on Saturday, April 19, the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington and Concord. This will be in accordance with a vote taken by the Retail Trade Commission on Jan. 9, and conforms with the vote taken by retail merchants in Waltham and Boston.

park to reduce its cost, and this would also permit the filling of the low area near the lake with solid fill, much of which might come from cellars excavated in the South side of the city. Alderman McKay's plan has been attracting increased interest not only in Newton Centre and Newton Highlands, but also in other sections of Newton, and many believe this will be an excellent solution of a problem which has bothered many in this city over a long period.

Against Liquor At Army Camps

At the February meeting of the Newton W. C. T. U. a petition was sent to the Governor of Massachusetts asking that he carefully consider the subject of liquor and commercialized vice as it relates to the welfare of the trainees in the cantonments, barracks or camps of this State. Also a petition was sent to the Legislature of Massachusetts asking that such emergency laws be enacted as would be appropriate for the protection of our military and naval services from the effects of commercialized vice and liquor of any alcoholic content. Mrs. Mabelle M. Groves of Newton Centre, a member of the executive Board of the National Council for Temperance and Prohibition which she attended recently in Washington, stated that alcohol's first effect is not to make a man stagger on his feet but to make him stagger in his thinking and that a soldier needs to have keenness of sight and quickness of action and that even 3.2 beer has an alcohol content that will impair his ability for good marksmanship and mental alertness and that tremendous good may be done for National Defense and the future of these young men if temptations are removed from or around the camp.

Mrs. Groves quoted Major General Marshall as saying that this is not a matter of sentiment but that the efficiency of an army depends upon the quality of its soldiers; men who are required to operate complicated machines in this present kind of warfare.

CHIEF PONTIAC SAYS: Carelessness is the mother of catastrophe.

Study Papago Indian

That the Indian only says "Ugh!" is an obvious fallacy, according to Dr. Emil Hauray, head of the department of anthropology and director of a group of University of Arizona linguists, archeologists and historians who are making an exhaustive investigation into the Papago Indian tribes of the Southwest. Dr. Hauray describes the Papago Indian as "good-natured, co-operative, well-equipped physically and mentally, yet distinct in appearance from many other southwestern tribes. The study, which may take several years, is being carried out along definite lines, with one member tracing the archeological history, another making photographs of current Papago customs and another reconstructing the cultural history of the tribe and attempting to trace the effects of contacts with other Indians and the white man.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified." These words from Psalms comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, February 16, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Soul." Included among the Scriptural selections is: "Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee. For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living" (Psalms 116:7-9).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is also included: "Life is the law of Soul, even the law of the spirit of Truth, and Soul is never without its representative. Man's individual being can no more die nor disappear in unconsciousness than can Soul, for both are immortal" (p. 427).

Blue Print China Became

Popular in 17th Century

Thomas Turner, at one time engraver at Worcester, pupil of Hancock's and a man of independent means and social standing, in 1772 took over the direction of the Caughley works in Shropshire making porcelain where hitherto earthenware had been the sole product.

Blue and white ware with printed transfer decorations became the principal article of manufacture and it is to Turner through the Caughley factory that most of the credit is given for popularizing blue-printed china and the invention of the deep rich blue characteristic of the finest work of this period. From Turner's genius likewise originated the introduction of the Broseley dragon and the famous Willow pattern adapted from earlier Chinese K'ang-Hsi and Ch'ing ware and so freely imitated by the host of Staffordshire potters.

The commercial success of the transfer process by which designs could be reproduced speedily and accurately attracted other potters who were developing a stone china to compete with the French faience on the continental market.

Spode's iron stone ware manufactured from 1805 by the younger Josiah found its transfers in black, blue and other colors such as economical medium it virtually drove the French faience makers out of business and Miles Mason, in the pottery established at Lane Delph in Staffordshire with his ironstone patent of 1813 increased the popularity of the transfer decorations.

With the trend toward views of landscape portraits which followed the story scenes, bids were made for the American markets by such potters as Adams, Jackson, Clews and Stevenson among the many other Staffordshire firms.

New Chemical Doubles

Synthetic Rubber Output

The doubling of its capacity for production of acrylonitrile, one of the ingredients in the production of the new synthetic rubbers, is announced by American Cyanamid company. This chemical derived from cyanamid is also known as vinyl cyanide, and is used in combination with butadiene, derived from petroleum, to make the wear resistant type of synthetic rubber, known in Germany as Perbunan. It is useful for tire treads. The company is now the principal producer of acrylonitrile in the United States.

Production of the chemical was started on a commercial basis some months ago to supply demand from makers of synthetic rubber. Demand has already required doubling of production and further substantial increases are expected. Acrylonitrile is a colorless liquid, now available in large quantities and this is expected to lead to new uses in chemical synthesis as well as in resins and plastics. Another indication of the expanding operations of the company is the awarding by North American Cyanamid Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary, of a contract for the construction of an office building and two smaller buildings at the proposed $3,000,000 plant to be erected near Niagara Falls, Ontario.

Whenever learning can be made into an exciting game, the pupils go ahead very quickly. With this thought in mind, Arthur C. Zaborik, music teacher in Milwaukee, Wis., recently rigged up a large electrical device that lies flat on the floor and resembles two octaves of a piano keyboard, with black and white keys.

The right note sounds whenever a key is stepped on. The pupils call out the chords they are going to play, recite the different notes and then step them off on this device, hopscotch fashion. Although the feet do most of the work, pupils treading the keyboard train their ears to detect discords. With this device, Zaborik says, a whole class can learn in two weeks what might otherwise take two or three months.

An electrically charged brass strip runs along the outer edge. Beneath each key is a brass pin that sends current to a small electromagnet when the feet press the over-size keys. That forces another pin against the tuning bar, sounding a note.

Wars Do Settle Things

Prof. Jesse H. Newlon (of Columbia, telling a teachers' conference that the profession has been preaching fallacies about war, peace and America): "We have been teaching a sentimental program of peace education . . . We have taught that war never settles anything. Look at the Revolutionary war and tell me that war never settles anything. It gave us our freedom . . . Another fallacy is all this propaganda about propaganda. Don't get me wrong, I believe in propaganda analysis, but there is such a thing as carrying it too far . . . We're becoming cynical. A candidate for political office cannot say anything without being suspected of sinister motives."

Puff Creates Heat Wave

Every puff on a cigarette creates a midge heat wave hot enough to melt aluminum, yet it is dissipated so quickly that research engineers have to use sensitive laboratory instruments to measure it, according to research engineers at the Westinghouse Research laboratories.

Hunnewell Club
Wins First League
Bottle Pin Title

Champions of the Newton Bottle Pin League is the title which came to the Hunnewell Club on Wednesday night in the final match of the league season at the Hunnewell Club alleys. It is the first league title the Hunnewell Club has won in the forty-one years of the league's existence although on several occasions the local organization has led the circuit up to the closing matches and failed to come through.

Five teams make up the Newton Bottle Pin League, Hunnewell, Middlesex Sportsman's Association of Arlington, Maguire of Wellesley, Waban Neighborhood Club, and University Club of Boston. Matches have been bowled with four teams participating and one team drawing a bye each week since last October. Hunnewell led the league race until a week ago when Middlesex drew up on even terms with 7 points in the match in which Hunnewell drew a bye. Thus on Wednesday evening, with University Club having finished its season a week ago, the four teams gathered at the Hunnewell Club for the crucial match.

The Hunnewell team, comprised of Luke L. Goff, Alfred Hansen, Henry L. Johnson, Jr., William Blandy, and Clarence C. Colby, and the Middlesex Club comprised of A. P. Chase, Ashworth, F. Murphy, D. Murphy and R. Ambrose, staged a nip and tuck duel. Middlesex won the first string with a total pinfall of 1082 for a new season single string record for the league, scoring three points while Hunnewell's pinfall was an even 900.

Hunnewell captured the second string with a pinfall of 965 against Middlesex with an even 900 and the two teams went into the final string. Still nip and tuck the two teams finished up but one pin apart with the Hunnewell total of 936 topping that of Middlesex at 962 giving Hunnewell 7 points for the three strings and Middlesex but five. Middlesex's three string total of 2944 set a new season record for the league. In compiling this record the individual totals were Chase 568, Ashworth 577, F. Murphy 612, D. Murphy 582, and Ambrose 965.

A highlight of the matches was the single string of 289 bowled by Lorne Wright of the Maguire team. The Wellesley bowler chalked up ten consecutive strikes before making a ninth pin hit to break his string, the tenth pin rocking but failing to topple. The 289 is a new league record displacing the 285 made previously by Wright himself.

Individual scores of the members of the Hunnewell Club team in winning their first title were:

	1	2	3	T.
Goff	220	169	164	553
Hansen	217	206	158	581

Newton Scores 7
Points In State Meet

Scoring but seven points, the Newton high track team tied for sixth place in the annual State inter-scholastic track meet at the Boston Garden last Saturday. Coach Don Enoch's crew has begun to show more strength than in the early season, however, and will cause the leaders trouble in the Andover meet tomorrow which closes the 1941 season. The orange and black also has given indication that it may be the team to watch in 1942.

Newton's points were scored in four events with Norman Hale scoring four in the broad jump with a leap of 9 feet 10 3/4 inches to tie for first with Lew Watkins, Mechanic Arts competitor and 300-yard winner. Ted Woods picked up two points in the 1000 yard run with a third place. In the final heat of this race against time John Malley of Mechanics Arts was an easy winner in the fastest trial of three. He carried Joe Amirault of Malden along with him while Woods trailed the pair. On the home stretch the Malden youngster fell and Woods came along fast for second place in the heat and good enough time for third in the event.

Bill Rangnow won the first heat of the 600-yard run in 1m 21.9s which ultimately proved to be a tie for the fourth best time giving Rangnow a half point with the other split digit going to Westerman of Malden. The Newton relay team comprised of Warren Baldwin, Harry Greenwood, Ray Hunting and Warren Houston raced Lawrence and Medford in their heat. Lawrence won with Medford second and Newton third. The orange and black time was fast enough for tenth place and a half point in its score to bring the total to seven.

Ray Hunting took second in the fifth final heat of the dash but failed to qualify in the semi-finals. Dana Robinson placed fourth in the first heat of the 1000. Newton Sextet
Loses Two; Melrose
Clinches Title

Playing three games in six days and losing two of them ended Newton High hockey team's chances of tying the league leading Melrose High sextet. Last Friday the locals won an easy 7 to 2 victory over Belmont while Melrose was taking Medford and the relative position of the two teams remained unchanged. The Saturday set of games in the G. B. I. league brought a series of upsets with Arlington topping Melrose in the opening game and giving Newton a chance to draw closer to the potential champs. But Newton was out-played and out-smarted by a hustling Cambridge Latin sextet which trimmed Newton 4 to 1. Coach Evan Johnson's team still had a mathematical chance to tie Melrose providing Newton won both its games this week while Melrose was losing its two.

Losing Goalie McKenna on account of scholastic ineligibility Coach Johnson had to call upon Threadgill to guard the Newton nets. Both Threadgill and Bill Ormsby, who relieved him found the going tough and Medford chalked up a 7 to 2 win.

Newton meets Rindge Tech tomorrow in its closing game of the season and needs a victory to take second place to Melrose which clinched the title on Wednesday by beating the Cantabs 7 to 1.

In swamping Belmont last Friday the locals were paced by Phil Fessenden who tallied three goals and three assists. Stan Collinson scored one goal and had one assist with Ellingwood and French completing the scoring with unassisted tallies. Belmont was in the game for five minutes with Harding scoring then to even the count at 1-all but Newton tallied three more in the first session. Newton added two in the second period with Fessenden scoring the final counter in the third and Belmont making its second goal to end the scoring.

Stan Collinson saved Newton from a shutout at the hands of Cambridge Latin on Saturday by scoring with less than a minute to play. The Cantabs tallied twice in the first period, once in the second and their fourth in the third period a minute before Collinson soled.

Medford took a three-goal lead in the first period of Wednesday's game and added another in less than three minutes after the second period began. Fessenden tallied at 5:23 in the second period and caged another in the final period from scrimmage after Medford had taken a 6 to 1 lead. The winners added their final tally a few minutes later.

Newton and Watch
City Fives in Night
Game at Newton

The Newton High School basketball team will close its season tonight meeting Waltham High on the Newton gym floor. Some weeks ago the orange and black was defeated at Waltham by a three-point margin and Coach Wilson's quintet is out to even the season's score between the two arch rivals. The Newton five is without the services of one of its dependables in George Norcross who was found guilty of violating the rule prohibiting members of the varsity squad from playing basketball outside of school.

Newton dropped another Suburban league game to Brookline High on Wednesday afternoon at the Newton gym. Holding the Waltham Towners through three periods the locals saw the visitors forge ahead to a 42 to 34 victory through the sharpshooting of Mooney at left forward. Mooney caged 11 goals from the floor and two on free throws for a total of 24 points, the outstanding individual feat on the Newton floor this season.

For three periods the teams were never more than three points apart with Newton enjoying the slight advantage until the third quarter was nearly over. At quarter time Newton led 10 to 9 and at half time 20 to 19. In the third session Newton stepped ahead 25 to 22 but later Brookline tied it at 29 and then took over the lead. Bob Beatty with 8 points, Dick Lowry with 7 and Devlin with 6 points were the leading Newton scorers.

Our Lady Five
Loses To St. Mary's
In Catholic League

Title honors in the Catholic High School basketball league race entered into a state of uncertainty on Wednesday evening when the St. Mary's High five of Waltham defeated Our Lady High five in a red-hot contest at the Our Lady Gym, 30 to 25. The victory for the Waltham five put them out in front in the league standing with a 7-1 rating against a 6-1 rating for the locals. The race down the home stretch will be a thriller with both teams having an excellent chance of ending on an even basis and necessitating a third game between the two rivals for the championship. St. Mary's only defeat was at the hands of Our Lady several weeks ago while the Wednesday night upset was the first for the Newton outfit this year.

Clancy at centre for the Waltham team tallied 12 points to assume the individual scoring honors of the game while Mike Gegan and Captain Marco Marino each scored six points to star for Our Lady.

The league standing:

	W	L
St. Mary's (W)	7	1
OUR LADY	6	1
St. Mary's (B)	5	3
St. Charles	4	5

St. Patrick's	2	6
St. John's	0	7

Maintaining its undefeated leadership of the Southern division of the Catholic High School league basketball race the Our Lady High five defeated St. Charles High of Waltham, 38 to 30 at Waltham last Friday for its sixth straight victory. The victory for Our Lady High makes the race a two-team affair with St. Mary's High of Waltham with one defeat in seven starts the only threat to the Newton crew.

The game was closely fought for three-quarters of the way with Newton having a 9-7 margin at the end of the first period and a 20-15 edge at half time. St. Charles evened the count in the third period and scored again to take a 24-22 lead but then the Newton offense found itself, went on to forge ahead again and regain its 5 point margin at the end of the third period and build it up to 8 points at the end of the game.

Mike Gegan, Newton forward, was the high scorer turning in 6 baskets from the floor and four from the foul line for 16 points. Marco Marino turned in a great defensive game by picking the ball off the backboard frequently. He set up many scoring plays and caged eight points himself. Dick Kinchla, high scorer for the team for the season was held to five points although in concentrating on the Our Lady centre Gegan was given the opportunity to free himself.

Newton H. S.

The musical program sponsored by the Microphone Club, featuring performances by the Music Club, the band, and the boys' chorus, will be broadcast on February 15, at 11:00 a. m. over Station WHDH. The selections by the musical organizations will be interpreted by Nancy Hoagland and Bettie Norris, members of the Microphone Club. They will also describe the organization of a band and tell of some of the unusual instruments in the High School band. Richard Bolin, president of the club, will be the announcer. The following songs will be played by the band: "The Thunderer," by Sousa; "Chorale," by Bach; "Overture to Louise," by Schmidt; "Paranne," by Gould, and "El Capitan," by Sousa. The renditions by the chorus include: "Old King Cole," "All Through the Night" and the chorale "America" by Ernest Black. The Microphone Club will participate in the radio program entitled "The American School of the Air," on Feb. 28 over Station WEEI. The program will consist of panel discussion of thirteen questions pertaining to the subject "Are Educational Opportunities Open to All?" Miss Helen Lee is the faculty adviser of the club.

Balloting for class officers for class X on February 5 resulted in the election of John Dorfman as president and Douglas Teschner as vice-president. Secretary and treasurer are Bette Bern and Janet Zeigler.

A Lincoln Day assembly for the sophomore class brought professional actors to the Newton High School on Wednesday in the drama, "Prologue to Glory." The play was a hit on the road as well as in the metropolitan cities. It centers around the early ambitions and love affair of the great hero, Abraham Lincoln. Combined are the elements of history, romance, inspiration, dramatic thrill and high idealism.

Captain Norman Williams of the ski team won the class B Junior Jumping event at the Innituit Ski Club Meet, held at Woburn, on Feb. 11, with a leap of 82 feet. There was a field of twenty-five competitors. This jump was twelve feet longer than the record established last year at Mount Hood by former captain Duncan Reid of the Newton High School Ski Team.

Burglaries At W. Newton Homes

Two burglaries were committed on Saturday night in West Newton homes located near each other. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garland of 111 Eliot ave. left their home about 5:15 Saturday evening. When they returned at 8 o'clock they found someone had broken a first-floor window and looted the house. Apparently they had frightened the burglar away because after entering by way of the back door, they found the front door wide open, and silverware piled in a room where the burglar apparently placed it for removal. Jewelry stolen from the house was valued at $500. It included two platinum and diamond pins, a diamond ring, a gold ring and two watches, one of which Mr. Garland valued highly because it had been given to him by his father.

The home of Elmer Ellsworth at 41 Wedgewood rd., a short distance away, was also entered and ransacked, but only four shirts were found missing from there. These were thrown away by the burglar near the Garland home.

The home of Mrs. Lucille Carder at 64 Eliot ave. was also entered by forcing a cellar window. It was not known if anything had been stolen from that house.

On Monday John Flanagan, 17, of 23 Pershing rd., West Newton, found one of the pins stolen from the Garland home near that house. He turned it over to the police.

Guilty of Drunken Driving

In the Newton court on Monday William P. Nelson, 35, of 92 Upland ave., Newton Highlands, was found not guilty by Judge Donald Mayberry on charges of drunkenness and driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was fined $5 for driving without a license. Nelson was arrested on the night of February 1 after the car he was driving had hit a car driven by Frank Ring of 1489 Centre st., Newton Centre. Ring and his 10-year-old son were reported as having received injuries.

'Grass Roots'
"Grass Roots," a favorite term for the humble citizenry and often a gold mine for political orators, was used back in 1880, but in those days it actually did refer to gold mining. It referred, however, to the top of the ground, not the bottom of the electorate.

Newton Taxpayers Laud Savings Made By City in 1940

In connection with the financial condition of the city in regard to supplementary appropriations after the adoption of the annual budget the Newton Taxpayers' Association issues the following statement:

"The taxpayers of Newton should be very much gratified to learn of the record city surplus accumulated during the year 1940. About a year ago, the Newton Taxpayers' Association, Inc., took an active part in emphasizing the impropriety of past budget practices and supported the Mayor and others directly concerned in efforts to correct the situation.

"The City of Newton budget prior to 1940, was relatively meaningless because the different departments were able to come in with requests for supplementary appropriations which were granted without any adequate control of expenditures. Appropriations made after the budget was adopted for the five years prior to 1940 were as follows:

1935	$170,755.75
1936	208,322.24
1937	234,241.23
1938	133,346.56
1939	124,416.01
Total	$871,081.79

"While the 1940 budget was under consideration, the Newton Taxpayers' Association joined with others who had also realized the situation in urging insistence upon an adequate budget for the various departments with the understanding that no further funds would be available throughout the year, but with a contingency fund set up to take care of unforeseen emergencies. Mayor Goddard included in the 1940 budget a reserve fund of $60,000 and because no after-the-budget appropriations were allowed the budget covered all expenses of municipal operation for the year so that for the first time in many years the 1940 tax rate reflected a true picture of annual expenditure.

"Practically all of the $60,000 contingency fund was expended in 1940, but this is very much less than former after-the-budget appropriations which for the past five years have averaged $174,216.36 per year. Newton now has a surplus in the City Treasury amounting to something over $400,000, approximately 25% of which is from the Water Department funds. This surplus is, of course, available for consideration in fixing the tax rate for 1941.

"The Newton Taxpayers' Association congratulates Mayor Goddard and the department heads on this accomplishment, particularly emphasizing the advantages to the City of Newton of the adoption of a true budget which represents the full expected expenditures for the year."

All-Newton Music School Course

The All Newton Music School has completed plans to present Harry A. Seaver in two courses of Music Appreciation lectures on "Understanding Composers" during Lent. Mr. Seaver's course last season on "Understanding Music" met with a great deal of enthusiasm and many inquiries and requests have been coming in for a continuation of this special music school. There will be two series this year, one mornings at 10:30, and another evenings at 7:30, in the Newtonville Library Community Room on Mondays beginning March 3 and continuing for the six weeks through April 7. Gluck-Mozart-Berlioz-Brahms-the Neo-Russians-Delius and Elgar have been selected for the morning series. Haydn-Beethoven-Schubert-Wagner-Debussy and Ravel-Sibelius for the evening.

These lectures will not be biographical, nor will they be wholly technical, but will definitely be aimed at an appreciation of each composer's work as a whole, and a consideration of his particular contribution to the history of music. Each lecture will be 'opiously illustrated by Mr. Seaver at the piano.

The courses are presented as a community project at the very small fee of one dollar for each complete course so that any one interested may enjoy the opportunity. Because of the seating capacity of the Library Lecture Hall, the enrollment must be limited to 100 for each series. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Ray Eusden of Newton, chairman, Mrs. John Alden of Newton, Mrs. Kirtley F. Mather of Newton Centre, Mrs. Ernest Cobb of Newton Upper Falls, Mrs. George Abbott of West Newton, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay of West Newton, Mrs. D. Alden Thresher of Waban, Mr. Haydn Morgan of Newtonville. Registration must be made through any of these ladies or through the office of the All Newton Music School.

TIME was when you measured a car's ability and standing by the yardstick distance from bumper to bumper.

But not any more—not entirely.

Not since Buick made ready the four new additions to its 1941 SPECIAL series that are built for big-car travel tastes—and small-car garages!

They are cars to take the measure of almost anything on the road in the lift and life of their 115-hp. Buick FIREBALL engines.*

They are cars that doff their bonnets to no others for smart appearance, rich, comfortable interiors and thoroughgoing Buick quality.

They are cars with room for all the family, with all the little Buick luxury touches, with the unrivaled comfort of Buick's all-coil springing and steady-going road-ability.

But bumper to bumper they are shorter—so they fit your garage.

Their wheelbase is 118 inches—so they park like a bicycle and flit through traffic with ridiculous ease.

They go farther on every gallon—farther, even, than other Buick models—and they've got a get-up-and-get-away-from-there lift that gets you where you're going pronto!

So you can't take their measure with a yardstick.

You've got to measure them by what they do for you—in the easier handling, the bigger thrill, the extra convenience they add.

And when you hear the prices on them—prices made lower by their new compactness—you'll find they measure up plenty BIG in the dollar-for-dollar value they put within your reach.

How about seeing them—now?

Mayor Goddard Submits 1941 Budget Estimates To Board of Aldermen

Total Less Than 1940 Budget Despite Added Expense of Fire Department

The budget for the current expenses of the City of Newton for the year, 1941, was submitted to the Board of Aldermen on Monday night by Mayor Goddard. In connection with the submitting of the budget, Mayor Goddard delivered an address to the aldermen.

Prefacing the budget, Mayor Goddard stated—

Gentlemen: In accordance with the provisions of Section 32 of Chapter 44 of the General Laws, I submit the annual budget of the current expenses of the City, consisting of an itemized and detailed statement of the money required during the financial year by the school committee and every officer and board having the expenditure of money.

In accordance with the usual custom of making the annual appropriation order, I recommend that all items for serial bonds and interest on the Water debt and for the maintenance of the Water department be omitted from the annual appropriation order and be provided for in a supplementary order, in the usual form.

Salary recommendations in this Budget are not final, and are subject to revision after further consultation with department heads. The recommended increase in the police department is to effect the day off in six. The budget recommendations of the department heads totalled $5,768,230.89, and from this amount the Mayor lopped nearly $200,000. His recommendations total $5,571,874.51. The amounts in the budget plus the appropriations already made this year total about $24,600 less than the budget recommendations made by the Mayor last year. This reduction is made despite the appointment of 26 additional firemen, salary increases recommended for officials and 40 city clerks and employees, and provision for the appointment of 2 additional sergeants and 6 patrolmen to give the police a day off in six. To the Mayor's original budget recommendations in 1940 were added $65,000 for snow removal, to offset which he deducted $27,750 from the Street Department Budget. Later he recommended $50,000 for WPA projects, and $48,000 additional for the reserve fund. This year's budget includes $50,000 for WPA projects and $75,000 for the Reserve Fund.

Salary increases are recommended for the following officials:—Captain Veducio of the Police Department, $2950 to $3100. The police captain for years has been receiving $50 less annually than the deputy chief of the Fire Department. The Mayor's secretary is recommended for an increase in salary from $1500 to $1750; Miss Ellice, deputy City Collector from $2500 to $3000; Chief Inspector Robertson of the Health

Ice Carnival At Crystal Lake Is Well Attended

The sixth annual ice carnival of the Newton Figure Skating Club was held last Sunday afternoon and evening with the largest attendance during the six years this annual event has been conducted. Nearly four thousand persons were attracted by the exhibition drills, figure skating and costume ball which featured the program. Thrice postponed from Feb. 8th because of weather conditions and poor ice almost perfect conditions favored the event on Sunday with the Recreation Department under the direction of Commissioner F. Ewing Wilson and Supervisor John S. Donahue co-operating in preparing the ice. A large crew of maintenance men under the direction of John Nazaro worked throughout Sunday morning making it necessary to postpone the annual children's races conducted by the department. These events will be held tomorrow, Saturday, weather permitting. Frank W. Warren of the Newton Figure Skating Club was director of the carnival with E. Frank Woodruff, president of the club, in charge of arrangements. Judges were Mrs. Louis H. Marshall, chairman of the Newton Recreation Department, Commissioner Wilson and Skating Director Donahue.

The evening program was opened by a grand march with over 150 skaters participating. The most artistic costume award went to Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Wason, dressed as a drum major and Dutch woman. Dressed as Santa Claus and the North Pole, H. D. Lane and his daughter, Gretchen, were awarded the prize for the most unique costumes. Alicia Lane, another daughter, won a novelty award dressed as a valentine. Other novelty awards went to Herbert and Esther Kaplan, brother and sister, costumed as Robinson Crusoe and a hula hula dancer and the twin sisters, Helena and Julie Dalrymple.

Single programs were put on by Jean Hitt, Mary Reid, Marion Barstow, Christine Benedict, Joyce Brownell, Wilhelm Junker, Doris Tufts, Ruth Flint and Fay Kirby the last two named being stars of the Boston Skating Club. A comedy program was put on by Herbert Kaplan and barrel jumping by Ernest Howe. A foursome of Burton Poole, Mary Reid, Jean Hurley and Jack Richardson staged a skating exhibition with Ethel Gallagher and Arthur Condrick in a pair fancy skating act. Florence Legg was in charge of a special dance group in a fox trot while general ice dancing concluded the program.

The afternoon events featured exhibition drills in figure skating by the children. School figures were exhibited by advanced adult skaters. A precision drill by 32 young skaters under the direction of Joyce Brownell opened the children's program, all girls between 9 and 15 years old. The drill was led by the Dalrymple twins.

A little folk event in charge of Mrs. Allison T. Budget featured a 4-year-old trio comprised of Dorothea McGarty, Jane Warren and Harriet Wason, and an 8-year old trio of Ann Atwood, Janet Budgett

Elmer Davis Draws Big Audience At Community Forum

Elmer Davis of the Columbia Broadcasting Company spoke last Sunday before the largest Forum audience of the year. The auditorium and stage were full and late comers were accommodated in the gymnasium where the amplifying system brought Mr. Davis' talk to them. Dr. Mather introduced Mr. Davis, whose subject was "Can There be a Lasting Peace?" Mr. Davis was rather pessimistic in his outlook on world conditions after the war. He feels that no matter who wins, the world will be in a much worse state than it ever has been in modern times.

Mr. Davis stated that, although he would not dismiss the subject by saying, as many do, that there are no prospects for a lasting peace he would say they are not very bright. He went on to say that there are in the world today inventions which should not be put into the hands of a simple man; in this statement he was not referring to bombers, although he thinks they too are dangerous, but to the Nazi technique of domination. He added that the war is in reality a world revolution and that we must use the instruments we have at hand for a counter revolution. He then described briefly the ideological, economical and cultural angles of the war.

It is the opinion of Mr. Davis that the day of the totally independent small nation is over, but he hopes that the Nazi idea of a federated Europe is also over. According to Mr. Davis, France which has long had the highest culture of the world will be greatly changed, and there is a question if she will be able to retain her cultural standing. He also foresees profound economical and cultural changes in England. He believes that whatever may happen we shall have a bleaker, poorer and bitterer world than has ever been known in modern times. However, Mr. Davis is slightly optimistic about the plight of the United States. He believes that we are large enough to have some mastery over our destiny, and perhaps, if we work hard enough, the entire mastery of it. He further thinks we should follow the policy which would help us the most, which is aiding Britain.

He continued that a great social change is going on in the world, and that all the history that is being made at the present time is being made by Hitler. He stated that the United States must do something about this condition immediately. According to Mr. Davis it will be unwise for us to disarm as thoroughly as we did after the last war.

Mr. Davis agrees with those who say that if we wish to know British peace terms we should know our own first. He said that without doubt the Treaty of Versailles was a faulty document, but that it is impossible to draw any perfect boundary lines east of the Rhine. He quoted from an article in the Saturday Evening Post which stated that there are too many Germans, they want too much, and they go too far to get it. Mr. Davis does not feel that this is the only reason why it is impossible to have perfect boundary lines in Central Europe. He says that one cannot force the small nations of Central Europe to like each other even though some of them may respect each, and at that it is only their fighting qualities that they respect in each other.

Discussing the United States in connection with the world situation Mr. Davis stated that our basic in-

Modern Electric Cars From Newton To Boston

For the first time anywhere a modern P. C. C. car was run in a subway with the operation Wednesday afternoon of such a car from the subway portal at Commonwealth ave. and Blandford st. through the Boylston and Tremont sts. subways to the Park st. subway station.

This ride constituted the first official trip of the car. Those taking the trip included the public trustees of the railway, Edward E. Whiting, chairman; Henry J. Smith, secretary; Ernest A. Johnson, William P. Joy and Patrick J. Welsh, and Edward Dana, president and general manager; John H. Moran, vice-president and treasurer, and Willis B. Downey, general counsel. A number of representatives of the metropolitan and local newspapers were invited guests on the trip.

Already five of the 20 new cars which were purchased by the railway on June 4, 1940, have been received. The balance are being received at the rate of about three a week. Operators are now being broken into the method of operating the new cars and as soon as the operators have been properly trained the cars will be placed in passenger service.

The new car is called in the industry the "Presidents' Conference Committee Car" because it was designed and developed under the direction of a committee composed of street railway executives. These P. C. C. cars are of light weight, streamlined in appearance, comfortable, fast, smooth in starting and stopping, practically noiseless in operation, and with improved ventilating, heating and lighting equipment. They cost $17,030 each.

The cars are to be placed in service on the Newton-Brighton-Watertown line operating between Watertown station near Watertown sq. and the Park st. subway station, via Galen, Tremont, Washington and Cambridge sts. and Brighton and Commonwealth avos. and the Boylston and Tremont sts. subways. The 20 cars will be enough to take care of all the service on this line during the normal hours of travel and will accommodate one-half of the rush-hour riding.

The Newton-Brighton-Watertown line was chosen for the operation of the new cars on May 8, 1940. The trustees approved this line for the new cars because it is the most heavily traveled line with single cars through the subway and thus will be used by a large number of riders. Minor changes were made in the design of the car to adapt it for subway service.

The new cars will be in operation within a week or 10 days. They seat 52 passengers and have ample facilities for standees standing themselves, instead of hanging onto swaying straps. The cars start smoothly and rapidly, and improved braking mechanism will eliminate jerky stops. Faster acceleration and improved braking produce greater speed and better time. The doors on these cars open quickly, and safety type steps insure safer boarding and alighting. Streamlined seats have relaxed positions and are leather backed and cushioned. The cars are well heated and ventilated, and thermostatically controlled.

Must Reinstate Sergeant Cullen

No further action has been taken since last week on the matter of reinstating Bart Cullen as sergeant-mechanic in the Newton police department. It is understood that upon demand of Mr. Cullen's attorney he must, in accordance with the ruling of the full bench of the Supreme Court, be restored to the position he formerly held and receive his salary retroactively. It is also probable that the city will be called upon to pay court costs.

No statement has been made by the Board of Aldermen as yet, as to whether or not they will continue the fight to abolish the position of sergeant-mechanic. If they make such a decision, it will be necessary, in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling, to give Mr. Cullen a hearing.

Dr. Stidger To Speak At Lenten Services

The Rev. William L. Stidger will present a series of addresses in Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, on six Thursday evenings in Lent, beginning Feb. 27. "A New Awareness Today!" is the title of the series, and the weekly topics are: "I Am Aware of a Glory," "I Am Aware of a Responsibility," "I Am Aware of the Father," "I Am Aware of a Need," "I Am Aware of a Spirit," and "I Am Aware of Sorrow." Dr. Stidger is widely known as lecturer, poet, author, radio broadcaster, friend of artists, industrialists, actors, and others in all walks of life, and as a preacher of unusual interest and inspiration. The public is invited to these meetings, which will begin at 7:45 with a period of congregational singing of favorite hymns.

Lasell Community Orchestra Concert

The forthcoming concert of the Lasell Community Orchestra, its second season, next Tuesday evening, February 25, at 8:15 p. m., promises to be one of its most outstanding offerings in the three seasons that this organization has been giving its free concerts as a community enterprise. In addition to the musical numbers a feature will be two groups of special dances by the young ladies composing the Modern Dance Group of Lasell Junior College under the directorship of Alice Paine Paul. These dances interpret a Ballet Suite by Gretry, and also the Malaguena by Lecuona, the Paganini by Gould and the Rumba by MacDonald.

The feature of the instrumental numbers will be Mr. Harold Schwab, organist at Union Church, Waban, and teacher at Lasell Junior College, playing Fantaisie Dialogue by Boellmann which is arranged for pipe organ with the orchestra. This is one of the most popular and effective pieces for this combination and with the fine Skinner organ in Winslow Hall it should be one of the highlights of the program. The orchestra will also perform Weber's Overture to Oberon and the Allegretto from the Seventh Symphony by Beethoven.

As usual the concert will be held in Winslow Hall on the Lasell Campus, Maple st., Auburndale.

150 Citizens Protest Against Gasoline Station Near Crystal Lake

Plan for Smith Memorial Meets With Strong Support; Few Favor Gas Station

Over 100 residents of Newton Centre and Newton Highlands went to City Hall on Monday night to attend a hearing held on the petition which seeks to have a permit granted for a gasoline filling station at 1365 Centre st., corner of Norwood ave., Newton Centre, and to give evidence of their objection to the granting of the petition. The petition was filed in the name of Elsie Tufts of Somerville, an employee of the Metropolitan Ice Company.

General Daniel Needham appeared as attorney for the petitioner, and for the Atlantic Refining Company, which would operate the filling station if a permit were granted. Mr. Needham told the Aldermen that it would be insulting their intelligence to go into the "pros and cons" of the question of granting the petition, as all the members of the Board, with one exception (Alderman Eustis) had already heard the arguments for and against the station. He stated that the petition had been previously filed on March 4, 1940, and a public hearing was held on it on April 1. Subsequently a majority of the Licenses Committee recommended the granting of the petition, and on September 9, 1940 in a close vote, a majority of the Board voted to grant the petition. A motion to reconsider that vote was filed the following day, and on September 23rd the Board voted to lay the matter on the table until the first meeting in December. At that meeting the Board referred the matter back to the Licenses Committee.

Mr. Needham said that on September 23rd of last year it was first suggested that the ice company land, on part of which it is proposed to erect the filling station, should be made into a park as a memorial to Rev. S. F. Smith, the author of the patriotic hymn "America," and perhaps that was the reason for postponing action on the reconsideration of the vote granting the petition. Mr. Needham said that last Monday afternoon there had been a conference between representatives of the Metropolitan Ice Company and the Atlantic Refining Company, and both agreed that if a suitable memorial can be erected to Dr. Smith on the property, they would be the last to stand in the way. The ice company, therefore, had been released by the Atlantic Company of any legal obligation relative to an option on the land, provided the proposals of the memorial plan can within 90 days raise sufficient money to purchase the property for memorial purposes. He commented that he realizes it is difficult to raise $50,000 or $100,000, so he suggested to the Board of Aldermen that they lay the matter on the table for 90 days, and then if the memorial plan does not materialize, he hopes the Aldermen will give the petition prompt attention. Mr. Needham, favored the granting of the petition. He said the owners of the property have been before the Aldermen several times trying to develop some use for the property, and that during the past 8 years $20,000 in taxes have been paid on the property without any income having been derived from it. He corroborated the statement made by Mr. Needham regarding the agreement made with the Atlantic Company to waive the option for 90 days. Steven Berke of Norwood ave. also favored the granting of the petition and read a couple of letters from persons who also favored the petition.

J. Weston Allen of Lake ave., Newton Highlands, former Attorney-General, was the first speaker in opposition to the granting of the petition. He said he had opposed the first petition which was filed in 1933 in an effort to establish a filling station on the ice company land near Crystal Lake, and he will continue to oppose such petition until the Aldermen finally decide not to allow a filling station at this locus. Mr. Allen said he is the oldest resident of Newton Highlands, and remembers when Rev. S. F. Smith, as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Newton Centre, baptized persons in Crystal Lake, then known as Baptist Pond. He asked the Aldermen to do what is best for the interests of Newton. He told of having received a letter from Steven Berke which gave reasons why the petition should be granted. He commented that if he only knew what was in Berke's letter, he might favor the petition, but he knows more. He said that Berke did not mention that the Newton Centre Improvement Association had voted to contribute $1000 toward the memorial.

Mr. Allen agreed that the ice company property has been an eyesore for 8 years, but he asserted that the Aldermen have had the power to compel the removal of one part of the eyesore, the partly burned stable, and the ice company has allowed the property to remain an eyesore for 8 years, and has been asking the Aldermen to grant a filling station permit to remove an eyesore, which the ice company itself should have removed. He called attention to the fact that four similar petitions have been refused by the Aldermen, and that a stream of pedestrians from the Sacred Heart Church, which is located 500 feet away, regularly walk by the site of the proposed station. He read a letter sent to Bishop Richard Cushing to Alderman McKay, in which the Bishop said he was delighted to know that the permit for the gasoline station had not been granted, and expressed his hearty endorsement of the plan for the memorial park. In the letter Bishop Cushing stated that much pressure had been brought to bear on him to change his opinion that the gas station would be a hazard to pedestrians and automobile traffic, but he had refused to yield.

Mr. Allen said he had also been impressed at previous hearings on petitions for a gasoline station permit at this locus by strong objections made to the proposed station by an engineer and traffic expert—Steven Berke. He quoted statements made by Berke at various hearings, and which are on record in the City Clerk's office. On December 18, 1933, Berke said at City Hall—"I am a consulting engineer, and from an engineering and traffic point of view the location of a filling station—at that location is very dangerous. The street (Centre) has a considerable rise of grade and is also an approach to the railroad bridge. The site is also passed by hundreds of children on their way to and from the Mason, Weeks junior high and parochial schools." At a hearing on September 9, 1935 Berke again opposed the petition for a gas station and said—"The location is very unsuitable for a filling station."

PUBLIC DEMAND WILL BRING ACTION

At the hearing on Monday night before the Board of Aldermen on the matter of granting a permit for a gasoline station on the site of the old ice house at Crystal Lake there was a widespread and substantial public demand for the successful promotion of the proposed plan to create at that location a memorial park in honor of the late Samuel Francis Smith, author of "America." From the tactical standpoint it should be stated that there is nothing officially before the Board of Aldermen which would enable them to take action toward the development of such a proposal. The question before them is on the matter of the gas station. Inasmuch as similar petitions have been rejected on four previous occasions, and inasmuch as the voice of the protestants is as sincere as before and perhaps even stronger in its vehemence, it is quite probable that as a whole the Board of Aldermen has not changed its collective mind—and with the added possibility that the memorial park ultimately offers a desirable solution, the expected rejection may be given more summarily.

There are two proper and practical methods by which those who favor the memorial park may focus official action upon the determination of the problem whether or not such a solution is practical. First, if a group of those interested introduce a properly drawn petition to the Board of Aldermen asking that the city acquire by purchase title to the land involved it is quite possible that the present owners would not exact the "pound of flesh" which is sometimes sought by asking an exorbitant price. Secondly if the voice of public demand for the creation of a memorial park is sufficiently sincere and influential, it is the Mayor's prerogative to initiate action. As a helpful means toward that end it should be a simple matter for interested persons, particularly in the vicinity of the land in question, to have an official, semi-official, or even unofficial poll taken through the numerous churches and civic organizations, particularly in Newton Centre and Newton Highlands. In any event no action will be taken unless public demand insists upon it.

CITY FINANCES AND THE 1941 BUDGET

We recommend the attention of our readers to the address made by Mayor Goddard to the Board of Aldermen with reference to the 1941 budget and city finances in general. The Mayor points out that in Newton our problem is not one of radical revision and reduction in our expenditures, but rather one of making such expenditures wisely and from the point of view of meeting the demands of social and government service that are most necessary and desirable. It is pointed out that the bonded indebtedness of the city has been reduced more than a half million dollars, that the surplus account of $300,000 as at present is nearly double that of a year ago, and that departmental expenditures which reached their highest peak in 1939 with a figure over five million and a half, was lower in 1940 by some $125,000. Obviously the budget situation and city finances are in excellent shape despite the fact that the adoption of the two-platoon system in the fire department and the cost of snow removal has made it necessary to appropriate substantial sums prior to the adoption of the budget.

Another factor which always is one of considerable concern is in regard to the appropriation of additional funds after the budget has been adopted. With this situation also being given adequate attention through the adoption of an adequate budget with a reserve item for emergency expenditures there should be no cause for great concern. The outlook indicates that the forthcoming tax rate for the year will remain approximately at the figure of a year ago and that for another year, unless large emergency or defense appropriations become necessary, hope may well be given to a reduction.

A FAITHFUL EMPLOYEE

Until her retirement because of ill health about seven years ago, Mary A. L. Taaffe was a faithful employee of the Newton Graphic for more than thirty-five years. She has passed on. Though time has dimmed the recurring picture of her daily attention to the routine of office work, the recollection of her loyalty and faithfulness, her industry and sincerity, will ever remind us that these are the qualities to be most desired in a world in which they are all too frequently forgotten.

Powers' Paragraphs

A Boston newspaper has been featuring for the past six or seven weeks a series of articles describing well-known citizens and places in the communities comprising Greater Boston. About a month ago one of these articles dealt with Newton. Most of the persons referred to in that article have been prominent in the life of Newton, but a few mentioned have taken little or no active part in Newton affairs. We received a letter from one of Newton's oldest and best known residents, George J. Martin, in which he expressed regret that men like Frank L. Richardson, who have done so much for this city and its institutions, were not mentioned.

Mr. Martin also mentioned that one of Newton's outstanding attractions, "Echo Bridge," was not referred to. He said that this famous bridge, which carries the Sudbury aqueduct over the Charles River from the Needham side to Newton Upper Falls, has been famous for over 60 years all over the United States. Mr. Martin was so impressed by the beauty of this bridge and the many echoes it produces, that he adopted it as the trade mark for curtains he manufactured at West Newton for about 30 years. Every pair of curtains made in his plant at West Newton carried a ticket with a picture of Echo Bridge and a description of it. The millions of curtains produced in the Martin factory spread the fame of the attractive landmark at Upper Falls from Eastport, Maine, to San Diego, Calif. The tickets sent out with these curtains told the people of the United States and other countries that the bridge was built in 1876, is 475 feet long, has seven arches, and the principal arch is 129 feet in length and 79 feet above the river, which at this point passes through a natural gorge. On days when there is not much wind, 17 echoes follow after one shouts under this arch, and as many as 25 echoes have been heard there after a revolver shot. Mr. Martin comments that many residents of Newton do not appreciate Echo Bridge. If one desires to obtain an excellent view of this bridge and Hemlock Gorge, drive to the bridge over the river on the Worcester turnpike at the Newton-Wellesley line, and walk a hundred feet or so toward the gorge.

Miss Mary A. Taaffe, for over 35 years an employee of the Newton Graphic, passed from this life on February 16, following a long period of failing health. It was the writer's privilege to have been associated with Miss Taaffe for many years and we have met few persons who possessed such a high type of character as she. Her forthright and honorable, she was a real, Christian gentleman.

For 8 years we have listened repeatedly to hearings on petitions for the granting of a permit for a gasoline filling station on land at Centre st. and Norwood ave., Newton. This land was formerly the site of the Crystal Lake ice house, and was also occupied North of Norwood ave. by a large stable. Years ago both these buildings were burned and the owners of them collected the insurance thereon. Four times the Board of Aldermen promptly and unanimously refused to grant the petitions, obviously agreeing with the many objectors who had asserted repeatedly that the site of the proposed filling station would create a serious traffic hazard, not only to motor vehicles, but also to the many school children who daily pass the locus.

Last spring another petition was presented to the Board of Aldermen for the permit for the gasoline station at 1365 Centre st. Coupled with this petition was an alleged agreement that in return for the granting of the petition, the owners of the property, the Metropolitan Ice Company would agree to have their land which abuts Crystal Lake changed from a business to a residence zone. To the surprise of many Newton citizens a majority of the members of the Board of Aldermen, who had repeatedly refused to grant the previous petitions, voted to grant the one presented last year. And still more surprising it was, and to the consternation of the Aldermen, who have been and apparently still are determined to vote in favor of granting the petition, have repeatedly asserted that they believe in protecting the interests of churches located near sites of proposed gasoline stations, but who have not given much heed to the objection to the proposed station at 1365 Centre st., made by Bishop Cushing who is pastor of Sacred Heart Church nearby, and who is especially concerned about the safety of the children going to the school of his parish. Objections have also been made to the petition for the station permit by members of the Newton Centre Unitarian Church, which is also located nearby, and by Rev. Charles Arbuckle, pastor of the First Baptist Church. It is also difficult to understand why aldermen residing in other parts of Newton seem to persist in favoring the petition, when it is obvious that a large majority of the people of Newton Centre and Newton Highlands are opposed to the petition.

So far as we have been able to observe, the only argument offered by the Aldermen who have changed their attitude on this question is—that by granting the permit for a gasoline station at 1365 Centre st., the eyesore which has existed for years because of the debris on the site of the burned ice house, and the unsightly burned stable, will be removed provided a permit for the gasoline station is granted. If this is a good reason, why do some of the Aldermen who favor it so consistently, refuse to grant the repeated petitions of Frank Vincenzo for a permit to build a gasoline station on Washington st., at Cross st., West Newton? Vincenzo created an eyesore on his property, and offered to remove it provided he received a permit for a gasoline station. Of course, Vincenzo, who does not possess much influence, has been crude in his methods, and has acted as his own attorney.

We believe that a majority of the Board of Aldermen will vote without unnecessary delay to reject the present petition. We believe it behooves those members of the Board of Aldermen who still show a tendency to go through on the "trade" between the owners of the property involved and the Board of Aldermen, with a gasoline station as a pawn, to abandon this method, new in Newton, of being inveigled or influenced into granting a permit for a gasoline station, or granting a permit for any privilege on any consideration other than the merits of the matter involved.

If Japan and Britain go to war, or if Japan and the U. S. A. become involved in war, British and American property and lives may be destroyed by Japanese war equipment and munitions provided in recent years by Britain and the U. S. A.

Members of the Massachusetts Legislature voted this week by a large majority against the bill to establish a state lottery. This action was expected despite the fact that 71 per cent of the citizens on the 30 senatorial districts where a referendum on this question was on the ballot, voted in favor of it. However, if a majority of the citizens of Massachusetts display sufficient determination on the state lottery question, and organize to create such a lottery, most of the same Legislators who voted against the lottery bill, would vote for a similar bill promptly. While this state continues to legalize pari-mutuel gambling, we shall continue to advocate a state lottery. We believe that the profits from the gambling craze (or habit) should revert to the public and not to groups of individuals.

It is only a few months ago that over 90 per cent of the people of this country, from the President down, were asserting that they were absolutely opposed to this country becoming engaged in war. Now there are many vociferous persons in this U. S. A. clamoring to have this nation enter war not only in Europe, but also in the Far East. Are the inhabitants of this country fickle, or glib, or just stupid?

Kiwanis Club

Dr. Hermon Norton, who had been appointed by President Green of the Kiwanis Club to serve on the Newton Committee for Disaster and Defense, submitted an interesting report of the work of the committee in Newton up to the present time at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club held Tuesday noon, at the Newtonville Women's Club. Dr. Norton explained in detail how the Defense Committee had almost completed plans in Newton for defense or taking care of a major disaster. He emphasized the important work which the American Red Cross was doing in co-operating with the committee.

Mr. George Van Buskirk, Chairman of the Program Committee, announced that the speaker for next week would be a representative from the American Red Cross.

Mr. L. F. Perkins reported that the Marlboro Kiwanis Club had challenged the local club to a golf tournament next summer. It was voted unanimously to accept the challenge. Mr. James Riggs, Vice-President, is making plans for a Kiwanis Bowling League, which will be formed in the near future.

The speaker of the day, Mr. Carl Birmingham, of the Newton High School faculty, was introduced by President Green, principal of the Newton High School. Mr. Birmingham took for his subject, "After School, What?" He explained that he had had experience in guiding a placement bureau in Newton since about 1907. He called attention to the fact that literally hundreds of graduates of the Newton High School had received positions through this work. He feels that teachers who are thoroughly acquainted with the students when they graduate are often in a position to be especially helpful in suggesting the kind of work which pupils are best equipped to handle. Mr. Birmingham said that last year there were 751 graduates of the Newton High School, of which 449 had gone to college, eight were now in the military service, and 204 were working. The balance were either at home or unaccounted for. Of this number, 70 were placed in positions through the placement work which Mr. Birmingham is directing. Mr. Birmingham urged all business men in Newton or those with businesses in Boston but who lived in Newton to contact him whenever they had any positions open for high school graduates.

Mayor Addresses Aldermen On City Finances

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night Mayor Paul Goddard delivered the following address to the Board in conjunction with submitting his budget recommendations for 1941.

"Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen: The annual budget for the current expenses of the City is submitted to you this evening, and with your kind permission I shall on this occasion present a very brief report of our finances for the year 1940, together with some elaboration of the budget which is now before you for consideration.

"Here in Newton, for the present at least, our financial problem is primarily one of wise expenditure, rather than one calling for radical revision of expenses in either direction. Consequently a discriminating financial judgment is called for on the part of all of us charged with the allocation and spending of the City's funds. It is our civic responsibility to properly gauge the social value of the services which government renders.

"Some figures concerning last year's operations should be of interest although it is obviously impossible to present a complete financial report in this short budget message. The bonded indebtedness of the City, exclusive of water debt, on January 1, 1940, was $5,709,000, and on January 1, 1941, it was $5,185,000. This shows a reduction of $524,000 during the last fiscal year. During the year the water debt was reduced from $619,000 to $606,000—not a large reduction, but a definite reversal of the constantly increasing debt of the last few years. We are still making necessary capital improvements in our water system, and last year used some of the water revenue for this purpose.

"At the beginning of last year the water surplus amounted to $81,882.97. It is now $107,931.27, an increase of $26,048.30. At the same time a year ago the general surplus amounted to $156,000. It is now $300,491.58, a substantial increase for the year of $144,491.58. During 1940 nearly one-half of the existing surplus at the end of 1939 had to be used to set up reserves for tax titles covering the two years of 1938 and 1939. This, however, brought our finances up to date, and makes the existing surplus of $300,491.58 the more impressive. Departmental expenditures in 1940 amounted to $5,392,076.67, which was $125,343.70 less than the all time high of $5,517,420.37 reached in 1939. Included in these figures are amounts expended from U. S. Grants in the Welfare Department which are not a part of the tax levy. In addition, there were bills in our 1940 expenditures which had been carried over from 1939. Taking these factors into consideration our actual operating costs during 1940 were enough lower than 1939 to entirely take care of the one dollar increase in the tax rate last year, and have enabled us to add substantially to our surplus at this time. This departmental expenditures which had been steadily mounting for the previous four years were definitely stopped and substantially reduced last year. The additional expense which is mandatory by the vote for the two-platoon system will necessarily greatly increase expenditures in the fire department for this coming year, but we can be hopeful that economies throughout the city will partially offset this increase.

"Last year we included a reserve fund in the budget and appropriated from this fund throughout the year for those expenditures which could not be foreseen at the time the budget was passed. In thus providing a reserve fund from which subsequent appropriations could be made, the savings in operating expenses effected throughout the year were returned to our surplus account. "Revisions in the Mayor's original budget recommendations were made last year because of the unusual expenses incurred by the severe February storm; and by reason of additional amounts for W. P. A. Projects and the reserve fund. The appropriations recommended in this year's budget together with appropriations already made or recommended are actually less than those revised recommendations of last year. Before the year is over, however, the City may be called upon to make appropriations for emergency defense plans.

"The budget includes salary recommendations exactly as submitted to me by the department heads, and are not my final recommendations. I am sure that your Board has worked for several weeks upon an approved salary schedule for the various departments, and final disposition with reference to salaries will be made after further consultation between the committee, the department heads, and the Mayor.

"The form and arrangement of the School Department budget has been changed this year and is the result of extended work on the part of school officials and the School Committee. All the details of the expenditures in the School Department have been adequately and completely presented for your consideration. "We have definitely controlled our finances for the past year, and minute care in this respect must be exercised in the year ahead. We all know that this can be done only with the help and co-operation of all. The citizens of Newton will sincerely appreciate, I am sure, the contribution on which all have made toward this end. The members of your Honorable Board, the School Committee, Department Heads, and members of the City Government have all contributed to the financial progress we have made during 1940. I respectfully request for our citizens your continued vigilance, and helpful, sympathetic co-operation in the problems ahead."

Letters To The Editor

ZONING CHANGES

February 19, 1941.

Editor of the Graphic,

Dear Sir:

Recently your paper printed the situation as it developed in the passing by the Board of Aldermen of the proposed changes in the zoning ordinance of the City of Newton. Some comment was made from time to time about the activity of the Newton Real Estate Board in connection with the hearings on these proposed changes.

As chairman of the Newton Board, I would appreciate your publishing this letter in order that no misunderstanding may have been left in the minds of your reading public regarding the attitude of the Newton Board.

Last April, when the notice of the first hearing was made public, a group representing the Chamber of Commerce, the Newton Bankers' Association, and the Newton Real Estate Board met on two different occasions and discussed these proposed changes. The feeling of that group, as reported by its chairman, was that the proposed changes in a general way were felt to be desirable, but that further study should be given to the details of the plan.

At a fall meeting of the Newton Real Estate Board several of its members felt that certain of the proposed changes were too drastic, and should for the benefit of the city as a whole be modified. Aldermen Walker and Rawson met with us at a later meeting of the Board, explained the changes, and helped to crystallize the ideas of the members of the Board. As a result, hearings on the proposed changes were attended by the chairman and several members of the Newton Board, and suggestions for modification of the proposed changes made, especially as such changes applied to properties embracing one acre or less, for it was here that many of us felt the greater loss, confusion, and injustice would arise.

At no time has the attitude of the Newton Board been other than that of a desire to be of help to the city in the settling of this zoning question. If, as one of the Aldermen stated in an issue of THE GRAPHIC, a real estate broker asked him to oppose the changes because said broker's commissions would be less, the Newton Board wishes to make it clear that said broker in no way reflects the attitude of the members of the Newton Board. The Newton Board is interested in the welfare of the city and stands ready at any time to offer its services in any way that may be of help to the city.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS V. CLEVELAND,
Chairman of the Newton Board.

Discuss Savings Bank Life Insurance Changes

Ten neighboring banks were represented at a meeting held recently in the Trustees' Room of the Newton Savings Bank. The meeting was presided over by Francis L. Buswell, Treasurer of the Newton Savings Bank, and a discussion on recent changes in the system was conducted by Ralph S. E. Sanguinetti, Manager of the Life Insurance Department.

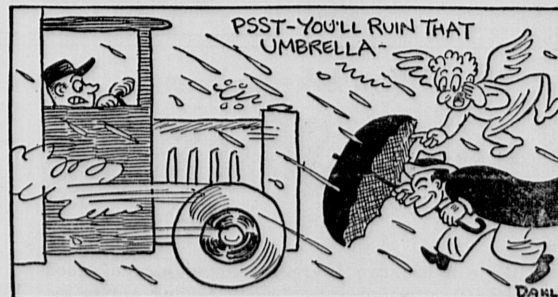

A letter from Mr. Everett N. Hatch, now Executive Secretary of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council in New York, and formerly Manager of the Life Insurance Department of the bank here in Newton, was read. Mr. Hatch's letter referred to the growth of Savings Bank Life Insurance in New York where already over $12,000,000 of insurance has been written. His letter further stated that there were 20 banks in the system and that data compiled from their records shows that more than 50 per cent of those applying for Savings Bank Life have incomes of less than $30 per week, while over 90 per cent have incomes of less than $50 a week. In other words, its greatest appeal is to salary and wage earners with moderate incomes.

The Cronin woman reported to the police that she did not see the boy and his nurse until her car was about 20 feet away from them, and that she swerved the automobile to the right in an effort to avoid hitting them.

Sergeant Thomas Leehan of the Newton police department was hit on Saturday afternoon while crossing Watertown st. at Chapel st., Nonantum, by a car driven by Ernest Gibson, 18, of Fair Oaks ave., Newtonville. ## Arrested For Accosting Women

Raymond V. Purdy, 24 of 67 Court st., Newtonville, was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday on charges which resulted from complaints made by young women whom he had allegedly accosted and annoyed. According to the complaints, Purdy, a member of the Naval Aviation Reserve, who has been on duty at Squantum, had driven in his car to the vicinity of Park and Vernon sts., Newton, stopped the automobile, and then asked young women to direct him to some street. He would then invite the girl to ride with him toward that street, in the direction in which she was walking. Purdy's case was continued until Thursday.

Ash Wednesday Union Service At Newton Centre

A special Union Ash Wednesday Service will be held in the First Church in Newton, corner Centre and Homer sts., Newton Centre, under the auspices of the Baptist, Methodist, Episcopal, Unitarian and Congregational Churches on Wednesday, February 26, at 7:45 p. m.

The special significance of this service lies in the fact that Dr. Gaius Glenn Atkins who is the author this year of the Fellowship of Prayer, a Lenten devotional manual which is used very widely throughout Protestantism, will be the preacher of the evening and will give a background for the use of these Lenten devotions.

Dr. Atkins originally intended to be a lawyer, but after graduating from law school he turned toward teaching and became the head of the History Department at Mount Hermon. Subsequently he was ordained to the Congregational ministry and held pastorates at Greenfield, Massachusetts; Burlington, Vermont; Detroit, Michigan; Providence, Rhode Island; and then was called back to the First Congregational Church in Detroit.

In 1927 he was called to be Professor of Homiletics and Sociology at Auburn Theological Seminary, a position which he held until two years ago. He is the author of several books and has been a frequent contributor to various magazines and has been in great demand throughout the country as a preacher and lecturer.

It is considered particularly fortunate that on the day that millions of people throughout the country will begin to use the material which he has prepared for Lent he himself should be available for the people of Newton.

The music at this service will be under the direction of Mr. D. Ralph Maclean.

Rotary Club

Our speaker, Mr. Chester Dilbridge, of the Air Reduction Company gave a talk on "Air in Industry" which proved not only very entertaining but very educational. Liquid oxygen used in the experiments is obtained by constantly compressing air until all the heat is extracted, thus getting a liquid form of air which is a good deal colder than cold.

Air is a mixture of seven or eight different distinct elements, all gases, of which nitrogen constitutes about 78% and oxygen about 21%. These gases are all unfriendly in that they do not combine readily with other elements. Mr. Dilbridge showed many commercial applications of these elements, such as in the manufacture of nylon, in the food industry, in the electric lamp industry and in oxy-acetylene cutting and welding. All other gases in air are inert except oxygen and nitrogen.

The speaker demonstrated how it is impossible to cap or retain liquid oxygen permanently, one factor which makes it excessively expensive. Some day a container may be devised which can hold these gases.

Colby Fights Bill For Low Rates At County Hospitals

A hearing was held at the State House last Friday before the Committee on Counties on a bill which would legalize the flat charge of $15.00 per day to towns and cities for patients in State and county hospitals in this Commonwealth. Representative Clarence Colby of Newton appeared at the hearing to lead the opposition against the bill. He told the committee of the investigation he made as a member of the Finance Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen in 1939 and 1940 concerning the cost of financing the Middlesex County T. B. Hospital at Waltham.

This investigation was made after Newton Aldermen had realized that some cities and towns in Middlesex County (including Newton) had been paying much more than their share to support the hospital, while other cities and towns had been paying much less than their share. The Newton Aldermen learned that while the per diem charge for patients at the Middlesex County Hospital was only $15.00, the actual cost per patient was about $3. The County Commissioners had been raising the deficit by assessing Newton and other municipalities with high valuations in proportion to such valuation. The State law specifies that the per diem cost for patients shall be based on the actual cost. As a result of a protest made by the Newton Aldermen, Middlesex County Commissioners last year raised the charge to $17.50 per day, and this will result in Newton's assessment for the cost of maintaining the hospital being $5000 less this year than it was in 1940.

The bill to which Representative Colby objected was introduced by commissioners of the various counties, specified that the charge for the support of patients in State and county hospitals shall be $10.50 per week, where such payment is made by any city or town where the patient has a legal settlement. The Committee on Counties reported adversely on the bill, and the report of the committee was accepted by the House of Representatives at the session of the Legislature on Monday.

Set House Fire While Drunk; Not Guilty of Arson

Wallace Gould, 22, of 11 Midvale st., West Roxbury was arraigned in the Newton court last Friday on charges of drunkenness, disturbing the peace and arson. Francis Blaisdell of 46 Newbury st., Newton Centre, testified that while a party was in progress at his home shortly before 1 a. m. on February 9, he went into the cellar of his home to attend to the furnace. Gould followed him, ignited a piece of paper and threw it onto some rubbish, setting fire to kindling wood. When Blaisdell tried to extinguish the fire by shovelling ashes onto the flames, Gould took the shovel away from him. Inspector Deady of the State Fire Marshal's office testified that Gould was interviewed by him, stated he did not remember setting the fire, but did remember taking the shovel away from Blaisdell.

Judge Mayberry found Gould not guilty of arson, fined him $50 for disturbing the peace, and $10 for drunkenness. Gould's attorney protested that the fine was too heavy. The judge replied that Gould was getting off lightly.

"Liberty

is a plant of rapid growth"

—George Washington

On Saturday, we celebrate the two hundred and eighth anniversary of George Washington's birth. The nation is aroused to the defense of American liberty. It is a challenge which calls for a spirited national unity if we are to preserve our most cherished heritage, a free America.

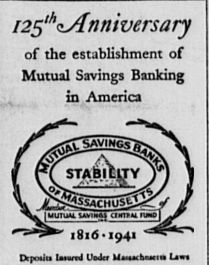

The Constitution guarantees your rights of citizenship. But the responsibility of achieving your own financial independence rests squarely with you.

For two out of every three citizens in Massachusetts, a savings account in a Mutual Savings Bank is the very corner-stone of independence.

The first Mutual Savings Bank in America was founded in Boston in 1816. Today there are 192 of these banks serving every section of the state. Their record for safety is unexcelled by any other banking system. They offer safety and earning power for savings and assistance to home owners through a time tested mortgage plan.

Start an account at your nearest Mutual Savings Bank. Save something each week and see how the savings habit, when it takes root, will also be "a plant of rapid growth."

"TUCK YOUR CAR IN"
at night?

Not if it's One of these Four New Additions to the Buick SPECIAL Line that Compact Automobile Bigness into Fewer Bumper-to-Bumper Inches

HERE of late the modern automobile has been giving a pretty good imitation of a man getting up in the morning.

It has stretched and s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-d—until today you almost have to have a shoehorn to get a car of any size tucked away in the family garage.

We thought something ought to be done about that.

Thought it was time someone built a truly

big car—big in ability, in room, in beauty—that was still compact enough, bumper to bumper, to fit your garage without dispossessing the garden tools.

So today in Buick dealers' showrooms you'll see four new models, additions to the 1941 Buick SPECIAL line.

They are typical Buicks on every count—trigger-quick, steady, tireless travelers with a big 115-hp. Buick FIREBALL straight-eight under their bonnets.

They dress every mile you travel in trim Buick style—cradle every yard of distance on soft all-coil springing. They top off every trip with an even greater measure of gasoline economy, thread traffic with a new nimbleness, and when it comes to parking find the proverbial dime roomy as a dance floor.

But by the simple step of compacting all this ability, goodness and value on a 118-inch wheelbase, we've trimmed inches off the over-all length—and dollars off the cost.

We're passing those dollar savings on to you, which makes three reasons for going to see these honeys now: You'll go for their ability—your wife will go for trim size and easy handling—and both will stand up and cheer for the easily-reachable price.

Newton Six Shuts
Out Rindge To Hold
Second to Melrose

By shutting out Rindge Tech, 2 to 0, in the final hockey game of the season Newton High clinched second place in the Greater Boston Interscholastic League standing. Needing only a tie game to hold onto second Coach Evan Johnson's crew turned back the engineers and tumbled them back into fourth place as Stoneham jumped into third position by knocking off the championship Melrose sextet, 3 to 2.

Coach Johnson's squad weakened by the loss of goalie Bill McKenna and reserve goalie Bill Ormsby was aided materially by the return of Guy Monroe to a defense position. Early in the season Monroe was a standout for the Newton team and had been eligible throughout the season the orange and black might have had a better chance of turning in the needed wins to keep abreast of Melrose. In fact the Melrose defeat would have given the locals a chance to finish in a tie if they had beaten Arlington and Cambridge Latin in the week previous to the final games. In such a case both Newton and Melrose would have wound up the season with 23 points each.

Coach Johnson used Jayvee goalie Jasset in the nets with Threadgill as a reserve and this pair, with Monroe and Joe Beatty on defense in front of them handled the Rindge attack faultlessly. Monroe incidentally figured in both of Newton's goals delivering a scoring pass to Stan Collison in the first period at 8:50 with the Newton wing putting Newton out in front. In the third period after six and a half minutes of play Monroe took a slap from teammate Ellingwood and passed the puck into the cage with a resounding spin. The puck bounced out again causing a loud but futile protest on the part of the Rindge team when the goal was allowed.

At various times during the game Coach Johnson used a number of spare players who will be available for next year's squad in order to get a better line on their capabilities.

It is a course in child care given by a graduate nurse, Mrs. Gregg of the Newton Hospital staff. It will be described at greater length in next week's column.

Thrilling Overtime
Brings Waltham Win
Over Newton FiveFoul As Gun Barks
Gives Skakle Chance to Make Tying Shot

Losing a thrill-packed overtime game to Waltham in a 24 to 20 struggle the Newton High basketball team ended its season last Friday night at the high school gym. Leading by one point as the timer's gun was about to bark ending the regulation game and with Don Skakle of Waltham headed for the basket on a fast-breaking dribble the Waltham ace fouled a fraction of a second before free shot by referee Tom Newell. Midst the tension of a pent-up rival crowd of spectators Skakle coolly and carefully tossed the ball through the strings for the tying tally at 20-all. A three minute overtime session was called and away Waltham went with George Norton, Watch City centre, clinching the verdict with two baskets.

Employing an orthodox zone defense during the first two periods the Newton defenders forced Waltham to shoot from the double lines with Captain Dick Bennett of Waltham showing an accurate eye that gave the Newton team a slight margin. Newton's Bob Beatty after Tom Devlin kept the locals in the game aided by the effective passwork of Captain Phil Teschner. At the end of the first quarter Waltham led 7 to 5.

The second session saw Waltham take a lead of 11 to 6 but Newton came back with two baskets and a foul shot to one more for the Watch City crew to make it 13 to 11 at half time.

Resorting to a three-two defense in the second half the orange and black tied up the visitors effectively in the third period as the long-distance shooters lost their accuracy of the early minutes of the game. Each team scored but two points in the third period.

The fourth regulation period was a thriller. Waltham scored to make it 17 to 13 but Newton came back with two quick scores from close to the basket to tie it up.

Joe Doherty tossed in the first of these two vitally important baskets and Bob Beatty evened the count at 17-all. Newton's ace forward, who played a brilliant game, found the strings again to give Newton a lead for the first time in the game. Petrovitch sent one cleanly through the strings to even things up for the visitors and then Doherty drew a free throw which he made good to give Newton a 20 to 19 edge with but a minute to go. Employing a passing game at its own end of the floor Newton seemed to have victory within its grasp but a pass got away from a Newton defender. Breaking away fast Skakle picked up the ball on a quick dribble and was off for the Waltham basket with Captain Phil Teschner the only Newton player having a chance to stop the Waltham forward. Making a brilliant bid to break up the dribble without fouling the Newton captain couldn't avoid a slight contact and Referee Newell's whistle blew almost simultaneously with the firing timer's gun while the ball went sailing off into the spectators. The referee's finger held aloft signalled one free shot as Newton's supporters broke loose and the band glared forth in the belief Newton had edged the invaders. Finally the situation was realized and things quieted down as the spectators returned to their seats while Skakle awaited the referee's signal to shoot. As coolly as a cake of ice the Waltham forward surveyed the basket, then flared his arms and swung the ball cleanly through the net to deadlock the score.

Tall George Norton, got the tap-off at centre and Waltham controlled the ball for almost a minute before Norton, finding the Newton defense impregnable, got set and let one go from the double lines which swished the basket neatly to put Waltham two points up. Newton fought back gamely but the visitors regained possession of the ball late in the second minute of the three minute extra session and again Norton scored to clinch the verdict.

SPORT NOTES

Captains Harvard Freshmen

John Eusden of Newton was elected captain of the Harvard freshman swimming team before their meet with the Dartmouth yearlings last Saturday. Eusden attended Rivers School in Brookline and this is his first season on an organized swimming team.

MacKinnon Anchors Relay

Don MacKinnon, former Newton High track champion hurdler, is running anchor on the Harvard varsity mile relay quartet, which was defeated by Yale in the annual indoor dual meet last Saturday.

Burke Plays Good Game

Goalie Bernie Burke of the Boston College High team turned in a great game last Saturday against Walpole to enable his team to end in a 2 to 2 deadlock with Walpole High. Burke is the son of Bernard M. Burke, Newton druggist. With the league's leading scorer, Ed Songin, striving to add to his season's total, bearing in on him Burke turned him some uncanny saves. On three different occasions Burke repulsed Songin alone to remind many spectators of Frankie Brimsek.

French and Monroe
To Co-Captain 1942
High School Sextet

Charlie French and Guy Monroe, defense players on the 1941 Newton High school varsity hockey team have been elected to co-captain the 1942 sextet. The election took place on Wednesday at a meeting of the lettermen of the 1941 squad when the team picture was taken. At the opening of the season Monroe and Joe Beatty were named to the starting positions on defense by Coach Evan Johnson. A few weeks later Beatty was moved to a forward position and French took over. For a few games the pair worked well together and materially aided the team in holding down rival scoring. Subsequently the vicissitudes of the season with illness, ineligibility, and the like made it necessary for Coach Johnson to use various combinations on the defense with Beatty taking over again in Monroe's place. Last week Monroe returned to action and teamed with French with the result that the team scored its first shutout in many games. With Jasset in the nets as a regular next year in place of the graduated Bill McKenna, the Newton mentor should have little cause to worry over the defense.

Y Tracksters Win
Quadrangular Meet

The Newton Y track team swept a quadrangular track meet at the Newton Y. M. C. A. last Saturday night, scoring a total of 48 points. This total surpassed the combined efforts of the three other competing teams by two points. Brockton finished second with 24 points, Lawrence third with 15 and Boston fourth with 4.

The local runners and field event athletes won six of the eight places. Walsh was the only double winner, scoring firsts in the 20-yard dash and the 300-yard run. Other first place winners for Newton were Arthur Linthwaite in the 600, Connell in the two-mile, Swyn in the high jump and Stewart in the three standing broad jumps. Stewart also placed second in the shotput. Cheevey of Newton scored in three events taking third in the dash, third in the 1000-yard run, and fourth in the 600-yard run. O'Connor placed fourth in the 1000, Me fourth in the two-mile, and Stroum third in the shotput for other Newton points. Joe Gallant, former Newton High and Northeastern University track star, running for the Boston Y placed third in the two-mile.

Newton Track Team
Ties For Fourth
In Andover Meet

Scoring in five of the nine events Newton High tallied 11 points in the annual Andover Interscholastics last Saturday to wind up in a fourth place tie with Medford High. Lowell captured first place with 26 points over the favored Mechanics Arts outfit with 24½ points. Rindge Tech with 17½ placed third. Mechanics Arts was endeavoring to complete a grand slam of schoolboy events of the season, having captured the Northeastern and State meets previously but was prevented from winning at Andover when Malley, anchor man of the relay team, took a spill along with Kennedy of Rindge but the latter recovered quickly enough to reach the tape first but both Rindge and Mechanics time was slowed up at least five seconds.

Reversing its usual procedure Newton scored most of its points in the field events with Phil Walsh getting the only second with a toss of 44 ft. 7½ inches. Captain Elliot Mover's tie with Williams of Lynn English for third in the high jump at 5 ft. 9 inches gave the orange and black 1½ points while Norman Hale's fourth in the broad jump added still another point. Hale's best leap 9 ft. 5½ inches was several inches shy of his efforts in previous meets. The event was won by Lew Watkins of Mechanics Arts with 9 ft. 9 inches whereas Hale and Watkins tied for the state meet honors at 9 ft. 10 inches. The only running event outside of the relay in which Newton scored was the 1,000 yard run where Ted Woods hung up two points with a third place. Woods was in the seeded final heat among John Malley of Mechanics, Toohy of Lowell and Kennedy of Cambridge Latin. Toohy jumped into the lead with Malley back in the rack in the rear. The Mechanics' runner worked his way up fast on the first lap to take over the lead and win the heat by ten yards. Woods had meanwhile worked into second but over the last lap Toohy closed up and coming off the last bank his dying spurt gave him second by a whisker. Kennedy finished fourth and the four runners posted the best times of the day to divide the points. The remainder of Newton's points, ¾, came in the relay race where the orange and black quartet finished fourth, largely because of Mechanics' difficulties. The Newton quartet was comprised of Charles Hyde, Harry Greenwood, Raymond Hunting, and George Thompson. Newton raced Lynn English in the third heat and won from their rivals in the time of 2m. 26.6s, about five seconds better than their opponents.

Several other Newton athletes competed in their favorite events but failed to place. George Thomas took second in the third trial heat in the hurdles but found the field in the semi-finals for second place men too fast. Hunting was second to Kolesnik of Lowell in the last heat of the 300 being clocked in 36.8s, a fraction of a second away from a qualifying time. Bill Rangnow, running in the final and seeded heat of the 600-yard run, finished fourth in his heat in 1m. 24.4s, which was .2s away from fourth in the award of places on best times. Rangnow's time was tied with that of Turpin of Malden for fifth best. ## —Gas Station station because of the grades; the approach to the Centre street bridge is 5 per cent, a steep grade which precludes the view from people coming along Centre st. Also, there is no sidewalk across the street from what would be this service station, therefore the only means for a pedestrian to walk, would be alongside the gasoline station. Third, the station would be directly in the line of traffic of the school children going to the Mason School, the parochial school and the Weeks Junior High School.

At the hearing on a petition for a gas station permit at the locus, held on November 15, 1937, Berke again appeared to protest and said he had with him about 60 letters of protest from people living around Crystal Lake. At another hearing held on June 20, 1938, Berke again protested against the petition, and said he had nearly as many letters from objectors as he had at the previous hearing. On that night he filed 29 letters of protest. Allen said he is at a loss to know how this locus which Berke repeatedly had characterized as so unsafe, had so changed that at the hearing last April, Berke reversed his attitude and favored the granting of a permit for the station. Allen said that on that night Berke included his name in a list of 22 letters which Berke stated he had received favoring the then petition. Allen said he would like to see that letter, as he had never favored the granting of a permit for a station at the locus.

Mr. Allen said that we do not know whether or not a memorial to Rev. S. F. Smith will be created at the former ice company property, and he hoped the aldermen will not be swayed by this "red herring" dragged across the trail. He said the aldermen have been asked to grant a permit for a gas station for a price, for a bribe. He admonished them to do what they did four times before, consider the case on its merits, and turn the petition down. He characterized the 90 days proposition as ridiculous, and asked what is to stop the ice company from asking $50,000 for the property. He recalled that in 1895 school children from all over the country paid a national tribute to Dr. Smith, and he predicted that the cost of a memorial can be met by nationwide subscriptions.

James Waters of Janet rd., speaking for Mary Waters, an abuttor, objected to the petition. He said that the Chiefs of the Police and Fire Departments and the Street Commissioner all have asserted the locus is dangerous for use as a gasoline station. He said there should be no business near Crystal Lake, one of the city's beauty spots. He said there is no doubt but contributions from old and young who have sung "America" will be received for the proposed memorial. Otis Fellows, vice-president of the Newton Centre Improvement Association, speaking for himself, objected to the petition. He said there has been agitation for 10 years to have a park on the ice company land, and the city has been remiss in not honoring Dr. Smith. He said that even though it would cost $50,000 to create the memorial, this would mean only 15 cents on the tax rate if the city paid the cost, and this patriotic shrine should be created even if the children have to contribute. Alderman Fahey questioned Mr. Fellows relative to the $1000 promised contribution from the Newton Center Improvement Association, and was told that it was the executive committee which had acted on this matter.

Norman Hall, president of the Oak Hill Improvement Association, said the executive board of that body will co-operate in any drive for the memorial. William F. Coan of 15 Forest st., said that the Newton Center Unitarian Society is definitely against any gasoline station at 1365 Centre st. M. John Barry of Irving st., speaking as a parishioner of Sacred Heart Church, said a gas station at 1365 Centre st. would be a definite hazard to the people and children of that church. Warren B. Kennedy of 39 Columbus st., president of the Newton Highlands Improvement Association, said that body had voted unanimously against the petition for the station. Elizabeth Wooley of 63 Hyde st., a landscape architect, said a gasoline station near Crystal Lake would not only be a safety hazard, but also a hazard to the lake itself because of drainage. Hugh Walker of Locksley rd., told of automobiles being parked along both sides of Centre st., while services are held in Sacred Heart Church, there is a large amount of foot traffic along that street, and the 30 mile speed limit is not observed.

Rabbi Samuel Sherman of Temple Emanuel said that the only persons who had spoken in favor of the petition were the two attorneys, representing the ice company and the gasoline company and Mr. Berke. He said that the Atlantic Refining Company does a national business, and it would be excellent from an advertising standpoint to buy the property and donate it as a memorial. Rabbi Sherman said that we have heard the objections to the gas station based on its physical danger to children, and we should also consider their spiritual side. He said if the Aldermen sell Newton down the river by granting the permit for the gasoline station, I would say "Shame on these people." He predicted that the children of America will provide contributions to establish the memorial to Dr. Smith. Herbert Kellaway of the Newton Planning Board said that if the aldermen grant the permit, Newton will be going backward. Charles J. Bailey of Lake ave. said that last year some people were influenced in favor of the petition because they were told it is the only way to clean up the mess on the ice company property, but none of the residents of Lake ave. with whom he had talked favor a gas station at 1365 Centre st.

John K. Gowen, Jr., of Lake ave. said he had been misrepresented at the hearing on the petition last year when he was listed as one of those favoring a permit for the gas station. He said he only favored the cleaning up of the debris at the ice company property. Irving Paul of Centre st. called attention to traffic signs near the site of the proposed station urging motorists to drive carefully. City Clerk Grant read letters from Rev. Vaughan Dabney, dean of Andover-Newton Theological School, and Rev. Charles N. Arbuckle, pastor of the First Baptist Church, both strongly objecting to any permit for a gasoline station, and praising the plan for the memorial to Dr. Smith.

terest is to have a Europe that does not go to war every twenty years. By this he does not mean that we would go to war but that we should aid Britain as much as possible. He believes that the entire sympathies of the United States are with Great Britain and backs up this statement by stating that nobody testifying before the Foreign Affairs Committee has said they wanted Hitler to win. Mr. Davis thinks a Federation of the United States, England and Europe unnecessary and unwise. However, he advises that we should promote a Federation in Europe, and also the rebirth of democracy, as much as we can. According to Mr. Davis most of the people of Europe desire democracy.

In closing Mr. Davis said that we must have an emotional drive here to have something worthwhile which we believe in to advance and to contribute to the world. He used a comparison of Walter Edmonds, which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, in which the United States is compared to an eagle, it is nothing when perched but magnificent when on the wing. He thinks that

An interesting question period followed Mr. Davis' talk in which many questions pertaining to the news of the day as well as to the future were asked. The meeting was closed by Dr. Mather who thanked Mr. Davis for his excellent talk.

Dr. Mather asked for more subscribers for next year. Unless the quota of seven hundred and fifty subscriptions are reached the Forum may not be able to continue its work next year. Those who wish to subscribe were asked to leave their names or get in touch with Mr. Walter Taylor, the Executive Secretary. The combined Girls' Glee Clubs of the four Newton Junior High Schools gave a recital before the meeting was opened and the hundred girls grouped on the stage were enthusiastically applauded by the large audience.

In the Fire Department budget the Mayor refused to recommend two more Lieutenants and ten additional firemen asked for by Chief Randlett. These men would have gone on duty April 1 if the Chief's request were granted. Welfare Director Reynolds did not ask for the salary increase recommended by the Mayor. The Library trustees asked that Librarian Lucht's salary be increased from $4100 to $4500, but the Mayor did not concur.

Numerous cuts were made by the Mayor from the budget recommendations made by the Street Department. Maintenance of streets was cut from $100,000 to $87,500; street cleaning from $50,000 to $48,000; maintenance of property from $12,000 to $9500; resurfacing of streets from $25,000 to $10,000; new sidewalks from $4000 to $2500; new equipment from $75,525 to $24,015; collection of rubbish from $100,000 to $93,000; care of trees from $25,000 to $20,000; new trees from $8000 to $5000; traffic signal construction from $20,052 to $6400.

Water Commissioner Murray asked for a salary increase from $4500 to $4500. The Mayor did not approve this request.

Object to Edison Poles on Street

Protests by George Johnson and other residents of Brae Burn rd., Auburndale, against the placing of 5 poles on that street by the Edison Company, resulted in Street Commissioner Haughey asking the Aldermen at the meeting of the Board on Monday night to postpone action on granting a permit for the poles, until further study has been made of this matter. The poles are needed to carry wires for street lights. The petition of the Edison Company for a permit to erect one pole on Marshall st., Newton Centre was objected to in letters received from William Scott and Samuel Emery. The Edison Company wants the pole to improve operating conditions by filling a gap now on that street.

Our Lady High Wins Divisional Basketball Title

Meets Lynn Tomorrow Night In Playoff Game

The Our Lady High school basketball team, staging a three-game winning streak down the home stretch of the Catholic league race in the southern division, captured divisional honors over St. Mary's high of Waltham as the Watch City team faded, losing its final two games. A week ago St. Mary's held a half-game margin over the Newton team, having played one more game. By topping Mission high, 25 to 17, it looked as though the Waltham team had practically clinched the verdict when St. Patrick's high of Waltham nosed out Our Lady high in a 32-30 affair.

Last Saturday the Our Lady high five hit the come-back trail taking St. John's into camp, 42 to 21, and leaving the locals still a full game behind their Waltham rivals. In a Sunday affair St. Charles' nipped St. Mary's by a one-point margin, 25-24, in a hectic struggle, giving Our Lady high a chance to even things up. In its second meeting against the cellar occupants, St. John's, the Our Lady crew turned in another one-sided win, 44 to 24, to move into a first-place tie with St. Mary's, each having a 9 to 2 rating, and each having one more game to play with St. Mary's of Brookline.

The two St. Mary's teams met on Tuesday and the Brookline five emerged victorious, 26 to 19 and providing an opportunity for the Our Lady High team to reach their goal with a victory and assuring the locals of at least a tie even in defeat. On Wednesday the Newton five journeyed to Brookline with a do or die spirit and downed the home team 30 to 25 in a thrilling game. Walter Gegan was the star for Our Lady High with 12 points followed by Captain Marco Marion with 9 points. This pair, together with Kinchla at centre have been standouts for Our Lady throughout the season.

Winning divisional honors in its division makes Our Lady High eligible to play St. Mary's of Lynn, winner of the northern division, in a playoff series to determine the Catholic league's representative in the annual New England Catholic tournament at the Boston Arena on March 14, 15 and 16. The opening game in the playoff series will be held Saturday night at Our Lady High gym, Rev. Russell T. Haley, faculty manager, announced yesterday. The second game in the series will be played at Lynn on Monday night and if a third game is necessary it will be played on a neutral floor. The winner automatically is entered in the New England tournament. The loser will meet the winner of a playoff series between the runner-up teams in each division in a single game to be the second league team in the tournament. The two league teams and the six other best teams in New England will compete for the Cardinal O'Connell trophy.

Huge Truck Hits New House at Lower Falls

A 16 ton trailer truck went out of control on Washington st., near Beacon st., Lower Falls, about 12:40 a. m. Tuesday, knocked over a police signal box, travelled across the filled-in area where the gravel pit was formerly located, grazed the front steps of a new house at 2151 Washington st., rolled across the soft, newly graded yard, crashed through a garage attached to the new house at 2159 Washington st., and plunged through the partition separating the garage from the kitchen of the house. Police were notified of the crash and Sergeant Sullivan with Patrolmen Condrin and Elliot went to the scene.

They found the huge truck enclosed in the wrecked house, but its driver was missing. They communicated with the Seaboard Freight Lines of Boston, owners of the truck, and were informed that the driver was James O'Connor, 45, of 241 River st., Cambridge. Thinking that the driver might have been dazed in the crash, the police searched the gravel pit area but found no trace of him. The owner of the damaged residence, which was built last year, and which was unoccupied, is G. W. Robinson of Arlington. He was notified and had the wrecked part of the building boarded up.

O'Connor came to Newton police headquarters on Wednesday morning and was arraigned in the Newton court on charges of driving to endanger and leaving the scene of an accident without revealing his identity. He told Judge Mayberry that he had not fallen asleep at the wheel of the truck, and he did not know what happened after the truck had passed the Newton Hospital just before it went out of control. He said that after the crash he was dazed, and a passing motorist took him to his home in Cambridge. He thought that possibly the steering gear on the truck went wrong.

O'Connor told Judge Mayberry he has a wife and five children dependent on him. He lost his employment with the trucking company because of the accident. He was fined $25 for driving so as to endanger, and a suspended three months' sentence was imposed on him for leaving the scene without identifying himself.

Martin Goslin of North Congregational Church. Alderman Edward Fahey served as toastmaster.

Unfounded Rumor That Weeks Will Run for Treasurer

A news item which appeared in Boston papers last week stated that Ex-Mayor Sinclair Weeks has told friends that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer in 1942. The statement was not in accordance with facts and was as much news to Mr. Weeks, as it was to anyone else who read it.

Mulcahy Loses Appeal In Effort To Avoid Draft

Hugh N. Mulcahy of 185 Fairway drive, West Newton, star pitcher of the Philadelphia club of the National Baseball League lost out in his effort to avoid being drafted for military service when Appeal Board 3, located in Cambridge, announced on Wednesday that it had refused Mulcahy's appeal from the action of Draft Board 112 of Newton in ordering the baseball player to report on March 8 for induction into military service.

In asking for deferment Mulcahy claimed he is engaged in a necessary industry, and while admitting that his father is regularly employed as a freight conductor on the New Haven railroad, and is not dependent on him for support, Mulcahy stated that he had recently purchased the residence on Fairway drive for his parents, and they will not be able to retain it without his aid. Mulcahy formerly resided in Brighton. It has been reported that the Brooklyn baseball team was willing to pay $75,000 to purchase him from Philadelphia, but the deal fell through when it became known that Mulcahy might be among those drafted for military service.

To File Briefs In Cullen Case

The Massachusetts Supreme Court has given counsel permission to file additional briefs on or before March 10 in the Cullen case. This means that no action can be taken before that date in reinstating Mr. Cullen to his former office of Sergeant-Mechanic in the Newton Police Department.

Accused of Being Driver of Car That Hit Aged Man

John H. Berndtson, 78, of 33 Harding st., West Newton, was hit and seriously injured on Sunday evening about 7 o'clock by a hit and run driver. The aged man had alighted from a bus on Waltham st. near his home and was crossing Waltham st. when he was hit. His nose was fractured, his chest injured, and he received a possible fracture of the skull. He was taken to the Newton Hospital.

When Lieut. William Mahoney, who was in charge at police headquarters, was informed of the accident, he ordered police cars to watch the principal highways leading from the city. A motorist who had witnessed the accident had informed the police that the car which hit the old man had proceeded in the direction of Newtonville, and bore out-of-State number plates. Shortly before 8 o'clock Patrolmen Gaspon and Cummings stopped a car with Vermont plates at Needham and Oak sts., Upper Falls. The car was driven by Gerard Souliere, 19, of Seekonk, Mass. Several strands of blue, woolen thread, which were clinging to the door handle on the car, matched cloth on the coat worn by Mr. Berndtson, and the sleeve of his coat was torn when its wearer was hit.

Young Souliere was arrested on charges of driving without a license and leaving the scene of an accident without revealing his identity. He stated that his car had not been involved in the accident. He was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday and his case continued until March 6. He was released in $1000 bail.

Central Club To Hear Young German Refugee

On Monday evening, March 3rd at the next meeting of Central Club, the men's organization at Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, the members will hear a lecture by Herbert G. Sonthoff, a young German refugee, who has chosen as his subject, "Is This World War Number Two?" Mr. Sonthoff originally came to this country as a student in 1934 and, when his visa expired, was compelled to return to his native land. An adherent of one of Germany's democratic parties, after Hitler arrived to power, with his party dissolved, Mr. Sonthoff was forced to join the Black Shirts in order to continue his academic work.

He has traveled extensively in France, Belgium, Switzerland and Italy; was on the staff of a Berlin daily paper at the time of President Hindenburg's death; was a staff member of the Commercial Section of the American Consul General in Berlin and left Germany only twenty-four hours before Hitler's elite corps raced into Poland. Mr. Sonthoff has had more than ample opportunity to witness and feel the effects of Nazi mentality and, having had such unusual insight into the real European issues of today and into their causes, is well capable of presenting and interpreting them clearly and unbiased. The variety of his experiences is a valued asset in giving his statements the weight of authority.

The guest speaker will be preceded by a chicken pie supper to be served promptly at 6:30 p. m.

Annual Concert of School Music Group

The sophomore girls chorus, the boys' chorus, the junior and senior girls chorus, the glee club, and the band also participate in the program. The quartets and choruses are conducted by Mr. William Winston, Mrs. Margaret Grannan, Mr. J. Collins Lingo and Mr. Morgan.

Middlesex Court 55th Anniversary

The 55th anniversary banquet of Middlesex Court, M. C. O. F., was held in Elks' Hall on Tuesday evening. Over 150 persons were present when Thomas F. Bryson, chairman of the committee in charge, opened the exercises. The guests included Monsignor Robert M. Barry of Somerville, Rev. John A. Sheridan, court chaplain; Rev. Francis Driscoll, chaplain of St. Elizabeth's Hospital; Rev. Joseph Shea of Medford, and members of the High Staining Committee of the M. C. O. F., including Major William H. Harrison, Jr., High Chief Ranger; Mrs. Agnes Broderick, Vice High Chief Ranger; Charles L. Riley of New Bedford, Andrew Gambon of Jamaica Plain, William F. Barry of Brighton, Ralph J. Wheeler of West Newton, William G. O'Hare of Boston, Dr. John R. Hanagan of Waltham, Patrick Lally of Brookline, Francis Hannigan of Brighton, William J. Barry of Roxbury, David Sheehan of Dorchester, and Dr. Francis Mulligan, court physician. Edward H. Powers served as toastmaster.

The juvenile branch of the order was represented by Richard Trudo, Chief Ranger of Fr. Mantle Court, and Patricia Broderick, deputy of that court. The principal address at the banquet was delivered by Rt. Rev. Robert M. Barry, who asserted that religion and democracy are inseparable, that this country was founded on these two principles, and all must strive to preserve them. He contrasted the religious basis of the U. S. A. and its democratic ideals with the materialistic philosophy and atheism of Stalin, and with the abolition of individual rights and subservience to the State insisted on by Hitler, and his abandonment of the Christian religion for paganism.

Assisting Mr. Bryson on the banquet committee were his wife, Mrs. Mabel Bryson, Chief Ranger of the Court; Miss Marion Goode, Mrs. Barbara Boudreau, Miss Kathryn Hannon, Mrs. Mary A. Bowen, Mrs. Winifred Herlihy, Miss Ruth McNamara, Thomas Fitzgerald, Timothy Gannon, Misses Mary Blake, Eleanor Mulcahy, Mary Mulligan, Katherine Conroy, Elizabeth Shea, Elizabeth Blake, Mrs. Mary Leahy, Mrs. Kathryn Goode, Mrs. Emma McNamara, Mrs. Delia Mulcahy, James Flynn and Charles Fagan.

Refute Statement That $20,000 Taxes Were Paid By Ice Company in 8 Yrs.

Proponents of Smith Memorial Suggest Use of WPA Workers on Park Project

At the hearing held by the Board of Aldermen on February 17 on the petition of Elsie Tufts for permission to erect a gasoline station at 1335 Centre st., Newton Centre, Allen T. Rogers of Homer st., representing the Metropolitan Ice Company which owns the property in question, stated that the owners had paid $20,000 taxes on the property during the past 8 years. This sum seemed large, and comment was made at the meeting regarding the accuracy of the statement. According to the records of the Board of Assessors the ice company property near Crystal Lake was sold in 1933 by the Crystal Lake Ice Company to the Purty Crystal Company and in that year after the property had been conveyed, that part of it North of Norwood ave. was sold to a person named Karalekas who in the years following paid the taxes on this part of the property.

The taxes on all the property in 1933 were $1346.64, based on a valuation of $54,300, and this included the large ice house adjoining the lake and the stable in Norwood ave. The ice house was burned on March 11, 1934 and $21,727 insurance was collected on it. The stable was burned on July 4, 1934 and $6400 insurance was paid on it. Taxes paid by the ice company on the land adjoining Crystal Lake since 1933 were as follows—1934, $585.20; 1935, $589.60; 1936, $462; 1937, $468.60; 1938, $377.50; 1939, $379.82; 1940, $365. Including the 1933 taxes the total is $4,574.36 for the eight years. Excluding 1933 the total of the taxes paid is $3,227.72. The land adjoining Crystal Lake was assessed for $22,000 in 1934 and 1935; for $16,500 in 1936 and 1937; and for $12,500 in 1938, 1939 and 1940.

Opponents of the plan to locate a gasoline station at 1335 Centre st. commented that Mr. Rogers argued that the ice company had paid $20,000 taxes on the property during 8 years and had received no income from it. They comment that this company which has its plant in Somerville, uses Newton streets for its trucks to compete with Newton dealers in ice, and fuel oil, and in return for taxes received from it, the city has maintained the streets, kept them cleared of snow, provided police and fire protection for the trucks of the company in this community where it has many desirable customers.

Proponents of the memorial park on the ice company land say that the plan for this tribute to Rev. S. F. Smith, author of "America" is flexible and can be anything from the ideal pictured, to a simple greensward in the near future. There need be no rush to complete the whole project in a few months after enduring the eyecore which has been there for years. The most suitable procedure would be for the city to assure the ultimate success of the plan by negotiating for the purchase of the land at a reasonable market-value. It is contended that the item of about $600 a year on taxes received from the property is very little for a city of Newton's wealth to forego, when by so doing a very attractive park could be secured at one of the city's beauty spots. While Newton has plenty of playgrounds, it has comparatively few parks, and by beautifying the city, real estate values will be aided. The realization of the plan to convert the ice company property to the proposed memorial park would complete the beautification of Crystal Lake at which the city expended about $40,000 for a bathing beach and skating house. It is argued that the city can well spend a comparatively small amount of money to protect the remaining part of the lake and permit citizens in Newton and elsewhere to make contributions toward developing it. The development of the property into a park could largely be done as a WPA project which would be of real value to the city. This would be in striking contrast to many WPA projects on which huge sums of money have been expended and little benefit to the community resulted.

National Guard Recruits Wanted

The Newton Company of the State Guard, C of the 23rd Regiment, is commanded by Captain George F. Hennrikus, with A. Leo Taffe as 1st Lieutenant. Both of these officers have long military records. The strength of the company will be three officers and 61 enlisted men. Over 40 men have already enlisted, or signified their intentions of doing so, and drills have already been started. Anyone interested may report at the West Newton armory on any Monday night. The drill period lasts for an hour and a half. Any American citizen between the ages of 21 and 51 is eligible to enlist for a period of 3 years. It is not necessary to have had previous military experience. Those in deferred classes of the draft are eligible. All equipment is furnished by the State.

Newton Post, American Legion, in conjunction with National Headquarters, is undertaking registration of all World War veterans in Newton for National Defence Work. Questionnaires can be obtained from Commander George Hennrikus of 201 Summer st., Newton Centre, telephone BIGelow 1491. On them can be written the qualifications of each veteran for defence work. Commander Hennrikus urges every veteran, regardless of his affiliations, to fill out one of these questionnaires and show the defence committees of the city and nation that they are ready to assist.

Burglar Suspect Held for Grand Jury

Bert Gibson, colored, 42, of 7 Dillworth st., Boston, was arraigned in the Newton court on Thursday and held in $3000 for the Grand Jury. Mr. Gibson was arrested on Feb. 12 by Inspector Lyons and Lieut. Crowley after a neighbor had telephoned that he was prowling around the home of Dr. Cohen at Rosalie rd., Newton Centre. Crowley had been called by Gibson, who had been convicted of a burglary at West Newton a couple of years ago. On Gibson's person, when arrested, was a rubber bone, which the police claim he used to pacify watch dogs in homes he entered. In court on Thursday a witness identified Gibson as the man he had seen near the home of James Cimaglia on Sept. 17, 1940, when that house was burglarized.

BUILDING AN EMPIRE

A few months less than fifty-three years ago there were graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology two engineering students who had formed a close friendship during their student days. They were Charles A. Stone and Edwin S. Webster, pioneers in the electrical engineering course which had been opened at the scientific institution which they attended. From that beginning and from that friendship a vast and useful empire was built. Out of the success of their first hydro-electric project in Maine after their graduation the firm of Stone & Webster was founded. Rapidly it became the leading company of its kind in the United States and subsequently in the entire world with the extension of its activities to many foreign countries. Specializing in the construction and management of electric light and power plants and electric railways the company later expanded into other public utilities and also into financial management and investments in its associated companies and allied fields until there are but few persons who have not heard of this firm and its widespread activities.

Newton has been proud to number among its citizens who have contributed much to the community and its welfare the partners in these enterprises. For many years Edwin S. Webster has been at resident of Chestnut Hill. Until his activities necessitated residing in New York Charles A. Stone was also a resident here. He was a Newton boy and a graduate of the public High School. He has passed away, leaving in his memory many everlasting monuments serving mankind in hundreds of ways.

Burglarize Apartment At Chestnut Hill

Summer Levinson of 39 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill, reported to Newton police on Monday night that his apartment at that address had been entered and looted. Levinson told the police that a diamond ring valued at $600, two watches, a ring, $26 in money and a quart of whiskey had been stolen. He said the value of the things taken was $744.50. No door or window was forced to gain entrance, so the theory is—that the burglar used a key.

Installing New Chimes At Newtonville Church

A new note of welcome and friendliness will ring out over Newtonville in the near future as the newly amplified chimes of the Church of the New Jerusalem on Highland ave. peal forth their message. The amplifier is being installed in memory of a number of loyal members of the church and is expected to be used for the first time within a week or two.

The Vesper Services, held each Sunday at 7:10, are services of meditation and music. All are cordially invited.

Powers' Paragraphs

Last November citizens in 30 Senatorial districts of Massachusetts, including this district (and Newton), voted by large majorities in favor of a State lottery to finance old-age assistance. The vote on the lottery referendum was 805,000 for; 325,000 against. We predicted shortly after the November election that members of our august State Senate, because of the solicitude they have displayed for pari-mutuel gambling interests, would not obey the will of the people, as manifested in the referendum on the State lottery. On Monday the Senate killed the lottery bill without even taking a roll call on it.

Charles C. O'Donnell of Lynn, one of the sponsors of the lottery bill, asserts that in 1942 the question will again appear on the ballot in the form of an initiative petition. If we have an election in 1942 under normal conditions (assuming we are not engaged in war), probably a large majority for such a bill on an initiative petition. A large majority of Massachusetts voters prefer that profits from the gambling craze shall revert to public benefit rather than to enrich the gambling interests.

A few weeks ago the Traffic Bureau of the Newton Police Department issued its report covering the year 1940. It was a well prepared report and showed that the Newton Police Department and the Traffic Bureau had been commendably active during 1940 in efforts to promote highway safety in Newton. The report contains numerous statistics showing the number of accidents on highways of this city during the year, the large number of warnings issued to speeders, and to those who violated parking regulations, and data relative to prosecutions by the Newton police of motorists who violated automobile and traffic laws and ordinances.

The last two pages of the report are devoted to recommendations concerning new traffic regulations in Newton, and changes in traffic lights and beacons. Among the recommendations are the following: remove all traffic towers and beacons from center of streets, including towers at Newton Corner Square, Newton Centre Square; traffic signals at the intersections of Commonwealth ave. with Centre, Walnut, Lexington and Lexington sts.; Beacon st. at Centre st. and at Langley rd., and at Washington st.; beacons at the intersection of Pearl and School sts., and at other places. Make one-way streets of Charlesbank rd., Newton, from Washington st. to Charles River rd.; Carleton st., Newton, from Pearl st. to Centre st.; Jewett st., Newton, from Washington st. to Pearl st.; Margit st., Newton, from Washington st. to Lincoln Park; Sumner st., Newton Centre, from Willow st. to Beacon st.

Other recommendations are: a study of traffic lights at West Newton Square; use the school yard at the rear of the Mason School for parking on Saturdays only; repaint bus stop designations and paint curbs at these stops yellow; paint the curbs yellow for a 3-car parking space in front of Newton Motor Sales company on Washington st., Newtonville; for a 6-car parking space in front of the Telephone Building on Washington st., Newtonville. Build a rotary traffic circle at Dedham and Parker sts., Oak Hill. No unloading of truck in business districts between the hours of 1 p. m. and 6 p. m.

The Traffic Bureau is the result of a recommendation made by the Newton Safety Council. In September, 1937, when interest was being displayed in the Safety Council, a fair number of persons attended its meetings, some of the members presented a resolution advocating the establishment of the Traffic Bureau in the Police Department. Mayor Childs on November 1 of that year submitted the recommendation to the Board of Aldermen. Differences between the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen over the personnel of the Traffic Bureau, delayed the starting of this activity until March 23, 1939, when Mayor Childs ordered Chief Hughes to have the Bureau functioning by April 1 of that year. The Mayor also ordered Chief Hughes to assign Lieut. Edward Moan and Patrolman O'Donnell and Gagnon to the Bureau. In the Newton Graphic of March 31, 1939, the writer had an article condemning the institution of the Traffic Bureau as unnecessary, and showed it would cost the taxpayers of Newton at least $2940 annually more than this branch of police work had been costing under the efficient service given by Sergeant Burke and Inspector Hammell. The Traffic Bureau was started on April 1 as ordered by Mayor Childs, and the policemen assigned to it endeavored to perform their duties efficiently. A change of administration in Newton gave Chief Hughes full control of the police department in January 1940, and on February 1 of that year he restored Sergeant Burke and Inspector Hammell to their former duties on traffic work, but this time designated as members of the Traffic Bureau staff. The work was the same, but it had the glamour of a special designation.

More than 3 years ago when it was apparent that a move was underway to take Serg. Burke and Inspector Hammell from traffic duties they had been performing well, the writer opposed their transfer from these duties. He believes that since they have been reassigned to traffic duties they have been assiduous and faithful in their work. But, all the recommendations made in their report would seem to indicate that the label "Traffic Bureau," gives them the impression that in addition to prosecuting traffic and parking violations, and obtaining information regarding accidents, which formerly constituted their duties, they now also must serve as Traffic Engineers. In so doing they are inviting criticism and controversy. Some of the recommendations they make will meet with approval from many persons conversant with matters involved. Others certainly will not.

Regarding the recommendations for making certain streets "one-way" there are certain to be objections from some persons residing on, or doing business on the streets affected. There surely will be many protests if Charlesbank rd. were made one-way all its length from Washington st. to Charles River rd. Such a change would greatly inconvenience hundreds of residents of Ward 7. For many years this street has been one-way from Washington at St. James st., with parking prohibited on the North side. This plan has worked well and there is no need for a change.

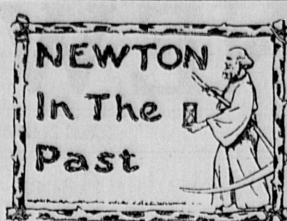

We do not know how the suggestion to use for parking on Saturdays the school yard at the rear of the Mason School will impress residents of Newton Centre. It probably will meet the approval of Newton Centre business men. The suggestion to paint curbs at bus stops yellow should meet with the approval of the Middlesex Street Railway and its patrons. The suggestion to paint curbs yellow in front of the Telephone Company building and the Newton Motor Sales Company building at Newtonville, is in our opinion ridiculous. If parking is restricted in front of these two buildings for the benefit of their owners, why should not this same privilege be given to owners of occupants of business structures in all parts of the city? And if this were done, where would motorists park their cars in business areas. The streets are public property. The recommendation to prohibit unloading trucks in business areas between the hours of 1 and 6 p. m., is in our opinion impractical.

Apparently, first in importance in the traffic suggestions of the Traffic Bureau, because they are first on the list, are those concerning traffic towers, beacons and signals. One drastic recommendation is that suggesting the removal of the traffic towers at Newton Corner and Newton Centre sq. These towers were erected about a dozen years ago after repeated demands from the public, the Newton police department and with the approval of the Newton Street Department and State officials. The traffic tower at Newton cost over $1000. The tower at Newton Centre cost $1500 and much of its cost was defrayed by contributions from Newton Centre residents. Newton Corner presents a complex traffic hazards. Thousands of motor vehicles pass through it daily, thousands of persons are crossing Nonantum sq. to and from buses and Boston Elevated cars, thousands of pedestrians cross the square there. There have been remarkably few automobile accidents at this spot, despite the fact that the signal permit vehicles going opposite directions to cross on left turns, and there have been remarkably few pedestrians hit there by motor vehicles. The traffic tower has served as a safety island for innumerable persons who alight from cars or buses, and who start to hasten across the square with motor vehicles moving at the same time. The writer has had unusual opportunities to observe traffic at Newton Corner for the past half-century and knows that the tower there not only has been a protection to pedestrians, but also to vehicular traffic. His opinion is also that of the two competent traffic officers at Newton Corner, Patrolman McDonough who has been on duty there for 21 years, and Patrolman Connelly who has been on duty at Newton Corner for 15 years.

These two veteran traffic officers are also in accord with the writer in strongly opposing the removal of the traffic beacons (near the Newton Trust Company building) on Centre, Washington and Hall sts. And so are officials of the Trust Company and the Savings Bank. The Newton Trust Company building has been on duty there for 21 years, and Patrolman Connelly who has been on duty at Newton Corner for 15 years.

The recommendation for a study of the traffic lights at West Newton business district will meet with the approval of many. Such a study, however, may cause reversion to the terrible traffic conditions which existed when the numerous traffic lights at West Newton were in operation a few years ago. Traffic engineers from the State Department of Public Works had approved of the signal mess which obstructed traffic during all hours of the day at West Newton, disregarded suggestion from a Newton police official regarding their installation, opposed the discontinuance of the chaotic operation of the signals there, and wanted the operation resumed.

Newton Graphic, Feb. 13, 1886
The new Baptist Church building at Newton is nearly finished. The dedication will probably take place on February 22. Glines took advantage of the fine weather on Tuesday by taking a photograph of the exterior.

We are glad to see an occasional sign—"Coasting on this street." We believe in giving the boys a chance. We had good coasting when we were young. Our boys want it and need it.

Newton Methodist Church people are rehearsing for a grand Old Folks' Concert and supper in Cole's Hall. A good time is in order.

Mr. H. J. Woods led the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Sunday afternoon. It consisted largely of testimonials and was of much interest.

A party of Newton residents started for the City of Mexico on Monday evening to be gone 6 or 8 weeks. It includes Henry E. Cobb, wife and two daughters; Charles E. Billings, wife and son; Edward Sawyer, wife and daughter; Mrs. J. Sturgis Potter, and Levi C. Wade, all of Newton, and Albion R. Clapp of Wellesley. The comfort of a parlor, hotel car will enhance the pleasure of the trip.

Jeffrey Forrest, 19 years of age, employed at the Nonantum Worsted Mills, got his right arm so badly caught in a machine on Monday afternoon that nearly all the flesh from the elbow to the wrist was torn off. The arm had to be amputated.

A. H. Rolfe of Cypress st., Newton Centre, who was successful in raising a fine lot of chickens last year by incubators, will repeat the experiment this year. Of the eggs which he placed in January, about 300 give promise of being fertile.

Newton Graphic, Feb. 13, 1891
The Newton electric light plant has been very fortunate this year as it has not been interfered with by the storms so as to necessitate shutting off the lights. In the sleet storm the lights were turned off by order of the Fire Marshal, and not because of disarrangement of the wires. In Cambridge, Malden and other cities the storms played havoc with the wires and the lights were shut off a number of times.

Newton Street Railway stock was sold this week by R. L. Day Co. for $101 a share. The road will pay a 7 per cent dividend this year, probably in July. The company hopes to run cars every 15 minutes, starting this spring, and judging from the patronage thus far, there is no question but more frequent cars will pay the company. A change to 15 minutes time will require more turnouts along the route, but there can be no objection to this as electric cars are fast becoming a necessity. If the West End Street Railway Company could only be prevailed upon to extend its line from Oak square to Newton Corner, it would accommodate many people and give a 5 cent fare to Boston.

Arrangements are being made for a basket party next Wednesday night at the Oak Hill schoolhouse.

The article in last week's GRAPHIC about the unsatisfactory lighting in Boston & Albany cars was almost unanimously endorsed by patrons of the road who have vainly tried to read the evening papers by the light of the dim lamps. A good moon would furnish almost as much light as this company gives its patrons. It makes handsome profits from suburban towns and ought to provide satisfactory lamps.

Newton Graphic, Feb. 11, 1916
A new bridge will span the Charles River near Norumbega Park, replacing the old stone bridge, and plans have been prepared by the Metropolitan Commission. It will be of concrete, with three spans, will have a 40 foot roadway, and will cost about $50,000.

Open your home for one or more boys who will be in Newton from Friday night to Monday morning, February 18 to 21. Seven hundred of the finest boys in Massachusetts and Rhode Island are coming here to attend the Y. M. C. A. conference. Many homes in Newton have been made available for them, but there is need for accommodations for about 100 boys.

At a largely attended public meeting in Mason School hall on Tuesday evening, the subject of allowing a moving picture house to locate in the village of Newton Centre was discussed. At the close of the meeting a vote was taken; 353 opposed the granting of a permit, and 24 favored it.

Seven hundred pupils of the Bigelow and Stearns Schools were guests at the Newton Opera House yesterday to witness the production of Paul Rainey's "African Hunt."

On Thursday of last week a cablegram was received at the office of the American Fund for French Wounded, 264 Boylston st., Boston, saying that Paris is in great need of surgical supplies. When the word reached the Newton South Allies Relief Association, it was at once decided to hold an all-day session on Friday. Forty-nine ladies were present in the morning and thirty in the afternoon. They folded and bundled 3940 surgical dressings, 68 bandages were rolled and 60 draw pads made. All of these are now on the ocean enroute to France.

Kiwanis Club

Mr. Charles R. Cabot, engaged in Red Cross work for the past fifteen years, and Chairman of the American Red Cross Division in Newton for the past three years, was the speaker at the last meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club last Tuesday. Mr. Cabot described how the Red Cross was originally organized in 1863 at a conference in Geneva, Switzerland, and how it has now grown to a world-wide organization. The Red Cross is almost entirely a voluntary organization with very few paid workers. In 1905 the American Red Cross received its charter from President Theodore Roosevelt, its first honorary president. The President of the United States always is the honorary president of the American Red Cross.

Mr. Cabot mentioned that at the roll call in Newton last year about $12,000 was raised and about $26,000 more was received on the War Relief drive. He described at length the activities of the Red Cross work, and mentioned their active committees, as the Braille System working in assisting the blind; the Life-Saving Committee which trains people in swimming and emergency service; the Home Hygiene Committee, recognized as a decided help by the doctors in Newton; the Gray Ladies, always active in their work of assisting the sick; and the First Aid Instruction Committee. Over 200 people are now taking first aid instruction and over 2000 women of Newton are working on the making of sweaters, caps, socks, etc. In addition, they have an active motor corps and a junior Red Cross.

Dr. Herman, representative of the Kiwanis Club on the Newton Defense Committee, submitted a report on the activities of his committee up to the present time, and stressed the co-operation between their committee and the Red Cross organization. The next meeting of the Newton Club will be next Tuesday when they will meet in the Newtonville Women's Club. The speaker next week will be from the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Boston.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

A faculty tea was held at Woodland Hall on Monday afternoon. Mr. David Stary spoke at the Tuesday morning assembly on "Witchcraft in Jamaica."

"The Invasion of Norway" was the subject of Robert W. Bean's talk at the Friday assembly. The Senior Prom will be held at Winslow Hall on Saturday evening. Mrs. Guy M. Winslow, Dean Margaret Rand, Mrs. Statura P. McDonald, and Miss Mira Sawyer are to be the patronesses. Also included in the receiving line will be Miss Marjorie Weatherby, chairman of the Prom, and Miss Louise Lorion, president of the Senior Class.

Dean Earl B. Marlatt of the School of Theology at Boston University will be the speaker for the Sunday Vesper service. President Guy M. Winslow left for Chicago Tuesday to attend the meeting of the American Association of Junior Colleges. He is to be one of the speakers at the annual dinner.

TO ENTERTAIN NEWTON WORLD WAR NURSES

The Boston Nurses of the National Organization of World War Nurses have invited the Newton Nurses to be their guest on Sunday afternoon, March 2nd, 1941, at the Soldiers and Sailors Club, 8 Fayette st., Boston. Miss Emily McQueenie of Chelsea, State Commander, will preside. Refreshments will be in order.

WABAN NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB NEWS

Friday, March 7, there will be duplicate evening bridge with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Bullen as the hosts assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Townsend.

WALK WARILY

Suggestions from an Overworked Guardian Angel

6. DARK DANGER. When walking in night traffic, carry a light or reflector, or wear something light in color. At least carry your handkerchief in hand. Otherwise the motorist can't see you more than 100 feet ahead. Since you can see him ten times sooner, get where it won't matter whether he sees you or not!

Taxpayers Asso. Makes Study of Newton Water Cost

During the past two years, numerous citizens of Newton have suggested that the city should purchase water from the Metropolitan Water System and abolish the present method of supplying water through its own pumping station from wells fed by the Charles River. The Newton Taxpayers' Association has recently made a study of this possibility and from the information available it would seem that the taxpayers of Newton are better served under the present system.

It is true that in the event of unprecedented high flood water in the Charles River, the present water supply might be subject to contamination, and, in case of continued dry spells with the lowering of the Charles River, the water might have a tendency to increase in its sediment content. Citizens are protected, however, by the fact that in case of emergency it is possible for Newton to tap the Metropolitan Water Supply at any time on two hours notice.

Because of the tremendous expenditures for building the Quabbin Reservoir and the pressure aqueduct, the present cost of retirement of bonds to users of the Metropolitan Water System is extremely high. As an example, if Newton had purchased water from the Metropolitan System for the year 1939 rather than using its own water supply, the cost would have been $212,693. This is less than the cost of operating the Water Department in the City of Newton for the same period, but even though Newton had used Metropolitan water, the only saving in our own water department expense would have been through the abolishing of the pumping station and the collecting galleries. Newton citizens would still have been charged with the maintenance and servicing of meters, mains, and hydrants, which when added to the actual cost of the water purchased from the Metropolitan system would have shown an increase of over $150,000 for the year 1939.

As the years pass, the cost of purchasing water from the Metropolitan system will be annually reduced through retirement of bonds so that the cost by 1955 will be $50 per million gallons as against $113.55 which was the cost in 1940. By the time the year 1975 arrives, the cost on the present basis of estimating will be less than $20. It is expected that within a few years other cities will take advantage of the continually lowered rates for the Metropolitan Water Supply and with more towns using the water the cost will be reduced accordingly for everyone. From the standpoint of economy it is evident that the citizens of Newton should not look forward to purchasing their water from the Metropolitan Water System for many years. The only exception to this point of view would be on account of some unusual occurrence resulting in contamination to the present Newton water supply which could not be overcome through inexpensive engineering or sanitary measures. Such a situation, if dangerous from the standpoint of health of the citizens of Newton, would necessitate immediate transfer to the Metropolitan supply.

LENTEN MUSIC COURSES

Mrs. Ray Eusden of Newton is chairman of the committee for two Lenten Courses on "Understanding Composers" being offered by the All Newton Music School as part of the program in adult education. The lectures to be given at the Newtonville Library will begin on Monday, March 3,—one series at 10:30 a. m.—the other series on the same day at 7:30 p. m. Others serving on the committee with Mrs. Eusden are Mrs. George N. Abbott and Mrs. Edgar P. Hay of West Newton, Mrs. Ernest Cobb of Newton Upper Falls, Mrs. Kirtley F. Mather of Newton Centre, Mrs. B. Alden Thresher of Waban and Mr. Haydn M. Morgan of Newtonville.

The lecturer will be Harry A. Seaver, who gave a splendid course on "Understanding Music" during the six weeks of Lent last year. These courses will be in the nature of Music Appreciation and Mr. Seaver will bring out the special contribution to the History of Music made by each of the composers under consideration, and will illustrate his points at the piano.

A small fee is being asked to cover expenses. Subscriptions must be limited to one hundred applicants because of the seating capacity of the Library Hall.

Many WPA Workers Are Laid Off

The beginning of a gradual discharge of persons from WPA lists hit Newton this week when 41 were laid off, including 2 women. Ten thousand WPA workers in Massachusetts were laid off. The number now on the Newton lists is 427. From this number, more will be dropped.

Calcium Important Mineral
 "Calcium is undoubtedly one of the most important minerals needed by the body," say the nutritionists. "It is part of the very framework upon which the body is built and is absolutely necessary for the formation of bones. Lack of calcium during childhood results in bones which are poorly calcified and may be deformed. The adult, of course, has reached full growth as far as bones are concerned, but calcium is required for the nourishment of the soft tissues. If the diet lacks calcium, the mineral is borrowed from the bones which, if borrowing continues, become partially exhausted and hence may easily be fractured."

Luckily the teeth do not give up their store of calcium or many people would lose their teeth at an early age, the nutritionists say.

Getting Along on Job

Ranked Next to Ability
 If you emoter very easily you'd better stay out of business. But if you're a good-natured sort of person, who gets along well with folks and is eager to make good, you've got every chance in the world to hold down an excellent job with a corporation. Adaptability is second only to ability to perform the task itself.

Such is the conclusion of Mrs. Jane H. Eastburn, for 17 years dean of women of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and employment manager of its general offices in Chicago. In the latter capacity she has interviewed 60,000 men and women, young and old, looking for jobs. She will retire next month on a company annuity.

"We used to hear a lot about 'souless corporations,'" commented Mrs. Eastburn, "but that has largely passed."

"Times have changed and the human element has become very important. The most desired employee is the one who can fit into the picture harmoniously and cheerfully."

"That's why emotional stability, co-operativeness, courtesy, dependability and good nature are stressed so much by employment managers today. The person who is sulky, hypersensitive, inclined to fits of temper or jealousy, who resents constructive criticism, and is suspicious of fellow workers, is under a severe handicap no matter how great the working efficiency."

Sharing From Heart One

Thing Money Cannot Buy

What is junk to us may be a bonanza to someone else. It occurred to a dentist that his discarded dental unit, with its drills and gadgets, would delight a bunch of mechanically minded high school boys he knew. Now 10 of them use it—and how!—for shop and metal work.

Our automobiles present another form of unshared wealth. We have so much surplus seat room that we cease to know its value to people who have no cars or cannot drive.

Many people make the mistake of assuming that the well-to-do do not appreciate modest gifts. Yet simple gifts, prompted by sincere affection and with no thought of return, make an even greater impression upon the prosperous than upon the poor, for sharing from the heart is one commodity that money cannot buy.

A rich old codger once admitted that no gift had brought him quite such pleasure as a mess of fresh perch presented by his chauffeur's freckle-faced son.

No, you don't have to be rich to be generous, but most of us are rich in the possessions which make generosity possible. If he has the spirit of true generosity, a pauper can give like a prince.

Plain Nourishing Food

Young men of high school age and their active sisters can well follow the diet of Giles Steadman, commander of the new American passenger ship, America, to their profit. Although the commander can have his choice of caviar and every kind of elaborate hors d'oeuvres, food cooked in rich sauces, fattening entries and regal desserts from frozen puddings to crepes Suzette, he limits himself to clear soups, broiled or roasted meats, plain vegetables, salads, and stewed or fresh fruits in large quantities. Great quantities of fruit are important. For economy's sake, some of the weekly fruit allowance should be dried and stewed. Bananas are a good and inexpensive standby. There should be some citrus fruit in the diet every day. Tomatoes are an excellent source of vitamin C. Canned grapefruit juice is equally as good for vitamin C. At least two vegetables a day should be included in your foods. The vitamin content of canned vegetables is usually very high.

Snakes Are Pleasant Companions

Snakes are pleasant companions when you understand their attitude toward life, according to Miss Annette Loving, a snake-charmer with one of the leading circuses in the country. She says that a python is quite gentle as long as it is well fed. She allows them a single coil around her body and always keeps a hold on their tails, "because a double coil is an invitation to disaster, and if they start tightening up on me, I twist their tails back and that makes them relax." Miss Loving said that it takes a snake about nine days to digest a meal and at that time she doesn't work with them, because they are as limp as a rope.

Eat Meat in Heat

According to the council on foods and nutrition of the American Medical association meat is an important diet at all seasons of the year. In a recent health magazine published by the American Medical association the following statement was made: "When it was argued that meat consumption should be greatly reduced in the summer, investigations showed that the increased metabolism which follows the eating of meat is common to the eating of all protein. The sensible step is to advise proper cleanliness and proper cooking, because of the increased danger of contamination in summer, rather than to discourage eating the necessary foods."

Element of Mystery in

Caverns of Wind Cave

Vacationists with a yen to explore caves will find an element of mystery in the caverns of Wind Cave in the Black Hills of South Dakota, for years the haunt of thousands of vacation lovers.

Exposed strata in cliffs already have told scientists stories of prehistoric alligators, tiny three-toed horses and other now extinct animals. The cave itself is even more awe-inspiring. Believed to be about 60,000,000 years old, the caverns in the giant cave are filled with strangely beautiful "boxwood" crystal formations, totally different from the stalactites and stalagmites found in most caves. Tiny white crystals in honeycomb formation, sometimes superimposed on a pink background, hang in clusters from ceilings and ledges.

Wind cave is located in Wind Cave National park and received its name in a peculiar manner. A deer hunter back in 1881 was attracted to the vicinity by a strange whistling, and discovered that it came from a tiny opening in the rocks, not more than 10 inches in diameter. This vent is the only natural opening ever discovered for the miles of caverns.

Also in the Black Hills region is the heroic statuary group on Mount Rushmore, which includes the gigantic heads of George Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, and Theodore Roosevelt.

Death Is a Happy Event

Among Balinese People

The Balinese race shows a sheer indifference to death. When Bali was conquered by the Dutch, the people of the native prince's household dressed in pure white, girded on their ceremonial daggers and walked calmly out of the palace into the withering fire of the Dutch rifles. They walked straight ahead facing the rifles, until all of them had fallen.

In Bali, death is made a happy event. Annually the corpses of the village are gathered up and cremated in a gigantic costly ceremony that drains the community of its wealth, and starts a hundred or more souls on their way toward heaven, where they are refitted into bodies of birds, oxen, dogs or other humans and sent back to Bali in the course of time, according to their beliefs and customs.

And strange as it may seem, relatives of the deceased are the happiest at these cremations. Everyone seems to have a wonderful time, and nobody seems to begrudge the occasion, its golden fruits, gilded, lacquered towers, its banked floral treasures, its music and its laughter.

After the burning splendor, the ashes of relatives are scratched out of the general melange, placed in little jars and then carried out to sea to float away upon a raft at ebb tide.

$250 Save Hawthorne

Such immortal classics as The House of the Seven Gables and The Scarlet Letter—so beloved by generations of Americans—might never have been written by Nathaniel Hawthorne, had not a friend come to his aid. It seems that Hawthorne's hopes for a literary career were being crushed to the ground because of the repeated refusals of a publisher to accept his work. Being close to despair, he was about ready to give up when a friend, Horatio Bridge, came to his rescue. Bridge secretly advanced $250 as a guarantee toward the publication of Twice Told Tales, a collection of Hawthorne's stories. But for the immediate success of that volume and its heartening effect on him, Hawthorne may never have written his other immortal classics. His spark of genius burst into flame after a friend staked $250 on his future at a critical time.

Defense Cost 12 Per Cent

Five per cent of the United States national income will go for armaments this year, and in 1941, the figure will jump to 12 per cent, according to an estimate by E. M. Richardson, vice president and treasurer of Investors Syndicate.

Speaking at a meeting of more than 1,000 company employees from the United States and Canada, Richardson said: "This means that one-eighth of everything produced in the country will be spent, not for necessities and comforts of the people, but for their defense against actual and potential enemies."

Richardson said it would make little difference whether payments for defense goods and services were made in cash or in promissory notes, except that the burden would have to be carried longer if borrowed money were used.

Thirty Years in Court

The suit of Felker versus Johnson, first brought in 1908, finally has ended in a decision of the Georgia Supreme court for Steve R. Johnson, former Atlanta councilman. It was a simple suit on contract, Johnson having agreed to auction property belonging to Felker. It was prolonged for more than 30 years by appeals and writs of error. Justices Reid and Duckworth, who re-nuked former City Court Judge Joseph R. Felker, of Monroe, for "unruly conduct," were 10-year-old boys when the action first was brought.

Clergymen Favor Plan For Memorial To Rev. F. S. Smith

At the recent hearing before the Board of Aldermen on the petition of Elsie Tufts of Somerville which seeks to have a permit granted for the construction of a filling station at 1365 Centre st., near Crystal Lake, the two following letters were read by City Clerk Grant.

The First Baptist Church in Newton, Newton Centre, Mass.
 Rev. Charles N. Ar buckle, D.D., Minister

February 14, 1941.

Board of Aldermen,
 Newton, Massachusetts.

Dear Sirs:

I regret that I am unable to attend the hearing set for Monday evening, February seventeenth, when the petition for a gasoline station at 1365 Centre st., will be considered. I would like to express my opposition to this petition.

I do not feel that the public is suffering from any lack of gasoline stations in our city. While most of them are sufficiently attractive not to be eyesores, they are purely commercial enterprises. What Newton will need in the future will be a few altruistic enterprises to meet the recreational needs of our people, to preserve the beauty of our city as a place of residence, and to keep alive some of the traditions that give Newton its finer significance.

A plan is before you to use the property, upon which it is proposed to erect a gasoline station, for a public park in memory of Dr. S. F. Smith, the author of "America." As I see it, the undertaking of this project would be a long-term investment in Newton's welfare.

I have lived in Newton for twenty-one years, and I have seen its growth and its trends as it has evolved from a village into a city. I lived through just such an evolution in my city where I formerly resided, only at a greatly accelerated rate of development. What happened there can happen here—a place originally attractive as a residential city became raucous and unattractive because the commercial motive was the only one that appealed to its Board of Aldermen. Unless we do some planning now to preserve the beauty, the recreational facilities and the historical significance of our city, before many years it will be too late.

No hymn is better known than "My Country 'Tis of Thee." It unites our people wherever it is sung. Newton is indissolubly associated with that hymn. It would be altogether too bad to lose this association and nowhere could it be more appropriately emphasized than on the property now under consideration.

It would contribute vastly to the higher values of our city to take the far view now and plan a memorial on this property that would not alone beautify Newton but stress our patriotism. Such a project also put our city in the consciousness of our school children on a much higher level than any innocuous gas station.

I believe America is suffering today from a sag in her patriotic ideals and sincerely hope that Newton will not join the ranks of those who place commercial interests above all other considerations.

I would therefore respectfully record my opposition to this petition and at the same time express my hope that the Board of Aldermen will give full consideration to the alternative project.

(sign.) Respectfully yours,
 CHARLES N. ARBUCKLE.

Andover-Newton Theological School
 Newton Centre, Massachusetts
 Office of the Dean

February 15, 1941.

The Honorable Board of Aldermen,
 Clerk's Office,
 City Hall,
 Newton, Massachusetts.

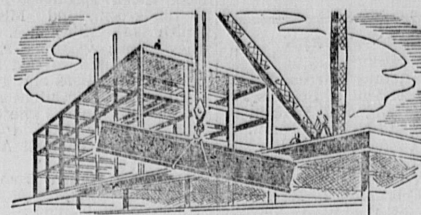

Gentlemen:
 As a citizen of Newton and as one deeply interested in its welfare and future development, I wish to register a strong protest against the granting of a permit for a gasoline station at 1365 Centre st. We are well supplied already with attractive and efficient stations, and it is difficult to see why another is needed. We should make every allowance for legitimate business expansion, but at the same time we ought to safeguard the beauty of our Garden City.

I might also respectfully request the Honorable Members of the Board of Aldermen to take note of the fact that vigorous protests have been made by leaders of the strong churches adjacent to 1365 Centre st.

Moreover, the proposal to honor the memory of the author of "America," Dr. Samuel Francis Smith, by creating a memorial park on Crystal Lake near 1365 Centre st. would be a strong additional reason for refusing the gasoline permit. At such a time in the history of our country, a new birth of patriotism is our greatest need, and how better could we serve our community and train its children in the democratic way of life, than by acquiring the property under consideration for such a park.

May I be permitted, not only as a citizen, but also as the Dean of the Seminary from which Samuel Francis Smith graduated in 1832, to send this letter in my official capacity as indicating the attitude of the Andover-Newton Theological School. If him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. . . . I and my Father are one."

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which reads as follows: "The divine image, idea, or Christ was, is, and ever will be inseparable from the divine Principle, God. ### New Amputation Method Reduces Complications

After amputation of a gangrenous leg, a frequent cause of death is pneumonia. Particularly in the cases of elderly persons, death is caused more often by lung complications than by either surgical shock or failure of the heart or kidneys.

Usually responsible for the pneumonia are blood clots. In the usual amputation technique, the severed blood vessels are tied off just above the point where the leg is removed. There blood clots often form, break away from the stump, enter the blood stream, and travel to the lungs, where they can cause death.

A new amputation technique greatly reducing the number of lung complications after such operations was described in the Journal of the American Medical Association. Worked out by Dr. J. Ross Veal, chief surgeon at Gallinger hospital, Washington, D. C., the new method was believed to be the greatest improvement in this kind of surgery in more than a century. The method was simple: It consisted merely of tying off the vein high up in the thigh—near the groin—instead of at a point near the amputation as heretofore.

This "high ligation," said Dr. Veal, had proved to be highly effective. Of the 28 gangrenous leg amputations cases on which it had been used, not one died from pulmonary infection, though five died from other causes. A study made of 275 cases in which the old technique was used, he declared, showed that 97 ended in death, 41 involving lung complications.

Perfection Is Demanded When Rigging Parachute

To be a licensed parachute rigger, one must pass the ultra-stiff test of the Civil Aeronautics authority. As an example of how tough this test is, the state of Washington has but two licensed riggers. And the two happen to be man and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Brown of Seattle. Incidentally, Mrs. Brown is the only licensed woman parachute rigger on the Pacific coast.

Skill, patience, and unceasing, meticulous care must go into the rigging or packing of each 'chute, they say. The law requires that a 'chute must be unpacked, aired, dried, and repacked every 60 days. The first thing done after receiving a parachute is to unpack it and hang it in a high loft to dry and smooth wrinkles in the extremely strong silk.

When the parachute is dry, it is taken out and laid on a long rigging table. Then each of the 28 separate panels is straightened out, smoothed and folded. While the folds are held with shot-weighted bags, the strong silk shroud lines, each of 450 pounds tensile strength, are packed carefully in loops in the 'chute carrier. When the 'chute canopy has been folded on a special frame and placed in its carrier, the things are compressed when they are closed.

The operation takes about an hour and not one part of the huge expanse of silk is allowed to get out of place. As Brown explains it: "You don't make mistakes in this business."

Saleswoman Should Pick Hat

Saleswomen are better judges of what is stylish, what is proper and what is more becoming in the way of head-wear than the average woman herself is, according to an expert saleswoman in one of New York's leading stores. If more women would listen to the advice of the salesgirl who is showing her hats, they wouldn't look so funny in their freakish hats. The hats look funny because they are set on the wrong faces, usually, and that is one of the reasons men make so much fun of milady's hats. This expert goes on to say that saleswomen should guide their customer into the proper style hat and that a customer should listen when said saleslady tells her that is the right hat for her. She also takes a crack at the plump patrons who wear slacks, with the statement that slacks are only for women with young figures. "But try and make a woman believe that she does not look good in slacks," she says.

Scale Weighs Postage Stamp

"Split-second" scales, which can weigh the impact of a falling postage stamp or the force of a 2,500-pound weight with equal accuracy, are being used at the University of Washington in secret aviation tests for the United States army. The scales, which record forces which strike an airplane in flight, were invented by Prof. F. S. Easton, university aeronautical engineer. They are used in testing airplane parts in the University wind tunnel on the campus. When stresses are placed on airplane parts, the scales contact an electric coil. The force is indicated in pounds and registered immediately on dials and gauges.

No Passengers

The "Lost Bridge"—never crossed by a vehicle since it was built 38 years ago—finally has been demolished by workmen. The bridge was constructed to fulfill requirements of a rural mail route because a township board in Stanley, Kan., feared the span would divert traffic from a nearby main highway. Approaches to the structure never were built. Instead traffic used a nearby ford to cross the river.

Professor of Bombay Univ.
To Speak At Eliot Church

Dr. Hivale, professor of Philosophy at the University of Bombay, India, is in America for his sabbatical year and will speak at Eliot Church Tuesday morning at 11:30.

before the Woman's Association. An invitation is extended to any one interested to attend as it is a rare opportunity to listen to so distinguished an educator and authority on India.

He knows not only his own land but the United States as well. He is sometimes referred to as an "Indian-American" because of his affection for the United States. He has made it a point to explain to Indians that America is not the kind of place that the cheap sensational movies, magazines and tabloid newspapers would lead them to believe.

During his years of study at Harvard University, Dr. Hivale was in constant demand as a lecturer. A charm of personality, keenness of wit and full understanding of his subject made him highly successful in this line.

In addition to being an educator, Dr. Hivale is Marathi editor of "Dyanodaya" the second oldest Anglo-Marathi paper in India. He is president of the All-India Conference of Indian Christians, the Psychology section of the Philosophical Congress. He is a graduate of Andover Seminary and for a time served as a minister of the large Hume Memorial Church in Bombay.

"My firm belief is that the forces of righteousness, though they may seem vanquished for the time being ultimately will triumph," declares Dr. Hivale.

Succeeds Waban Doctor
As President of Osteopaths

At its annual meeting, held last week, the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Osteopathic Hospital, Jamaica Plain, elected as president Dr. Alexander F. McWilliams, 130 Forest ave., vice-president for a number of years, and director of the Out-Patient Department of the hospital since it was opened in 1923. He succeeds Dr. John A. MacDonald, 92 Crofton rd., Waban, president since 1935, whose resignation was regretfully accepted by the trustees. The secretary was instructed to prepare resolutions suitably expressing the hospital's appreciation for the devoted and able service he has rendered in that office. Dr. MacDonald will continue, however, as a member of the Board of Trustees.

Dr. MacDonald, who is a past president of the American Osteopathic Association, and Dr. McWilliams were among the four present members of the Board who signed the petition for the hospital's charter, granted in 1923, a third being Dr. Myron B. Barstow, of 420 Hammond st., Chestnut Hill, who has been elected secretary. They have been members of the Board of Trustees since the organization of the hospital.

Buick Starts On National Defense
Work on Airplanes

Richard I. Dwyer, president of the Newton Buick Company has received word from Flint, Michigan that steel contracts have been awarded for the construction of its $31,000,000 aircraft plant in which the Buick division of the General Motors Corporation will launch its national defense production.

Harlow H. Curtice, a vice president of the Corporation and head of the passenger car concern, announced that structural steel awards, totalling in excess of $1,000,000 for fabrication and construction, were made to the Mississippi Valley Structural Steel Company, a Melrose park, Chicago, steel firm.

Bids were opened at the Buick offices and the go ahead given for immediate fabrication of the steel. Besides producing the structural material the steel company was given the job of erecting it in conjunction with the general contract for the huge building, which will shortly be out for bids.

Curtice said that time was an important factor and that the fabrication of the structural steel will go ahead with all speed looking to earliest possible completion of the building. The Buick organization already has placed substantial orders for machinery and equipment for the new plant and plans to coordinate delivery so that installation may take place while construction still is in progress.

The executive said it is expected the general contract under which the steel and other sub-contractors will function will be let before the end of the month. The building plans call for a huge engine manufacturing plant having total floor space in excess of 1,000,000 square feet, personnel and administration buildings, a power house and 24 test cells. Meanwhile, Buick process engineers and production men are shaping plant layout and operating plans looking to the full adaptation of skilled automobile production technique and manufacturing methods to the new Aircraft Engine project.

The new plant will be erected at Mannheim rd. and North ave., in the Village of Melrose Park, Chicago Suburb. When completed and in operation it will be capable of producing 500 Pratt and Whitney 1200-horsepower radial engines a month and will employ in the neighborhood of 10,000 people.

Emerson Center

A Little Mothers' Group, composed of girls between the ages of eight and ten, has been organized at the Emerson Center in Newton Upper Falls. These children are being taught, through the use of life-size dolls, such things as how to make a bed properly, how to bathe and care for a baby, laundry its clothing and many other skills which appeal to the little girl at the age when she is most interested in dolls. Expert instruction is being given by Miss Dorothy Greif, R.N., of the Newton Hospital staff. Under her inspiring guidance the group responded with great enthusiasm to this new project which will be of untold value to them in future years as they recall the basic information imparted to them in this extremely appealing way. The first group to be enrolled includes Nancy Dedoming, Anna Di Donato, June and Lorraine Duhaime, Rose and Theresa Foley, Catherine Geraci, Rose Mulkasian, Eleanor Scarpas, Eleanor Schofield, Violet Sharpe, Josephine and Stephanie Sykonis, Phyllis Tocci and Joan Wallace. ### Recent Events

Newton Federation

Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs presided Monday morning in the Community Room of the Newtonville Library when the monthly board meeting of that organization was held with a splendid attendance of delegates from the clubs, chairmen of the standing committees and representatives from the Associate organizations including several churches.

Speaking for the American Home Committee, Mrs. Robert Lindquist explained the printed lists which had already been sent to many clubs asking for returns from the women buyers as to what they turned for honest advertising. This movement is one to make the consumer familiar with both prices and values.

Miss Adelaide Ball, chairman of Health Seals brought an encouraging report from each of the Newtons as to the return from the seals, and announced that at the present date they were ahead of the total for one year ago.

A conference to be held in March by the International Relations Committee of the State Federation was announced by the chairman, Mrs. Malcolm Green, and she reported that already two rolling kitchens had been sent to England with two more to follow soon.

The Physically Handicapped Committee was represented by its former chairman, Mrs. Elmore I. MacPhie, and she told of the pleasure which this band of blind here in Newton receive when they are invited to hear some of the club programs, and suggested that this was the time to consider them in planning for next year. Transportation also is frequently needed, and volunteers to this are appreciated.

Announcement was made that a Round Table for program chairmen had been arranged for all of the clubs in the Twelfth District and this will be held at two o'clock on March 20, with the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands as hostess.

Mrs. John MacNeil brought a report from the Public Health Committee and again made a plea for donations for cod-liver oil to be used in the clinics. She stated that there was no section in Newton where there was no need for this service.

The speaker for the morning was Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, a former president of the Waban Woman's Club and now chairman of the Newton Branch of Volunteer Service of the Community Council. She explained many of the phases of their work which varied from asking for workers to sort clothing for the Thrift Centre to provide men to assist the doctors during the examinations for the draft. From the various agencies, there came to them the pleas for help, and to meet these efficiently, they must have a list of persons eligible to fill them. Clubs and churches have responded, and she added that from Lasell Junior College the number was large. Mrs. Thresher was introduced by Mrs. Newton A. Merritt, second vice-president of the federation.

A certificate had been awarded this federation from the New England Council of Conservation for the splendid work done in the extermination of rag-weed and the campaign for tagged Christmas greens. Mrs. Pearson reminded the group that they did not have a regular headquarters, and asked for suggestions for caring for the document. It was voted unanimously to give it to the chairman Mrs. Gordon Heath, whose untiring efforts have brought such splendid results, and she accepted it with her appreciation of the courtesy.

The dates for the sale for the blind which had been voted previously were announced to be May 26, 27 and 28, the place to be the Newton Centre Woman's Club House as in the two past years.

Auburndale Woman's Club

"Twenty Years Later," a one act play by Essex Dane was presented by the Drama Group Tuesday afternoon at the Auburndale Club House. The scene was at a reunion dinner twenty years after College graduation. Fate had accomplished much to mar their lives and so provided much amusement to their audience. The cast was well portrayed, those taking part were—Mrs. William S. Sellers, Mrs. Richard Kenney, Mrs. Louis F. Billings, Mrs. Paul W. Kier, Mrs. Everett H. Potter, Mrs. Irving B. Kelley, Mrs. Bradley L. Hill, Mrs. Edward B. Gray, Mrs. Franklin K. Hoyt and Mrs. George E. Foote.

Properties, Mrs. Richard L. Kenney, Lights and Prompting, Mrs. John de Bruyn Kops. Directed by Mrs. Earle Dudley Wood.

Mrs. Eldin V. Lynn, Vice President of the Club, conducted the business meeting.

"How to Enjoy Entertaining" will be the subject of Mrs. Marian Lane Sweeney at the American Home Program to be held at the Club House Wednesday afternoon, March 5th, at 2:30 p. m. Tea will be served. Mrs. Harold A. Carnes will be Day Chairman.

Girl Scouts Have Skating Party At Arena

Three hundred sixty Newton girl scouts and leaders enjoyed a most successful skating party at the Boston Arena on Wednesday, Feb. 26th. The girls left the various villages in buses, arriving at the Arena in time to start skating at one o'clock.

At one-thirty, four young girls, members of the Commonwealth Figure Skating Club gave a beautiful exhibition of individual skating. The youngest of these, Marcia Lee Beards, all only five years old, had all the poise of an old-timer. Sally Davenport and Jane Weiss each gave an excellent performance, while Kay Lundstrom, who is a Girl Scout from Belmont, drew much applause. All these youngsters are pupils of Mr. Ed Sholdon, head instructor of the Boston Arena Skating Staff.

A little later in the afternoon Miss Ethel Chipman and Mr. Vincent Enright, Boston Arena instructors, demonstrated various dance steps.

The young girl scouts in their varied and brilliant skating outfits had a most colorful picture on the ice. After two hours of fun and skating they started reluctantly homeward.

The party, sponsored by the Program Committee of the Newton local Council of Girl Scouts, is expected to be the first of a series of similar annual affairs.

Creating Things by Hand

Brings Mental Relief

Mental peace through manual work—that is the kind of a workshop institute, located in Radio City. Called the Universal School of Handicrafts, it is directed by Edward T. Hall, a gray-haired man.

Into this shop comes the banker who fashions handmade cocktail shakers; an executive who weaves the cloth for his own suits; a society lady who fabricates pewter tableware and another who carves artistic buttons—all because they believe that nerves, boredom, and loneliness can be helped by the satisfaction of creating things with their hands.

A frustrated college girl returned to normal after a course in clay modeling, while many adjustments have been made with people over 70. All walks of life are represented in this school, such as blind people, rich lifeless widows, deaf-mutes, refugees, cripples and tired business men and executives.

Build New Simian Isle For Philippine Monkey

Thirty Philippine simians who can't be kept in an ordinary cage will have a new home soon, in Seattle. Their new home will be on an island built for them, exclusively, by the government, through a WPA project.

On this island they will have all the conveniences of a well-kept cage, plus privacy. Separated from the mainland by a 20-foot moat, they will be able to leave the glass-house atmosphere of their surface home and retire into a basement built on the general plan of an air-raid cellar.

Eliot Gets Ships
Routed To Boston

Acting on the express demand of Congressman Thomas H. Eliot, the United States Maritime Commission last week began assigning additional ships to bring to Boston from South America cargoes of raw materials essential to defense production.

Announcement of the commission's action came within two days after Eliot had disclosed that large quantities of wool and hides destined for Greater Boston factories are being held in storage on the River Plate and in other South American ports because of an acute shortage of cargo vessels. The commission had pointed out that most of this material is needed at once for the completion of existing defense contracts in the Greater Boston area.

Two vessels have been made available immediately for the South America-Boston run, the Maritime Commission stated, and steps are being taken to allot additional ships as soon as possible.

Eliot presented his demand in a conference with Commissioner Thomas M. Woodward of the Maritime Commission. A special meeting of the commission, called to deal with the matter, agreed with the Congressman on the urgent need for ships and undertook to speed action in securing them. Announcement that assignments have already begun, Eliot declared, should mean that one important source of delay in local defense production is to be eliminated.

NEWTON P. O. BREAKS THREE
BOWLING RECORDS

Newton P. O. Bowling team not only trounced Watertown in the regular Postal Employees Bowling League match but broke about every record in the league. In the first string Newton rolled 541, a new single team record, at same time winning by 120 pins over Watertown in the frame, which was featured by Supt. Joe O'Gorman of Newton totalling over 149 pins, another record. By a garrison finish Newton sneaked out a 6 pin victory in the second string, overcoming a big Watertown lead. The final string showed another big string of 513, which brought the new three string team record of 1535. This leaves the league standing with Waltham and Newton Highlands tied for first place, with Newton but one point behind. The score:

'Rock of Ages'

According to Julian's Dictionary of Hymnology, "Rock of Ages" was probably written about 1775 by Augustus Toplady. Walking along an English coast town, near the sea, he was caught in a terrific storm which threatened to dash him over the cliff. He found refuge in the side of the wall in a great cleft rock and composed the hymn, which has proved one of the best loved of all time.

There is no question but the present operation of the signals by pedestrian control, whereby motor vehicles are forced to stop at Washington and Chestnut st. when a button is pushed opposite Waltham st. (or vice versa) is ridiculous. There is the probability that if the signals at West Newton are put back into operation, State officials may demand a resumption of the former impracticable method. If a traffic officer was on duty most of the day at the intersection of Washington and Waltham sts., the traffic situation at West Newton would be largely solved.

The removal of all traffic signals from the street at intersections along Commonwealth ave. is another recommendation from the Traffic Bureau that will not meet with unanimous approval. There are those who have driven automobiles for many years, including the writer, who favor traffic signals in the middle of streets at wide intersections. We have observed that signals so located keep a certain type of driver from cutting in front of traffic approaching from an opposite direction. One reason given for the desirability of taking signals and beacons off streets is—that automobiles have hit such obstacles. It is a fact that in almost every case when a signal or beacon on a street has been hit by an automobile, the driver has been under the influence of liquor, or speeding. This is a good argument for more signals and beacons at street intersections. It is preferable that drunken drivers should hit a signal or concrete post rather than have them hit some pedestrian or other automobile, and by so doing kill or injure innocent victims.

Several years ago alleged "traffic engineers" favored the placing of traffic signals and beacons in streets. Now there is a new vogue. Styles change in traffic signals as well as in clothing. It helps the business of companies manufacturing traffic signals. Many police officials still favor the placing of signals or beacons in streets at intersections. Chief McKenna of Waltham has during the past couple of years had many intersections safeguarded by making little rotary circles with concrete posts and chains. In Stoughton's business district there are no traffic signals and the huge amount of motor vehicle traffic passing through it is effectively handled by two beacons located in the middle of the street at either end of a complicated traffic area. We suggest in a friendly way that the Traffic Bureau not invite trouble by recommending unnecessary changes in towers, signals and beacons which have met with public approval over a long period of years, and that the Bureau not follow too readily suggestions from self-appointed traffic engineers, some of whom not so long ago were quite active in asking for some of the signals and beacons they now suggest be replaced.

Now that the number of young men being drafted for military service is rapidly increasing, the serious aspect of threatened war is being brought home to more and more persons. Parents of young men who have been, or who will be drafted, and girls, who have been keeping company with these young men, are beginning to realize that the somewhat innocuous "year of military training" will probably develop into something much more ominous. And with this realization, it is quite probable that when the full frightfulness of unrestricted warfare occurs the coming Spring, parents and sweethearts of the young men of this country, who have been drafted for "a year of military training," will make strong objections against their relatives and friends being sent either across the Atlantic or what is more possible, across the Pacific, to fight for the preservation of foreign empires, should such an attempt be made.

It is only in recent years that the U. S. A. decided to end anything that approached imperialism, and so decided to terminate its control of the Philippines in 1946. Now, as a result of clever and systematic propaganda, there is a small, but influential minority in this country demanding that we send warships, airplanes—and men across the Pacific not only to defend the Philippines, but more urgently to preserve the status quo of the British possessions in the Far East, and of the Dutch East Indies. One of those most prominent in advocating this is Dorothy Thompson. She also urges that this country become fused with the British Empire. A few months ago I caused a Newton Centre lady to become indignant when I criticized Dorothy. The lady wrote me a letter which was not exactly polite, after I had flippantly referred to Miss Thompson. But, I had not called Dorothy "muddle-headed," which was the characterization made the other day by Miss Thompson in criticizing Senators Wheeler and Nye because their views differ from hers.

The Nipponese were a peaceful people, content to remain in their native islands and live according to century-old customs until 1853, when Commodore Perry with a fleet of American warships intruded on their soil and compelled them to make certain concessions which ended the seclusion that Japan had practiced for more than two centuries. This was soon followed by Dutch influence causing the Japanese to establish a naval college, build an iron works and dockyards, and start the creation of a navy and merchant marine which now threatens the seizure of the Dutch East Indies and British possessions in East Asia, Malaysia and even Australia and New Zealand, and is causing the U. S. A. to spend billions for a two-ocean navy and bases on islands in the Pacific.

Japan was forced by the United States and encouraged by the Dutch to drop isolationism and enter into competition for world-wide trade. Japan during the past three centuries saw the Dutch take possession of wealthy colonies in the East Indies, and saw the British during the past two centuries exploit rich territories in that section of the world. Japan has seen yellow races dominated by white races for economic gain, has seen its nationals excluded from the U. S. A., the country which assumes the right to protect the whole Western hemisphere from further foreign control. So, despite the fact that we have condemned for years the sending of supplies to Japan by the U. S. A. and Britain to enable the Nipponese to invade China, we believe that the Japanese have at least as much moral right to dominate peoples akin to them as have the white races, including British, French and the Dutch. And they can't be criticised too severely for wanting to dominate Malaysia and countries of East Asia.

Congressman Eliot is entitled to commendation for his work in having ships assigned to Boston from South American ports. Boston has been gradually declining as a port until it has lost most of the lines which formerly came there either as a port of destination or port of call. If the few remaining lines which come to Boston, should cease calling there, not only would the future of Boston be precarious, but also the future of Northern New England. Boston would cease to be the wool headquarters of the U. S. A., and the shoe and leather industry of New England would be jeopardized.

Thefts Reported
In the Newtons

During the week-end the Chestnut Hill School on Essex rd. was broken into and ransacked. The burglar climbed a fire escape and broke a window.

Doris Freeman of 692 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre, reported to the police on Sunday that while her car was parked in the driveway at that address the preceding night, it was broken into. A billfold and flashlight were stolen from it.

A dome from the top of a barber pole in front of the shop of Frank Borghetti at 269 Centre st., Newton, was stolen on Saturday night.

The home of Albert Hayward at 117 Warwick rd., West Newton, was entered on Saturday night and a small sum of money stolen. It was the second burglary in that neighborhood within a few days.

Laid End to End They Add up to a Swell Idea

We mean these Four New Additions to the Buick SPECIAL Series that Give you Big-Car Thrill in less Curbside Space

THE way cars have been stretching out lately, it usually takes only a couple of cars to occupy the curb space of an extension-ladder fire truck.

Not so with the newest additions to the 1941 Buick line.

Here we've reversed the trend—just to prove that an honest-to-golly BIG car can be built without going overboard on bumper-to-bumper distance.

The four new models now adorning the Buick SPECIAL Series fit neatly into modest garages without putting a permanent crimp in the doors.

They slip into parking places smoothly as a rowboat nestles up to a dock—and the way they flit through traffic is a delight to wheel-weary drivers.

When it comes to action—well, they've got a 115-hp. FIREBALL eight under their bonnets that skims you down the road like a mallard heading home. You can add Compound Carburetion at small extra cost and have 125 horsepower that does things we hardly dare hint about in print.

But they're a handy six inches shorter, bumper to bumper, than other Buicks—a quartet of top-quality cars in an easily-handled size that hasn't known such merit before.

The price? It's lower too, since we've passed on to you savings we make in trimming inches off these models.

Better take a look—it'll be the first time you've ever seen a really BIG car wrapped up in this bumper-to-bumper distance.
